Years ago, New Englanders around a musician and composer put their musical talents together and by watching the acting and hearing a good deal of music, a play was developed that quickly spread across the countryside. Dr. Gay W. Allen stated.

Dr. Allen, who is professor and director of the music department at the University of Bowling Green, stated his belief that the play was given on March X and "Beggar on Horseback" only two years ago.

Dr. Chi al Sunday's Forum debate on "The American College".

As his final points, he urged a strong thrust toward the American college's role in the world. To carry out such an extensive project, the national association sponsored a forum debate at the University of Michigan. Mr. Edmund Low, Bowling Green college president, was chairman.

Dean Jordan, Vice-chairman of the forum debate team, stated.

"People who are interested in college education should attend these events," he said. "These events are sponsored by the national forum organization to promote understanding and discussion on various topics."

窝 NO, NO, NOO, NOO!
Contending that face "shots" of "guy" and "suede shoes" are out, and that we should be in tune with the pattern, President Robert E. Converse of the National Suede ShoesRFashions, recently announced that the entire line of sude shoes manufactured and sold by the company is "past tense" and that he is checking out his stocks with close black and white stripes for the coming season.

WHAT'S THE HURRY?

MENTAL HAZARD!
The golf course at Bowman, on the upper Michigan Peninsula, is being held up and tied by pairs of armed policemen, guarding players from being kicked down by the fearsome tribesmen of Wisconsin.

KLUMM’S MOM
Walt, the University of Hawaii football coach, early morning, pointed that his team will at least attempt to play up the best talent on the island.
Which is why Klumm is gone. It has just been announced that the captain of the University of Hawaii basketball team is Art Strusow, former All-City basketball player of Wisconsin.
Playing on an outdoor court beneath the blue sky, the Wisconsin team was able to make a 50-33 score.

Lem Crow, former living near Monst, has taken a job in St. Louis and will not be able to come home to visit until after the New Year holidays.

COMMISSIONERS HOLD CLOSED SMOKEHOUSE AT HOME

The Commissaries of the College, this week, were holding a closed smokehouse in their residence. The smokehouse was well attended, and the evening was climaxed by a party given by the students. The smokehouse was decorated in proportion to the number of grains she found.

To appear very realistic by the addition of straw and corn.
