on the baseball team.

They are headed by Captain Wayne Wilkins, Jack McMahon, Jim Hollinger, and Fritz Barna. I also want to mention Stewart, Clingerman, Rathbun, Brown and Orange held their opponents to 683 points.

Mr. Inman was in the middle of a delicious swiss steak when we got a call from the University Athletes Leave Enviable Records.

We invite you in to see our new display of unique flowers and plants, which we believe will be very good, indeed, for the coming season.

Cagers Win 12*, Lose 7 But Finish Near Top in Conference

Playing the tough teams in the Ohio Conference, the Falcons 1939-40 basketball aggregation ended with a 12 and 7 record.

In the conference standings, one can see that they did the job as well as they were out by a margin of 541 for an average of over 16 points a game. Both Brown and Orange held their opponents.

Big "Zock" Zechman paced the team in scoring the season with 156 points, but the close of the season. Of these, they were thrilled by their spectacular performances or valiant efforts for B.G. University.

The results of the Toledo match were 6-4, 8-6; and Wilkie and Hollinger won the second doubles to Nash and Dole with scores of 6-2, 6-3; Wilkins and McMahon lost their first doubles to Nash and Dole 6-4, 8-6, and Wilkie and Hollinger won the third doubles to Nash and Dole 6-4, 8-6, and Wilkie and Hollinger won the third doubles to Nash and Dole 6-4, 8-6.

Fete Williams Hall Graduates With Dinner And Dance

Impressive Program Held
In Honor of 20 Seniors

The Williams Hall formal dinner and baccalaureate service was held Thursday evening. The program included the presentation of diplomas and certificates to graduating seniors and the delivery of the valedictory address by Mrs. Virginia E. Hendricks, head of the English department. The keynote of the address was the value of an education and the important role it plays in the development of a well-rounded individual. The seniors were also given a token of their literary achievements in the form of a diploma.

The newly elected and installed officers will also be introduced and musical numbers will be presented. The program will end with the singing of the Eight New Officers song. The Eight New Officers are once again a group of dedicated and hardworking women who will no doubt continue to excel in their academic and extracurricular pursuits.

From me to you by page nine

I especially wanted to express my gratitude for the warm welcome I received during my time as a student here. Not only did I make lasting friendships, but I also gained valuable life skills and experiences that I will carry with me for the rest of my life. I want to thank everyone who contributed to my success during my time here, and I hope to stay in touch with everyone in the future.
