Hazen Wagner Will Speak At Baccalaureate

Services To Be Held
Baccalaureate
Hazen Wagner, pastor of the Grace M.E. church, Dayton, will deliver the Baccalaureate services Sunday at 10:30 a.m. in the auditorium.

Wagner, who holds the degree of bachelor of arts, bachelor of divinity, and master of divinity, is known as the "bible teacher." He holds the degree of doctor of divinity, and doctor in theology, respectively, from Virginia Theological Seminary.

Immediately following the Baccalaureate services there will be "Campus Day" in the auditorium. A reception will be held for those attending the services. A "Campus Day" program will be given.

Junior and senior classes, and the freshman class present their vocal ensembles, "Campus Day" will be an opportunity for students to express their gratitude to their seniors for the year's activities in a group fashion.

The bulletin has been an outgrowth of the alumni activities and expresses the sentiments of the alumni.

Unable to circulate the publications through general lectures and discussions, the bulletin has been printed in ten or twelve sections.

The program at the various universities has been recorded on 16 mm technicolor film. The film will be edited, titled, and released to the various groups, clubs, classes, departments, parent and alumnae clubs, and individuals and released through the university's alumni service. It will be returned to the alumni Association's office for use in local alumni activities.

"Fashions in the Making" will be presented by the leading handwriters of the clothing laboratories. A budget of $115 has been set for the student's clothing laboratory activities.

Robert Haberman and Vincent Innes rushed two of their machines in at the second annual recognition of the senior class. Their design is on the basis of physical fitness, mental alertness, and beauty.

The best was:

- "You Can't Begin at the Fifth Floor."
- "From "Saint Paul.""
Hats Off To Rager

Once in many moons the unexpected happens. Recently the Green State College has had the privilege of welcoming such an event when they held before their last exam. Thank you to an unknown friend of the student staff, the book came out on time last night.

Promptness is not the only attribute of the student of Green State. The students are requested to drop their letters in Harshman's box before noon of June 3, in the Registrar's Office. There are still a few copies of the UA prom, which will be sold in the Well Office.

On the Social Side

What are the young men in our college thinking about? They are worried. Critical professors say that college students are self-absorbed and that they have not answered the question of how they will take the printed matter down into有效的星期三, May 28, 1941
