Ebb And Flow In Campus Pattern

A view of a campus walk during the fifteen minutes before classes changes is rather like a movie whose speed has been doubled. Right behind the student one can follow the students walking past those who are passing in the opposite direction. Those who change classes are steering away from the audience; thus the audience gets a full view of the students who are changing classes.

A few early students amble casually along, pausing to chat with passers-by, then the crowd is thickening as the tide of students sweeps past, leaving a sparsely populated campus behind.

Gradually, the pace of the students increases, and there come the crowds who know that they will neither be early nor late for their classes. They talk and laugh as they go, glancing over their shoulders frequently to see who is near. An automobile; two boys stop to contribute furniture. Also a plan of cooperative buying—a few suggestions by students to make use of what there is here to make a social room for men where men can smoke and talk. The arguments are frequently heard over their shoulders frequently and laugh as they go, glancing around where Patty Parker is likely to be. Virginia Cross entered the prom; Don Bestor's date, Margaret Atkins.

Give Us A Social Room

In the policy below the News stands as a favoring a social room for men where men can smoke and talk. This policy, without a doubt, is favored by every male student on the campus.

This policy, without a doubt, is favored by every male student on the campus. Most larger universities have social halls for both men and women, but, although B. G. S. U. enjoys social life, a few things are needed to make a stone picture start a snowstorm, her picture started. Virginia Powell, B. G. S. U. student, in which cost him something like $2 the other $3. Why?€™s to the next period's classes.

Otto Hunter, a former student of the University, drew the cartoon sketch of Dr. C. C. Kohl, which was used at the memorial service last Wednesday.

Virginia May Powell, ’36, who is now teaching in Fayette, O., spent the Thanksgiving holiday in Wescott, Mass., and northern Maine. On the trip she encountered a snow storm, her violin, Verlyn Johnson, and a blizzard. Incidentally, Verlyn and Virginia, will be married early next summer.

Virginia May Powell, ’36, who is now teaching in Fayette, O., spent the Thanksgiving holiday in Wescott, Mass., and northern Maine. On the trip she encountered a snow storm, her violin, Verlyn Johnson, and a blizzard. Incidentally, Verlyn and Virginia, will be married early next summer.

Question: Would you relax if some foreign nation invaded South America and the United States declared war upon them?

Harold Bishop: *Invasion of South America by any foreign nation today would probably be the beginning of one war or another and if I am going to do as a result of the war, I'm going to have to do more than that. In that time, I would like to do that better by not investigating."

Jim Zennor, senior: "At present any idea of吐miting to another country is out. If the invasion were in the United States it would be a different thing—but out of the country—no.

MY REACTION

I heard on the "Blacklist" that the "Snap-list" of the nature of this is not sure you are acquainted. How can I contribute to have a "black list" in a campus fraternity, listing undesirable dates. Perhaps your next flame may be a victim of a personal prejudice, who knows?

OVERHEARD

Bellevue Ohio's local sheet releases to the News that Estelle Calhoun has been adopted by the Commomor's, and Five Brothers as Frat. sweetheart. The following is a statement gained by interviewing the three ladies who are the three who drove to Toledo in their pajamas to rescue a stranded B. G. U. co-ed. Bill Souter and Mill Small were victimized. One asked $2 the other $3. Why? Some one tells me that Orville Dreyer is starting a hole crew. That Ted Grignon sent a telegram to Isabel and forget to put their address on the note. Excited.

I TOLD TO ME

Dr. Hissong uses the always good excuse: "I've got a corn pop in order to escape ticket scalpers. Hope he reads this! Evelyn Babister has been adopted by Gamma Phi Beta, Formal. Dick Fruth "trucked on down" at safety ticket formal. Dick Fruth and Gail Zimney might have something in common.

TRACK MAN

Jim Ondrow is seeing chasing around where Patty Parker is likely to be. Virginia Cross im- ported a University of Cincin- nati gentleman for the inter- collegiate formal. Dick Fruth "trucked on down" at safety ticket formal. Dick Fruth and Wendell Riggie has taken on himself a beautiful obligation. I do not know her name as Mistletoe, and London.

FALCON MIGRATION

Mistletoe Holden entertained for the University where she tendered the prom; Don Bestor's bestowal played some fine music.

LOYALTY

Bath Osborn didn't attend the inter-country dance because he, John Rohr's, had to work. George Bonelle is the young man who was pinned by a lady wrestler in a Perryburg wrestling bout! Mary Lou Schlumborges receives miles of poetry through the mail. Ralph Glyder entertained a Miss Mun- rore, and London.

SACRAMENTO

Jehovah's Witness called "Satchmo" by his intimates—-will be the main attraction at the Traction Ballroom, T' olo, Thursday night, Dec. 8th. The "Jitterbugs" will come out to tribute to the greatest jazz dazzler in the world. Commoner's All-Campus Saturday Climaxes Week's Activities

Seven Sister Christmas Tea December 11

Wayne Challen and his orchestra from Toledo will be introduced by the Commoner Fraternity this Saturday night, December 10, at the annual all-campus Commoner Christmas Tea to be held in the Men's Gymnasium, and "too-trumpeting" Challen's music is reputed to grace the dance floor.

The Seven Sister Christmas Tea, December 11, is limited to faculty and fraternity and sorority members. Arrangements for the tea are being made by Arlyne Mutlak, Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Quilles, and Mr. and Mrs. Upton Palmer.

Promising to be one of the most active organizations on the campus, the Big Alpha Chimu, according to word received two weeks from streptococci infection, is improving slowly, according to word received from hospital attendants.

Industrial Arts Club Elects Huntington President

The Industrial Arts Club was recently organized and the following officers elected: President, James Huntington; Vice President, Harold Keyser; Secretary-Treasurer, Walter Rothcnbuhler; and the rock. The club will hold meetings on the first Thursday of every month at 7:00 P.M. Plans are being formulated for the coming year which include hearing speakers and making trips to industrial plants.

Mrs. Steller Improves

Mrs. Warren E. Steller, who has been very ill for the past two weeks from streptococci infection, is improving slowly, according to word received from hospital attendants.
