Higfield and Liddle Still Favored

NINE DEBATE TEAMS MEET THURSDAY

Four teams that came out on top in the first round and will compete in the second round of the all-college debate tournament scheduled to come off Thursday in the Library. The second round has been delayed until tonight due to complications of schedules, exam week and the beginning of the new semester. The tourney ran its first round Jan. 15.

Higfield and Liddle, the odd team (consequently drawing a bye) are still heavy favorites as the odd teams meet tonight.

The eight teams will debate as follows:

Wright & Kittinger (A) vs. Halsmeatt & Higfield (N).
Gutcher & Roberhansh (A) vs. Myers & Halsmeatt (N).
Shine & Glover (A) vs. Franke & Sharney (N).
Ault & Woodworth (A) vs. Peters & Aaker (N).

Four teams will be eliminated tonight, leaving five teams to compete in the second round. Prof. Carmichael, head of the debate department, stated that the succeeding rounds will be run as quickly as can be arranged.

Orange Five Undecided

Another tough cage assign- ment faces Bowling Green Uni- versity's Falcons Saturday night when they take the road again to face Capital. The Falcons will enter the fray as underdogs even though Capital's stock has fallen considerably as a result of their crushing defeat at the hands of Otterbein.

This week the Falcon drills were concentrated toward stop- ping the Capital, and Paul Weaver of the Cap. five are their top marksmen.

Their pair could pile up in- dividual scores in the 'teens, but they may be dangerous on their home floor.

The Falcons' line-up, as al- ways, will not be decided be- fore game time, 8:15 Saturday. A win will do much to pull up the,woodieees' and will en- courage them to win the imminent game against Otterbein.

The President's Inauguration will be held at the Senior High School auditorium. Everyone is invited to come.

The Bee Gee News will be in for a breather next Tuesday when they will be off to Adia for a return game with Delphi, who are also in the cellar.

Behind The Headlines

This is the first issue of the Bee Gee News for the second semester, and the staff wishes to extend a cordial welcome to new students as well as a pleasant continuation of relations with the college.

We hope we have succeeded in our attempts to present a view of student life, our only compensation because of a rigid faculty censorship. We are unable to use as many cuts as we would like, because of the lack of adequate funds. For this reason the only possible arrangement the News could make to appear in Wednesday's issue. This is the result of knowing we have accomplished something. To present a view of student life, our only compensation is the knowledge we have accomplished something.

IN THE COLLEGE SWING, as invited by PARTNERS EXCHANGE SIDES, are a two JACKIE COOGAN and BETTY GRABLE, stepping, mating the complete change in four counts, the boy hop on the right foot, extending the strap No. 1, then repeated and partners again, the girl hop on the left, extending the right-change side. This figure is repeated for six bars of music.

This figure is repeated for six bars of music.
THE BREAK AWAY is standard break. However, instead of doing it as is place, the dancers back away from each other, leaping on the ball of the foot to the rhythm of the music. This takes up two bars.

DANCERS JUMP HIGH into the air on a fourth count, the arms held stiffly to the side, with forefingers pointed straight down. The body also is stiff. They land jerkily and assume any silly pose they wish.

DANCERS HOLD THEIR POSE for a full four bars before starting next figure. Although it should be held absolutely still, the dancers can vary this by cocking their heads and making faces to rhythm.

DANCERS TRUCK FORWARD for four counts. On fourth count they assume another silly pose, then back away for four counts, then forward for another four counts, ending in silly pose on fourth count.

IN RUNNING BALBOA, torso is in still strut position. Step forward 1-2, 1-2-3, last three counts are taken in double time. Partners circle each other, finishing side by side, then strut forward for four counts.

IN HEEL BEATING STEP, heels are beat for two counts laceing forward, then two counts laceing each other, the feet striking between the partner's feet. Then repeat front for two counts, and side for two counts.

NOW BACK TO CHILDHOOD for a little pattycake and jingle to the rhythm of the music. The pattycake is alternated every four counts by some pranks such as nose tweaking, ear pulling, for four counts (or four bars of music.

THE FLEA HOP is a sliding to side, the man's weight is on his left pull, the right push, then further the slide the better.

IT'S HERE--THE "COLLEGE SWING" THAT'S TAKING NATION BY STORM

A new dance is sweeping out of the west today and making such a strong bid for national recognition that a motion picture already has been named after it.

The dance is the "College Swing," and is the west's first contribution to national dancing. In the past the dances have either come out of the south—like the Charleston and the Big Apple—or have come out of Harlem.

The dance is a collection of kidding steps, which LeRoy Prins, Paramount dance director, saw during a tour of western colleges and moulded into a set routine. The dance will come to the screen in "College Swing," Paramount's new college picture, with Betty Grable and Jackie Coogan in the terpichorean exports.

Prof. Fauley and Ed. Taylor attended the recital given by Mary McCormick, soprano, of the Chicago City Opera Co.

SPORTS SHAVINGS BY BOB BARON

During the mid-semester recess there were, conservatively speaking, about 75 fellows who either because of jobs here, or the long distance to their homes, or because they live in B. G., were away at the same time. Having nothing much to do, they looked around on Monday, and Saturday for something to do. It was discouraging to see many loafing up and down the streets for want of some recreation and seeing many gathered in pools halls or drug store corners for the same reason.

Why didn't they come out to the campus and play on the unused gym, or in the waiting handball courts? They couldn't, because the big building was locked tighter than a bank vault?

We don't who close up the gym on short holidays like this don't especially care.

Defeat Ashland 45-44 But Drop 38-34 Game To Otterbein Five

A rejuvenated Ashland College cage crew, the door men of the Ohio Conference, almost caused a major upset in Ohio basketball circles when they fell before Bowling Green 45 to 44 last Friday after the Falcons had staged a spirited last minute rally climax by the game-winning bucket of "Duff" Madaras.

Over confident and ill at ease in a small gym, the Falcons saw Ashland take the game in to their own hands effectively enough to hold a 20 to 12 lead at the half and a 13 point margin at one point in the second half. Despite the accuracy of "Big Jim" Zechman that saved the cause, for the mannish forward hoped the leather for 19 points in the last half to gradually close the gap and help set the stage for Madaras' winning goal.

The close victory was expected to put new fight into the Falcon camp since they learned that Capital had been beaten, but Otterbein was to blaze their hopes the next night.
