Picnic to follow on Tuesday

Opening day to feature core values

The University's commitment to its five core values will be reflected in President Sidney Ribeau's Opening Day program on Aug. 23. Preceding the program will be time for coffee and fellowship, beginning at 9:30 a.m. in the Lenhart Grand Ballroom of the Student Union. The program will begin at 10 a.m.

This year's Opening Day program will highlight various efforts that exemplify the core values in practice.

Anybody—respect for one another, cooperation, pride in a job well done, creative imaginations, and intellectual and spiritual growth—were developed in 1996 via the "Building Community" project. Through focus groups, about 2,000 faculty, staff and students provided input that led to the creation of both the core values and the University's vision statement. The shuttle service will be operating on opening day, with seven minutes between buses, and a special route will pick up passengers in the College Park and Perry Stadium areas for the trip to the union.

An all-day event will be off campus but would like to take the shuttle to the union should call the shuttle office at 2-0236 to arrange a ride.

The special shuttle route will also be in effect for the all-campus picnic the following day, Aug. 24. The picnic is set for 11:30 a.m.-2 p.m. on the lawn outside University Hall. In the event of rain, the same menu will be available in the residence hall dining areas and the union, and picnic entertainment will be moved to the Lenhart ballroom.

Information regarding the program's location will be posted on the BGSU Web site's front page (http://www.bgusa.edu) or by calling 2-SNOW the morning of the picnic.

Volunteers are still needed to work at the picnic. Available shifts are: set up, 8-10 a.m.; hosts, hostesses and servers, 11 a.m.-12:30 p.m. and 12:30-2 p.m.; and tear down, 1-3 p.m.

To request a shift, contact Carol Canterbury, dining services, at 2-892 or email ccanate@bgnet.bgsu.edu. Volunteers should provide their phone number and T-shirt size. All volunteers will receive a T-shirt compliments of the Office of Student Life.

Public policy center has new name, director

At the Center for Governmental Research and Public Service, there is a new name on the door and, as of Wednesday (Aug. 18), a new face in the director's chair.

Effective July 1, the center changed its name to the Center for Policy Analysis and Public Service, reflecting plans to broaden its scope to a wide range of public policy and service issues.

The new director will be Beth Walter Honadle, who comes to Bowling Green from the University of Minnesota, where she was a professor of applied economics and an adjunct professor at the Hubert H. Humphrey Institute of Public Affairs. Before going to Minnesota, she worked for the U.S. Department of Agriculture for 11 years.

Gary Hess, history and the center's interim director last year, was chair of the search committee for a permanent director. He said Honadle "emerged as the top candidate after a national search for a new director. She is well known in the field and has a background in political science and public administration, as well as an academic affiliation. She has had experience with local governments, working on a wide range of issues."

In addition to being the center's director, Honadle will also teach political science, although "that won't happen the first year," Hess said. "For that year, she will direct the center with no classroom duties."

As the center works toward a goal of increased visibility, Honadle will spend considerable time "getting to know everyone" and familiarizing herself with the campus and southwest Ohio "to see what opportunities are out there that we can tap into," she said.
