Peace On Earth... Good Will To Men

It is Christmas Eve, 1939. For a brief time the world is at peace. Some of the little quarrels between men on this continent are affecting the ways of life of the children of a far-off land. A few that could be made:

We can hate them. We can understand them. We can refuse to hate what they are doing.

We cannot shrug our shoulders at their problems.

We shall cooperate in making the world a better place for study.

We shall develop a spirit of universality.

We cannot say, "Let them fight their own war.

We shall cooperate in the making of the world a better place for study.

We shall develop a spirit of universality.
