Mr. Bachman moved that the low bids of the Watts Construction Company, $107,107.00 for general contract; the Columbus Blank Book Manufacturing Company, $13,938.00 for library stacks; the Gesling Company, $6,000.00 for heating and ventilation; the Preeter Electric Company, $7,645.00 for electrical; and the Einheit Construction Company, $6,879.00 for electrical services be approved and the contracts be entered into for the above mentioned firms at these low bids. Mr. Reams seconded. All voted "yes" on roll call.
The Board studied the Civil Service and Administrative payroll changes. Mr. Bachman moved that these changes be approved as presented. Mr. Schwyn seconded. All voted "yes" on roll call.

The President reported a restrictive gift from Mrs. B. H. Urschel of $1,000.00 for furnishing a bedroom in the Lillian Tressell Urschel home. The Board directed the President to write a note of thanks to Mrs. Urschel for this gift.

Considerable discussion followed on the boiler plants, old and new. The President reported that the No. 1 boiler in the new plant had already been fired, and the No. 2 boiler will be ready for operation about August 18. He then pointed out the hazard of the smoke stack of the old plant, and the Board asked that steps be taken to demolish the old stack and remove the old boilers whenever Mr. Dunn, the engineer of the John Paul Jones architectural firm says the new stack is satisfactory. The President recommended Mr. E. A. Long as the engineer for the new power plant. Mr. Bachman moved that Mr. Long be appointed engineer for this new plant at $3500.00 per year beginning August 1. Mr. Reams seconded, all voting "yes" on roll call.

President Prout reported that the Bank of Good County has been the official depository for University funds. Mr. Kreischer states that the Bank will not accept time deposits bearing interest and that we should attempt to find banks who will accept time deposits and transfer a portion of University funds to such banks.

It was moved by Mr. Schwyn, seconded by Mr. Bachman, that the Business Manager be authorized to transfer funds to other depositories who will accept time deposits. All members voted aye. Motion carried.

The President notified the Board of the next Commencement exercises scheduled for 10 a.m. on August 11.

The following payroll changes were reported. Mr. Reams moved that they be approved, and Mr. Bachman seconded it. All members voted "aye." Motion carried.
