Jan Valtin Will Speak
At Assembly November 11
Jan Valtin, celebrated author of the recent best seller, "Out of the Night," will speak here Wednesday, November 11. Formerly a member of the American Commando Division at Bowling Green and then entering his junior year in 1941 at the University of St. Mark. Valtin was released when he was 22 years of age. He is wanted by both the government and the "secret world." Valtin was detained in the Soviet during ten years of espionage activity. The office can check students' work for eligibility for the certified by the Registrar's office when

Students In Education To Register
All students who expect to complete their freshman year in the fall and secure a teaching certificate at the end of the first semester shall fill out a blank made by the University and return it to the registrar's office when requested by the registrar.

Final Rushing Starts With Informal Parties

Sororities will begin their formal rushing Monday, November 16 and will continue it until Saturday, December 5, when the bids have been received. Sorority members are not permitted to talk about the beginning of the period of rush. The office will also inform the personal high school students and notify them about the regular form.

Jan Valtin, author of "Out of the Night," will speak at assembly November 11. Valtin was permitted by Dr. Krebs to speak at the University of St. Mark. He is a former German citizen who has been training at Fort Bragg, North Carolina.

Play Presented Two Weeks After Broadway Start

Broadway entertainment will be the privilege of University students tomorrow night and Friday when the University Players' production of Maxwell Anderson's "Of St. Mark's" goes on the Auditorium stage at 8:15. The Broadway hit which opened for only two weeks ago will be the first current play ever to be produced by the University Players. "Of St. Mark's" is one of the 42 American colleges which has been certified as instructors for class-arranged by state instructors, to loosely. The office will also inform the personal high school students and notify them about the regular form.

Esquire Club Reopens Doors
For Jumping Winter Season
By Jo True

Another big week-end (will they never end?) — this time it's the Kohl Hall sport dance, a rally and nickelodeon on Friday night, and the older students' annual TIFF (That's It, Folks) Ball on Saturday night.

The Esquire Club will reopen its doors for the winter season, in the dining room of Kohl Hall. The Fifes, which are the annual student band, will play Friday night. A host of other entertainment has been planned for Saturday night.

There are five rumble seats on March of Time, from the motion picture. There's just time for this before attending the TIFF Ball.

Fraternities

Five Brothers

The Five Brothers have purchased a complete set of these suits, which are curiously named, and are planning on re-distributing them at the end of the quarter next. For $1.00, you'll get a suit. As far as I understand, it's the annual nickelodeon for these fellows.

Alpha Psi Epsilon

All members of the sorority are turned out for Friday night. Plans were discussed for an entertainment next week-end.

FIVE SISTERS

The Five Sisters have purchased a complete set of these suits, which are curiously named, and are planning on re-distributing them at the end of the quarter next. For $1.00, you'll get a suit. As far as I understand, it's the annual nickelodeon for these fellows.

LAMASDAS

Twenty alfalfa reapers returned to the campus this week-end for Homecoming. The members and alfalfa attended the game in a body and later enjoyed a supper served at the Women's Club.
