850 Witness Final Scraps; Bouts Feature Slugging
Noel Defeats Paul in Brother Feud; Peterson Downs Sterner In Thriller

The third annual All-College Boxing Tournament came to an end Monday night in the gym, with seven bouts being presented to approximately 880 university and town people.

Paul Apple, All-College champion at 152 pounds, fell from his perch through the stiff punching of his brother, Noel. It was a close battle which could have been awarded either way.

The first bout on the card was a full comedy as Bob Sandtler out-smugged and out-smarted his 152 pound class and won convincingly.

Dave Silver entertained Jay Parker in a 142 pound bout which featured both men demonstrating courage against hitting hearts. Silver climbed through the third with a larget score.

The Wells vs. Merrow match brought forth skill and skill of previous boxers, 130 pound McMahon flirting his way to a win.

In a final bout which lasted for speed and skill of previous boxers, 125 pound class and winning his first victory of the season.

The fourth bout was the feature one of the night as Bob Mecloud, former Toledo University heavyweight champion, met Paul Givens in the gym at noon Monday.

Along with the struggle of Bob Marine for educational honors, the sport of boxing for the students of Western Michigan University was on the line as the 151 pound Paul Givens defended his championship against the challenge of Bob Mecloud.

As a result, the efforts of Marine for educational honors, the sport of boxing for the students of Western Michigan University was on the line as the 151 pound Paul Givens defended his championship against the challenge of Bob Mecloud.

The third round was the decisive one with Mecloud gaining a decisive advantage by gaining the upper hand. Marine was stopped in the third and the bout was ruled a decision for Mecloud.
