Dear Mr. Francei,

Let's Not Over-reach Ourselves...

The term "fraternity" as a label demanded by colleges such as sororities to this campus. More than a fraternal group on this campus. This misconception. Men were fools i old maids etc. If we never date, i m j, "i, intellect is a shining...but you aaked for it.

Announcements Of The Week

The Horse Romanus club has been called this evening, for the first time, to make plans for the entertainment service on April 12th.

Twenty Cage Games slated for 1941-42

15 Conference Opponents Scheduled; Bluffton inIAS;

Twenty games, including 12 with conference opponents, have been set for Baldwin-Wallace's Greenie '41-'42 basketball program. The Brethren will play their first game of the season on December 3 against Bluffton, a team which raised the slogan "If we can't take it, we'll fight it" last year. The same week Detroit Tech, so far an undecided quantity, comes to town. December 18, 19, and 20 will be the pre-holiday jam, this time in order to give the students a chance for the first game of the year. December 28, 29, and 30 will be the annual Christmas vacation, the Brown and Orange will entertain Montana, on January 11, before treading in Baldwin-Wallace for the only university night game on the schedule. Seven more games are scheduled in January, February, and March. Of these, the February 25 date with North Catholic's Rangers is the only one known to be definite. January 31 takes the Brethren in the second game of the month, who, for the third year in a row, will be using the tournament system for their varsity basketball. This will be the third time in the school history that such a system has been used. The tournament is the only system yet accepted by the National Basketball Congress on the campus.

B.G.U. Fraternity Spring Formal is Held in Rec. Hall.

In celebrating its first unit reunion, Beta Gamma Upsilon chapter, put on one of the most brilliant forms of the season last Saturday night in the Recitation room. Forty couples attended. One group's party was arranged in a big time manner, with an extensive and excellent use of rose during decoration.

One coat of which we will place over the door of the Recitation house this year on East campus is dominated by a ruby jewel in the center with a helmet, scroll and scroll—a mounted on a large shield. The cost of which will be borne by the members of the chapter and the money coming from the money which the over the dance floor were minutes past the coats of new freshmen. These were boxed arrived at the close of the party. This will be the first appearance of the next whirled at the end of the dance hall.

Sorority pins for new members will be installed at the tea. The freshmen and alums will help to individualize the tea.

For $1.50 to $35.00.
