Record Vote Cast In Council Poll

SGL, CCO SPLIT HONORS

Campaign Most Intensive Ever Seen On Campus

Twice as many students voted in the Council-May Queen elections last Wednesday than had ever voted before in an all-campus election. 747 out of 1606, 97 percent placed at this time last year at the same time, according to a statement by Olive Cummings, acting head of the Bureau of Appointments. Twenty-four students, twelve two-year graduates and twelve two-year graduate students, have already been placed in the same number placed at this time last spring. 97 percent of all graduates were eventually placed last year.

Miss Cummings, acting in the absence of Dean Voss, who is in Columbus, also stated that the verdict of the true false rumor that there is shortage of available jobs.

The Bureau requests that seniors who have acquired positions without going through the regularly, the names of the offices report their appointments im-

UNIVERSITY MAY BUILD MEN'S DORM

Bill For Gym, Pool Still Pending

A men's dorm may be built on the south campus according to a statement issued by President Offenbauer. "The plans are not certain," continued the President, "but there is a possibility of building during the completion of the new gym and pool if the University is financially able to do so."

The appropriation for the new women's building and natatorium is still in Congress. University officials are awaiting word from Washington of its probable approval and subsequent appropriation.

U.C.R.L. to Lead Forum on Exams,
Grades In Auditorium May 25

Bull Session For Students Only

The University Civic-Renaissance League held a student forum on tests in the University Auditorium Wednesday, May 25, at 4:30 P. M. Only students will be admitted to this forum, which is a questionnaire composed by a committee of U. C. R. L. The students will be free to express its ideas on grades, the grading system, and the examinations.

The questionnaire is to be printed in usable form in the Bee. Notice next week. It includes such pertinent question:

- Do you favor the continuaence of the A-B-C-D-F grading method? Do you desire to eliminate the six-weeks grades? Should tests be a major factor in determining grades?

Exclusion of the faculty, it is hoped, will be a major factor in producing the most successful co-educational ball-sensation in the history of this University.

Results of the questionnaire, the resolutions of the students, and the student's exam at this forum will be published for the information of the student-body not attending and for the faculty and admininistration.

U. A. From Funds Cut In Half

Dance To Be Spring Formal

The appropriation from the social committee for the University Anniversary Prom this Friday has been cut in half.

Dr. Auroption, head of the committee, announced last week the Women's League will receive only $75 instead of $150 to aid in sponsoring the affair.

The dance, set as a spring formal, will be the third annual commemoration of the establishment of Bowling Green State College as a state university in 1890.

Dick Hanselman's orchestra from Lima has been contacted to play.

Wilma Holt is chairman of the dance committee and D'Nell Mason, is in charge of decoration.

Jennie Zimmerman is chairman of the decorations committee, Allen Nielsen of the public auditorium and Margaret Allen, of the program committee.

Elections Handled Efficiently

Elections last week were the most efficiently and professionally conducted school poll that we have seen. Dudley Avery and his election committee of Arthur Shanly and Emily Henderson broke completely from the system of last year and this year broke well.

Removal of the voting to Reception Hall handled easily the between-class rush that last year brought complaints and confusion with fifty or sixty attempting to vote at once in the cramped quarters of the well.

The secret election booth Avery and Rob Harms secured from the city probably increased the number of votes by one hundred, and certainly foiled the usual ballot-peekers formerly loitering about the well to get the drift of an election.

Only criticism voiced centered about the mixing of ballots from all classes into two ballot boxes. The mixing prevented securing data on the May Queen vote by classes, at least doubled the counting time, and caused a lot of confusion in the recount for senior representative. Election clerks had to go through all seven ballots for the recount.

SPORT SHAVINGS

The end of the school year is almost here, but there is one thing that would like to do in behalf of all the fellows who have frequented that building east of the pond. That is to thank a person for the fine work he is doing and has always done on a job which is probably one of the most thankless on the campus. Of course, that person is Dale Sautter, caretaker of stock room and physical education building.

Few probably realize the ramifications and responsibility of his job, that of supervising the maintenance of the gym and outside athletic grounds and of taking care of the stock room.

Especially commendable about his work is the individual attention he has given the fellows in even his busiest times.

His care of the athletic equipment has resulted in the minimum of loss to the school and he has been successful in carrying out necessary rules and regulations so that very few if any student has any ease for discontent with the system.

So it is today that Dale and some other company of helpers who have kept the ‘ole gym in ship shape and as this is the final home caretaker of stock room and
