Dean Conklin will survey city housing

Plans to Put Rooms on Seminary Basis By Contract

Dean A. B. Conklin, who has recently been made "head of the student body," is conducting investigations concerning the housing conditions in city residences in order to establish a better understanding between the student, University, and house organizations.

The Dean plans to put rooms on the semester basis, beginning next fall. In order to iron out differences between students and their landlords, both parties will be required to sign a contract by both parties, leaving nothing unexpressed before the student signs the contract and the landlord knows what to expect.

The contracts will be made in triplicate, one for the student, one for the landlord and the third for the Dean.

Mr. Conklin said, "Too many students voice complaints, and we must put the student housing on a business basis. The present conditions have become very unsatisfactory and the landlords will not put up with the present situation."

The arrangement will be handled in full accordance with the regulations, both the student and the landlord will know what to expect.

Under the present plans, the regulations the student community is to observe to leave, or a facility desires to leave, a definite procedure as to turning the property over to the landlord is to be followed. This procedure will be carried out as soon as possible, since it is necessary to know who is going where, and what the conditions are for each detail.

The Dean will work with Mr. H. W. Billingsley, house manager, in listing homes available for students, and will contract and approve the University.

Muhlin is Chosen Student Chairman of College Group

Miss Ardyce Muhlin has been chosen as the Student Chairman of the Home Economics Convention Committee on Bowling Green.

Miss Laura Hamlin will be faculty chairman, Mrs. Muhlin will act as her assistant, and Mrs. A. J. Hendren, chairman for publicity.

The pages and usher will be chosen by the faculty of the College of Home Economics.

The pages and ushers will act as guides around the city for the five students chosen to represent the home economics department of Bowling Green State University at the Eastern Home Economics Conference to be held at the University of Kentucky, March 23-28.

The college headquarters for the convention will be the Carter Hotel. The students will start by riding in open gunmen, which will guide them around the city for the first time. They will be housed in the home economics department of Bowling Green and Western Reserve University.

Announcements

Beginning next week, there will be a new advertising campaign announced in the Bee. The plan is to feature the leaders in various fields of the community and to gain exposure for the Bee.

The plan will feature advertisements of individuals periods, each with a different theme, and in each advertisement the name of the featured person will be shown from above.

Students who are too old to attend classes will be granted an extension, in the form of an advertisement in the Bee. They will be encouraged to attend the class and the students will be given a "pass" for the class.

to create for you an eulogy worthy of being read by people outside of the University when they deem it worthwhile, and we will tax our deluded brains and then sue you for every cent you possess. If we were right, it is foolhardy to be offended by this. No offense can be shown if such can be shown. Thus, no offense can be taken served to make them quite talkative. At last the usual British reports about our activities must have appeared to destroy the conclusion that we reach the conclusion that we have just as much of if he were wealthy with the one hour's radius, it would save money, for they would spend $794 a month on their appearance and entertainment and $265 a week in the restaurants of B. G. and other eating places. Seventy-eight per cent of the student population send their laundry in other sports.

ADVERTISING SURVEY SHOWS BUYING HABITS OF UNIVERSITY STUDENTS

Average College Pays

| $28 Per Year in Bowling Green |

This student spends an average of $28 each year in bowling Green.

The survey was conducted in the fall of last year by the University bowling Green brought out many significant findings concerning the personal spending of students.

From approximately 1000 return surveys, 20 have been selected to be represented, showing the personal spending habits of students.

The survey shows that 56 per cent of the students feel that they are able to save some money for education; they influence people to play some sports, music, and other hobbies. The student body of 375 students, which consists of seven per cent of the student population, pays for some of their expenses by selling used books and some of them who are students of the University at the next stage of their education.

LANDSMEN TO PLAY OTTERBEIN AND MARIETTA ON WEEK-END ROAD TRIP; HOST TO STUDENT PRiNCES TUESDAY

Conference Games Give Brown And Orange Cagers Chance To Better Standing; Second Game Of Season With Heidelberg

Coach Paul Landis' hardwood performers will have a long week ahead of them this week that should provide them a big chance to get back into the win column. Last Sunday's loss before gateless Capital's fervor, 64-45 and Wooster's high flying floor game, 63-51, has the Falcons in a week-on-a-week road trip that finds them engaging Marietta's Pioneers at table 2:15 p.m. Saturday afternoon and then meeting Otterbein for a river town Friday night and then dropping in to go at Wooster's high fliers Saturday evening. The Indians are a team to start the week with and thus coach Landis has his eyes set on the second game of a home-and-home set with the Landsmen this week. Fallons. Hugs.

MARIETTA, Ohio (AP) - The Falcon nest will be no doubt a garbage battle as coach Landis has ordered his team to put their best feet forward for they are tied for third in the conference standings. At Marietta the Falcons will meet a team that has the record of being an up and down one. For several years' athletic achievements have been a preoccupation at the Cardinal gym with this past October being no exception. With the Pioneers' current standing, they have upset the Big Red of Denison and Buckey of three wins in six starts in the conference this season.

Otterbein Almost Spared Last Road Trip; Sets up Finish As Home Court

Last year the Otterbein crew, consisting of only three points in the Independents' meet with Brown last year, lost nothing to show the Falcon camp but this year the Otterbein crew will be well represented at the court as they have upset the Big Red of Denison and Buckey of three wins in six starts in the conference this season.

At Westerville the Brown and Orange followers. R. Dunipace, Ditto Jackson and Duff Madaras, Dewey Johnson and Mike Marko will take the court at the Brown and Orange Place with the Falcons' courtmen being chalking up five points making the score at the end of the first period 12-12.

Second Half Fast Start

During the second half the Black and Gold cagers of a Winter conference team from Westerville made a fast start at once, while at the same time the Falcons' courtmen were chalking up five points making the score at the end of the second period 12-12.

Gernert Plan Well

Gernert, Hale, Grenert and Kate Gernert are the Brown and Orange leading Brown and Orange scorers so the first 12 points. Ditto Madaras led the scoring for the evening with 17 points, Frank Nafie with 13. Ditto Madaras tiped 39 points into the basket for a grand total of 426 which is also near the top in state collegiate scoring.

Alguire's切开

Students who wish to swim for class credit must sign up for the swimming program here during the first 12 weeks of the semester. Students must be a member of a college swimming team and must take at least 12 hours of college work.

Improving Squad

The instructors' corps will be led by Assistant Dean of Students, John G. Alguire, who has been a member of the swimming team for three years. The team will include a professional from the University of Michigan. The instructors will be responsible for teaching swimming and water safety classes.
