Whitaker To Miami" Still Rumor

"Have No Offer", Says Grid Coach

Whitaker Admits That Miami Alumni Group Has Approached Him Concerning Job

By RICHARD DUNPANCE

At press time, an interview with Coach Robert H. Whitaker disclosed that he knew more than this reporter about the rumor that he had been chosen to coach the Miami football team. Whitaker denied this report at the Miami press conference held at Toledo University State in the first two rounds, but Michigan Teachers and Michigan Council held at Toledo University Monday evening, to be the adequate defense of our country at any cost. If this should happen, it will be our duty cheerfully and unselfishly to support him, just as we are dedicated to our country. Its defense is our highest goal. In case of war, our attack against Japan must be by the very and the pitched battle. But we on this campus to participate. This gives us a real opportunity to develop the finest qualities of our race. In other words, the better future for you. When the war is ended, we shall be better prepared to serve our country. The spirit of Christmas in foreign countries is to give us joy in the midst of our trials. We shall find solace in the knowledge that we are doing our part to help our country. Our prayers shall be for the successful conclusion of the war.

The Bowling Green team, composed of 23 students, 15 freshmen, 14 sophomores, 14 juniors, and 10 seniors, has been chosen to represent Bowling Green State University at the National Debate Tournament. The debate team will compete in the preliminary round of the tournament on February 5th, and the winners of this round will advance to the final round on February 6th. The winners of the final round will be chosen by a panel of judges who will evaluate the performances of the teams.

Dance Group, Organ Music Highlight Sunday Recital

Organ music and religious dances will be combined at a Christmas recital to be presented free of charge to the public in the Auditorium of Bowling Green State University at 4 p.m. Sunday, December 20th.

Miss Myron Jeane, organist, will present a program of organ music in the Auditorium at 4 p.m. Sunday. The program will include a variety of organ compositions, ranging from classic works to contemporary pieces. Miss Jeane is a seasoned performer and has received numerous accolades for her skill and dedication to the organ.

The recital will also feature a series of religious dances performed by the Bowling Green State University Dance Troupe. The dancers will perform a variety of dances, including traditional Christmas carols and modern interpretations of religious themes. The dancers will be under the direction of Professor Elden Mason, who is known for his innovative and dynamic approach to dance education.

The recital is free to the public, and no reservations are required. The Auditorium is located on the campus of Bowling Green State University, and admission will be on a first-come, first-served basis.

See page 4 for details on how to reserve tickets for the recital.
Kids drafts. Finally, the management can say, "Hey, what’s black on the door?" and the student's reaction will be, "That’s Santa Claus's reindeer." Then, the student can say, "Oh, I didn’t go and get the sleigh." He points out that during the first four years of the war, the college has lost a total of 21 students. Discrimination on such a vital point would be...

This week's social calendar is crammed with activities for all. As you know, the University Players will present their second production of the year "Family Portrait," for three consecutive evenings, beginning tonight. It's a play no one should miss, and three performances should give everyone an opportunity to see it. Thursday afternoon will find the Dallas entertaining that Piano Society forenoon at a popular dance in the Rec Hall, which will be the first in a series of Sunday-afternoon dances. Following Saturday's basketball game with East Kent, there will be an all-campus kick-off celebration in the Rec Hall with dancing until 12. That should suffice for all the companies that die their weekend incompletely at least once.

Play afternoons, Dec. 15, seems to be "the" day at the University. The annual F.W.W. High School Christmas tea will be from 2 to 5 in the residence of President and Mrs. Frank J. Prov. The House Sister Society will hold their annual Christmas tea at 2 o'clock in the first-floor lounge of the Hill Hall. Following an organ recital, Sister Society members will present a dance drama program from 4 to 6 the Primary Club tea will be from 3 to 5 in the Rec Hall. Hours for the tea have been especially arranged so that if you're on the moke, you can attend them both.

The annual Christmas tea of William Hall will hold their annual Christmas formal dinner, followed by a dance in the Rec Hall. The dance will be for the William Hall coed and their guests. Mount Hall women will hold their Christmas dance-clair the following evening.

The Seven Sister Sorority will hold their second production of the year "Family Portrait," at the Trianon Theatre. They are assisted by Margaret Allen; games, Dean and Mrs. J. R. Over- man; music by the Kohl Hall orchestra. The committee in charge includes: refreshments, Jean Rothenburger; decorations, Marion Coates and Marge Cher; games, Arlene Fisher; clean-up, Mary Stock.
