New partnerships will benefit BGSU, community

Partnerships for Community Action has announced the recipients of the 2001 Partnership Support Grants. Out of the 29 applications submitted, 13 applicants received full or partial funding, totaling $28,300.

"Absolutely outstanding. I was also very impressed by the thoughtfulness and seriousness with which the advisory board, which is made up of faculty, students and community members, looked at each proposal," said Dixon, adding, "As always, we continue to work with those who were chosen to help them find alternative sources of funding."

Farber and the center staff will celebrate the newest grant recipients and showcase the accomplishments of last year's winners at an open house on Feb. 14. The community is invited to attend, from 2-4:30 p.m. in 101B Osgood Hall.

Following is a list of the participants and the partnerships that will receive funding:

- Golden Age Variety Hour: A Senior Citizen Musical Review—Grace Nash, activities director for the Wood County Committee on Aging, Kristin J. Kocher, a doctoral theatre student and graduate gerontology certificate candidate at BGSU, and Kristin Winters, recreation coordinator for the City of Bowling Green Department of Parks and Recreation.
- Horicon Youth Theatre Summer Workshop—E. Scott Regan, theatre, and Jo Beth Gonzalez, drama director at Bowling Green High School.
- Literary Link—Priscilla Brehe Pickel, principal at Weston Elementary, and Janell Meszaros, HOSTS Reading Program coordinator.
- Migrant Farmworker Youth Project—Sarah Stafford, training and employment case worker for youth programs at Rural Opportunities, Inc., and Margaret Weinberger, Chapman Learning Community.
- Protecting Independent Zones: Collaborative Development of a Senior-Level Community-Based Integrated Curriculum—Lyne Hamer, educational foundations and inquiry, and Marita Fleishman, director of Aurora Academy.
- Social Inclusion Activities for Older Adults with Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities within Wood County—Nancy A. Orel, gerontology, and Holly Beaver, life-enrichment coordinator for the Wood County Board of Mental Retardation and Developmental Disabilities.
- Virtual News Site—Pat Booth, educational resources manager and News Site co-producer/coordinator, Tavarna Dumova, graduate student in the School of Communication Studies, and Judy Lee, principal of Grand Rapids Elementary School.
