Dr. Williams Honored By Business Men

Dr. H. R. Williams, president of B. G. S. U., will be honored by a banquet Wednesday, Sept. 30, given by the Chamber of Commerce as a mark of their respect and admiration for his 23 years of successful administration.

Dr. W. A. Zeug will recount the development of the university from the beginning: President Offenhauer and Sup't. A. B. Conklin are to be special guests of honor.

The banquet, which is to begin at 6:30 in the Legion Hall of the City Park, is in order to prove its salt inasmuch as this is the first campaign.

STUDENTS INVITED TO JOIN TOWN IN FUN-MAKING

Everyone will make his way to the annual Callithumpian parade to be sponsored by the Student Council, Friday, Oct. 20, at 7:30 p.m. The business section of Main street will be roped off and King Fun will reign supreme with the aid of girls, bands, floats, and ghosts.

A Madrigal Queen is being selected by popular vote, the floats appearing daily in the Sentinel-Blues. The ladies leading the parade will arrive on the float Wednesday morning. Oct. 20.

Both the Bowling Green high school and the University bands in their colorful uniforms will march in the parade.

NEWS MOVES TO AD. BUILDING

The Bee Gee News staff moved to a new office in the Administration Building this week. The staff held its first meeting in 115-A last Monday evening.

This change from the crowded office in the Science Building came about as a request from President Offenhauer. According to the present plans the old Bee Gee News office will be used for a social club and office by science professors.

TEACHERS OF CITY WELCOME PREXY

At an informal dinner held in the Senior high school cafeteria Thursday night, the City Teacher's Association warmly welcomed the guest of honor, Dr. R. E. Offenhauer, to Bowling Green educational society.

Among those present from the university were Dr. Williamson and Miss Hayward, who joined the gathering of about 75 public school teachers of the city to hear Dr. Offenhauer and other cordial associations now established between the Bowling Green school system and the university.

WHY IS AN EDITOR?...

Why is an Editor? It is thought on this campus that an editor exists purely to blue-pencil, censor, or pervert copy. On the other hand, an editor is an editor simply because he has had a viewpoint of his position as you do. His definition of an editor would be a man not entirely unconnected with the preparation of a newspaper, who has the responsibility of knowing what would probably be noised around, but hoping and no one would realize the foulness of his journalism. Therefore, this paper will be utterly free from political consideration; 4. We must keep our material down to four pages for the benefit of the doubt.

If you have no confidence or trust given by others. Without this, the man who can spell a word only once you should not take any Entertainment...
Malam Acocu missed only one game, John Carroll-Case, in the Bos Gee News Football contest of Oct. 23, and wins the prize of a box of Bon Bons given by the PURITY CONFECTIONERY.

Contest scores run quite high this week indicating students are picking more accurately as the grid season progresses.

The winner for next week's contest will receive $1.00 in trade at the MURLIN & DEAN PHARMACY.

Below is the list of games. Mark an X before the school you think will win, put an N after the school you think will lose, or a  to have both places marked. Drop entries in New Box located under post office window in Adm. Bldg.

Homecoming and Rush Season Bring Many Social Activities

With the advent of Homecoming and formal rush season, all campus organizations are keen deep in plans for the coming season. The first social event of the Inter-Sorority Council was a tea Monday afternoon at four o'clock in Studio B of the PMU Building, under the honor of the Seven Sister Sorority, where the Esther Russell Scholarship cup was presented to them for holding the highest scholastic standard among the sororities. The tea was served from two to four by advisory Misses. Miss Simmons and Eleanor Riley were in charge of arrangements.

The annual All-Campus Homecoming dance will be on Saturday, Oct. 29 at the men's gym. Guests will not come in contact with the dancing Friday afternoon to carry out the holiday theme. The committee in charge, whose picture appeared in the Toledo Sunday Times, is headed by Jeanette Salas and serving with her are Marie Pitaro, Isabel Parker, D'Nell Mason, Elaine Hall and Betty Geis. The Toledo chapter of the Las Amigas Sorority will be present for the sorority and their friends Saturday night.

The Meet The Sport Dance at Shaked Hall Saturday afternoon, attended by one hundred twenty-five couples opened the social season for the Skol sorority. Jane Hobart was in charge. The receiving line were Dr. McCain, Dr. and Mrs. Zsaus, Mr. and Mrs. Fuller, Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy, Mr. and Mrs. Harshman, Dr. Williamson, Miss Pigg and Miss indebted to Mr. Powell, Mrs. Kennedy and his bride for dressing out in house colors. The ladies wore a white sport suit while Mrs. Kennedy appeared in a business suit. The guests wore a varicolored sash and a head scarf worn peasant style.
