much to contemplate—e.g., how to more effectively integrate technology into my instruction, how to “engage and not enrage” our students, and how to redesign and redirect the focus of my work in survey methodology. I came away with so many ideas! I only hope that the 2006 Annual Meeting of the Mid-Western Educational Research Association had a similar impact on those of you who attended.

Let me close by stating an obvious fact, followed by a perhaps not-so-obvious fact. Clearly, serving as Program

Chair was a great deal of work to which any of my predecessors can attest. At the same time, however, I can honestly say that it has been one of the most gratifying experiences of my career thus far in academia! MWERA continues to be a fabulous organization filled with great people! Let’s carry on this 30-year trend by continuing to support our organization and participating in our 2007 Annual Meeting in St. Louis! See you there!
