Sororities To Pledge Women After Nine Week Estimates

Sorority rushing plans for the first semester have been announced by Martha Jordan, president of the Inter Sorority Council, who has planned the following week estimates and initiated after semester grades are made known.

During the first nine weeks the first of three rushing stages will be held. Rushing for the first week will be on Monday and Tuesday, and Friday afternoon afternoons for all classes. The committee, composed of two members from each sorority and the sorority president, decided upon the following rules pertaining to individual rushing:

1. There shall be a ratio of two to one or one to one. (This applies to only one freshman and only freshmen, and not to anyone who has already rushed."

2. No more than four rushes can be entertained under the above stated rules for any one freshman. (This does not apply to those freshmen filling the honorary houses.)

Suicide Parade In Style; Weslayan, Here We Come

BY PAT SCHWEITZER

Now is the time for all good students to come to the aid of their school—and what is a school without a football team? The recent speedy victory at Miami of course is due to the fact that every student is prepared to do his bit for Weslayan. But we are told that students in the dormitories have not yet realized that the game is on. So, if you happen to be a rivet in the Weslayan machine, why not lend a hand? It's the time when we can all get together and make our school's success a reality.
