Over 566 Fresh Enroll; Upperclassmen To Register

38 Gridders Answer Coach Whittaker's Call

Frosh Registration Falls Short Of '40 Mark By 59

By HUGH NOTT

Freshman registration at Bowling Green State University failed to approach last year's mark of 566 as new students enrolled yesterday. This difference may be offset by late arrivals, but at any rate, the drop will not be as severe as 10 per cent expected by the administration.

Will reduce estimating the goal to a figure to be as high as 770, Secretary of the Registrar, Carl Prout, announced. This 10 per cent drop is in line with the anticipated enrollment of Ohio colleges at present, he said.

R. L. G. Forbes, assistant registrar, reported that the draft and defense employment will not check enrollment or arouse any immediate fear of drafting.

Ohio colleges at present at about 20 per cent drop in enrollment.

Although students in present classes are expected to go to great extent except from the home state, it is not anticipated that any outstate courses has substantial enrollment. This indicates that outstate courses have not been as large as hoped for, but are being selected for military training.

In the present national emergency, the university has been in direct contrast to the registration and the Student Union Building has been closed in the interest of security.

President Prout Extends
Welcome To New Students

All summer long we have been anticipating with pleasure the arrival of you, new students. There may have been times when you have worked unusually for your needs and wishes. We want you to enjoy your visit to the university with the confidence that you will enjoy us. Here you will find one of the most generous and enthusiastic students in the world, a faculty of superior ability whose constant wish will be to help you get along in the best possible way.

We know you will be a credit to our institution and that you will contribute to all of us.

A Welcoming Challenge

Think It Over...

Your presence as a freshman here today is well justified. Your classmates have decided to confer on you this honor because they feel that you exemplify the qualities of a student. You then can prove to be much cheaper. And finally, you may be able to save the system. One form of being called on to cooperate with any-
