Gary Swegan has been named interim director of admissions, it has been announced by Sallye McKee, vice provost for enrollment and student support services. He officially began his interim directorship April 1.

He replaces director Michael Walsh, who has been appointed admissions director James Madison University in Virginia.

University celebrates April began his interim directorship for enrollment and admissions director James Madison University in Virginia.

Conference to offer varied perspectives on Latino issues

A "Cornucopia of Voices" is the theme for the sixth annual Latino Issues Conference to be held on April 13.

Free and open to the public, the daylong conference will take place on the first floor of Oldenhauer East.

Brazilian dramatist and former member of Parliament Augusto Boal of Rio de Janeiro will give the keynote address.

Gary Swegan steps into new admissions role

Swegan, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, returned to the University as assistant admissions director in 1989 after working a year at Kent State. He was promoted to associate director in December 1994.

Dave Garcia will serve as interim associate director of admissions.

University celebrates its dedicated employees

More than 180 part- and full-time administrative and classified staff members will be honored at the University's annual Staff Recognition Dinner April 3. All have 15 or more years of service to BGSU, including some who have recently retired.

Leading the list of honorees, with 35 years of service to the University, are Cliffon Boutelle, recently retired director of the Office of Public Relations, and Damilda Lee, a technical assistant in the circulation department of Jerome Library.

Also to be honored are 24 staff members with 30 years of service; 35 with 25 years; 60 with 20 years and 61 with 15 years.

The dinner will begin at 6:30 p.m. in 101 Olescamp Hall. For the first time this year, all staff receiving awards will have their choice of gifts.

Also marking anniversaries are 38 staff members with 10 years and 39 with five years. They will receive service awards from their vice presidents.

Names of employees observing their five, 10- and 15-year anniversaries will be printed in future editions of Monitor.

Family tree

Katie Krezinski, a College Student Personnel graduate student from Buffalo, N.Y., hangs leaves on the Family Campaign Donor Tree in Sagamore Student Services Building. Everyone who gives to the campaign through June 30 will be represented by a leaf on the tree, even though the active solicitation phase of the campaign is over. In addition, President Sidney Ribeau will host a reception on May 3 in McFall Gallery for all those who have pledged or donated $100 or more.
Monday, April 3
"Law and Ethics in Journalism," presented by TV and film journalist Michael Moore. 2:30 p.m., 121 West Hall.

Currier Lecture Series, presented by TV and film journalist Michael Moore. 7:30 p.m., 101 Olscamp Hall. Book signing and reception to follow.

Student Jazz Combos, 8 p.m., Bryan Recital Hall, Moore Musical Arts Center.

Tuesday, April 4
Faculty Senate, 3:30 p.m., McFall Gallery. Jazz Lab Band II, 8 p.m., Kobacker Hall, Moore Musical Arts Center.

Wednesday, April 5
Brown Bag Lecture, "Hormone Replacement Therapy: Making an Informed Decision," presented by LuAnn Hogrefe, Student Health Service, noon-1 p.m., 107 Hanna Hall.

Faculty Jazz Group: Chris Buzzelli, guitar; Russell Schmidt, piano; Jeff Halsey, bass; and Roger Schupp, drums, 8 p.m., Bryan Recital Hall, Moore Musical Arts Center.

Thursday, April 6
Administrative Staff Council, 1:30-3 p.m., Falkerl Conference Room, Jerome Library. Provost's Lecture Series, "When Whiteness Feminizes: The Rise of Woman in the Age of Multiculturalism," presented by Rey Chow of Brown University, 7-8:15 p.m., 117 Olscamp Hall. Reception to follow.

Creative Writing Program Reading Series, featuring Mike Grzywczewski and David Hawkins, co-editors of the "Mid American Review," 7:30 p.m., Proud Chapel. Jazz Lab Band I, 8 p.m., Kobacker Hall, Moore Musical Arts Center.

Friday, April 7
Ned E. Baker Lecture in Public Health, "Multiple Partnerships: Endless Opportunities," presented by C. William Keck, director of the Akron Health Department, 7:30 p.m., 1018 Olscamp Hall.

Vocal Jazz Ensemble, 8 p.m., Bryan Recital Hall, Moore Musical Arts Center.

Monday, April 10

Continuing Events
April 6-15
University Theatre Production, "Romeo and Juliet." Shows are at 8 p.m. April 6-8 and 12-14 and at 2 p.m. April 7 and 15. Eva Marie Saint Theatre. Tickets are $5. Call 2-2719 for tickets.

April 9-May 5
BFAMFA Exhibitions, culminating exhibits for graduating students, Bryan and Wansleben galleries, Fine Arts Center. Opening reception, 7-9 p.m., April 8. Gallery hours are 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday-Saturday and 1-4 p.m. Sunday.

May 6-26
"In Memory of..." remarkable students from Bowling Green State University for the 1999-2000 academic year. Check on memory students Friday-Sunday, noon-5 p.m., Student Union Ballroom.

May 7-15
"In Memory of..." remarkable students from Bowling Green State University for the 1999-2000 academic year. Check on memory students Friday-Sunday, noon-5 p.m., Student Union Ballroom.

Friday, May 13
"Music and Memory," reading by poet, musician and author James Still. 2-2:30 p.m., Hanna Hall. 3-4 p.m., Student Union Ballroom.

May 14
"In Memory of..." remarkable students from Bowling Green State University for the 1999-2000 academic year. Check on memory students Friday-Sunday, noon-5 p.m., Student Union Ballroom.

May 15-26
"In Memory of..." remarkable students from Bowling Green State University for the 1999-2000 academic year. Check on memory students Friday-Sunday, noon-5 p.m., Student Union Ballroom.

Saturday, May 14
"In Memory of..." remarkable students from Bowling Green State University for the 1999-2000 academic year. Check on memory students Friday-Sunday, noon-5 p.m., Student Union Ballroom.

Online Calendar
http://www.bgsu.edu/calendar

---

Job Postings

FACULTY

VCTE. Instructor (eight positions). Call Larry Hatch, 2-7374. Deadline: Contact department, 2-7574. The deadline for all the following positions is April 28: School of Art. Instructor (13 positions). Call Lou Krueger, 2-8511.

Romance Languages. Instructor (two positions). Call the department, 2-2867.

Environmental Programs. Instructor. Call the department, 2-8207.

Journalism. Instructor. Call Julie Burke, 2-2076.

Political Science. Instructor. Call Mark Simon, 2-7386.

History. Instructor. Call Don Nieman, 2-2030.

Theatre. Instructor. Call Ron Shields, 2-6812.

Ethnic Studies. Instructor. Call the department, 2-2796.

Interpersonal Communications. Instructor. Call Julie Burke, 2-2076.

Contact Human Resources at 372-8421 for information regarding the following CLASSIFIED: The deadline for employees to apply is 1 p.m., Friday, April 7.

Cashier 1. (C-31-Sa) — University Dining Services. Pay grade 3. Academic year part time.

Custodial Worker (C-49-Va) — Facilities Services. Pay grade 2.

Secretary 2. (C-50-Sa) — Counseling Center. Pay grade 7.

ADMINISTRATIVE

Latino conference

(Continued from page 1)

will conduct the last session of the day, "Between Peninsular Art and Nuyorican Poetry." For more information contact the Multicultural and Academic Initiatives office, a co-sponsor of the event, at 2-2612.

---

in memory

Mary Joseph, 87, died March 20 in Bowling Green. She was retired from the BGSU Bookstore.

William E. Castner, 78, died March 23 in Bowling Green. He was retired from the maintenance department at the University.

Ethel Avery, 88, died March 25 in Arlington, Ohio. She had been a baker in the University Student Union before her retirement.

John Paul Scott, 90, a Regents Professor and Research Professor Emeritus of psychology, died March 26 in Bowling Green. A faculty member from 1965-80, Scott was the director of the Center for Research on Social Behavior and organized BGSU's doctoral program in psychology: Memorials may be given to the Center for Research in Neuroscience and Behavior or to the Sally Scott Memorial Fund in care of BGSCU-TV.

Check out Monitor online for more calendar listings and news briefs.