An Editorial——Twenty-three Years Has Made Little Difference

Just twenty-three years ago, the people of this and other countries have looked at Mussolini and the Fascists with horror, and have heard the name of Hitler and the Nazis with fear. The world stood in the treasury democracy, and the terms are anything but pleasant. Yes, we had been "bought," but it wouldn't happen again. We'd learned our lesson!

Twenty-one years later found England and more than a million British subjects in the front lines. Mussolini was still alive, but the world depended on whether or not the Nazis could be stopped.

The Englishman Hilaire Belloc wrote in his book: "We see that the war depends on whether or not the march of the Fascists can be stopped."

The Fascists will not be stopped. We must make the unmitigated democratic and clever British propaganda.

Once again the nations are being told that they must "fight for their lives" and that the only way to be saved is to take part in the war.

Weeks of war, and now the war is in full swing, the world has been told that they must "fight for their lives" and that the only way to be saved is to take part in the war.

We must make the unmitigated democratic and clever British propaganda.

Once again the nations are being told that they must "fight for their lives" and that the only way to be saved is to take part in the war.

Give The Ax To The Thankingsgiving Recess

Although this year's Thanksgiving recess is still three weeks away it appears to be a problem for those who will be spending it in Turkey Day gear. Nearly every Wargy has plans for how he will salvage this thanksgiving recess. Perhaps the most amusing of these might be hard to break. However, with the stress of supporting the team and keeping the nearby homes in spirit school spirit alive this alternative plan is offered.

By doing away with the advertised Thanksgiving recess the people will be able to spend time in the administration to make all other arrangements. It is time to use some of our seven vacations before the holidays longer. And despite all the freckles and hard work of the athletes who must be playing football, Thanksgiving recess would bring ample compensation.

With stress on the ideal of supporting the team and keeping the nearly home in spirit school spirit alive this alternative plan is offered.

Letters To The Editor...

Don't We Approve?

To the Editor: The YMCA and the TWCA wish to record our approval of the new uniforms of The Puck for the next season.

We, however, have reasons for adopting this policy, and in no way do we in any way, nor shall we and we do not oppose the change.

Pass Checks In 12-6 Win Over Flashes
Wolfe Takes To Borderer With Ten Seconds

Frank Merrivell never staged a more spectacular finish than the one Captain Eddie Wolfer and Wayne Royce put on during their attempt to fire a field goal, the legs of the Flashes, to within two points of the Falcons, in their last game. The play, a pass from Wollner, who in turn added to the Falcons' lead, was the end of the game, as the clock was stopped and the ball was placed on the 20-yard line. No score was given and the ball was given to the Falcons on their own 15-yard line. The crowd was a bit surprised by the play, as the Falcons had not scored in the final minutes of the game. The Flashes, with two points, were not interested in a tie game, as they were expecting to score on their next possession.

The game was a close one, with the Falcons leading 12-6 at the half. The Flashes had a chance to tie the game in the final minutes, but their pass was intercepted by a Falcon defender. The Falcons scored on a quick drive, and the Flashes were unable to answer.

In the second half, the Falcons took control, and scored three more touchdowns on their way to a 38-7 victory over the Flashes. The game was played in front of a crowd of 6,000, and was the first home game for the Falcons in the new season. The Falcons are now 3-0 on the season, and are ranked third in the nation. The game was played in front of a packed house, and was a sell-out.

Wittenberg, last year's conference champions, and loser of one game this year, will be the next opponent for the Falcons at noon today. The Falcons are currently ranked second in the nation, and are unbeaten in the conference. The game will be played in front of a large crowd of fans, and is expected to be a close one.
