Kwianis Club Gives Dinner For Bowling Green Gridmen

BY JO TRUE

Following the close of one of the football games Saturday, the players on both High School and University squads were given a banquet by the Kwianis Bowling Green Club last night. The banquet was the first of its kind in the group. Its purpose is to recognize outstanding football players in both high school and college teams.

The dinner was in the Kuhl dining room. There were approximately eighty guests, of which fifty were college players, 20 high school players, and 10 members of the Kwianis. Edgar Norris of Toledo talked to the group.

W.A.A. Gives USO Returns From Indoor Carnival

One hundred and thirty-five dollars will be presented to the United Service Organizations for the Women’s Athletic Association. This was 75 percent of the proceeds from their carnival. The W.A.A. is the first campus organization to present anything to the USO.

Mary Spowers was the lucky winner of the door prize, a bill of war bonds. Three floor shows, presented by Mary Lindblom, director of a professional dance studio in Toledo, and her group of tap, ballet, and hole dancers, proved to be the highlights of the evening. Carol Walsh and her brother gave a tap and tap specialty number with Rosdelyn Ratkin providing a military tap number. The girls of the American Cheerleaders majored in Physical Education.

A good weather, the dance, fun, food, dances followed, all with surprising testimonials. The committee included: General Chairman, Phyllis Faith; Faculty Adviser for Finance, Tickets, Publicity, Miss Kym; Faculty Adviser for Food, Entertainment, Miss Hartman; Faculty Adviser for Floor and Atmosphere, Miss Spowers; Publicity, Joan Walt, Georgia Penick, and June Smith; Music, Mary Alice Webb and Joan Walt; Drum, Mildred Anderson, Janet Smith, Peg Brink, Betty Halin, Doris Welting and Barbara Roob; Refreshments, Peg Retzeh, Bob Inglis, Fred Tracy, Mary Long, Dorothy Grimes, Mary Lindblom, Dorothy Hall, and Mary Davis; Door Prizes, Mary Alice Presten; Fortune Telling, Peg Hills and Kay Neeb; Secretaries, Nada Neely and Phyllis Faith; Cheerleaders, Barbara Roob, Marjory Jones; Cheer Leading, Harry Maul, Mary Jones, Cora Werth, and Mary Helen Kabke; Carnival Director, Judy Walt, Lesa Kuhl, and Kay Nahl, and Wally Steenig, Rita Feider and Thomas John.

Winter Sports Take Over Intramural Front

With the 1942-43 fall intramural program closing out this month, Bowling Green has announced its biggest winter program in the history of the university.

Instruction sessions for the winter months will include swimming, handball, basketball, floor hockey, bowling, bowling, tennis, handball, and chess. The sessions will be held during the winter months.

Another new feature of the program will be the establishment of the "Intramural Festival" which will be held during the winter months.

The Intramural Festival will be a week-long event with various intramural events being held on different nights. The Festival will feature a wide variety of intramural sports including basketball, volleyball, badminton, and tennis.

Intramural teams will be selected from the participants based on their performance in the different events. The teams will compete against each other in a series of intramural matches.

The Intramural Festival will also feature a variety of social events such as dances, parties, and awards ceremonies. These events will provide an opportunity for the participants to socialize and have fun.

The Intramural Festival will be a great opportunity for students to get involved in intramural sports and to enjoy the social events that will be taking place.

The Intramural Festival will be held from December 20th to January 2nd. Participants are encouraged to sign up now to ensure their spot in the Intramural Festival.
