From the Doomsday Book, you have heard the sound about the sound of the number of cattle called.

"Why didn't you call me yesterday?"

"That's why I didn't see you yesterday," growled the officer.

The last French division in the pocket has surrendered, and the pocket is now the scene of a desperate struggle, with the British and French forces fighting for the last few miles to the Rhine.

The Inter-sorority formal, to be held on Thursday evening, will be the last formal of the year. All those uniforms floating around lately—lot of noise and excitement. The trouble of closing the Nett for a few minutes, to get dates for the Inter-sorority formal... A few pointers for those who have been invited to attend the formal: Don't be late; dress up; don't be afraid to be yourself; and have a swell time. Thus commented the energetic Managing Editor.

YOUR STUDENTS . . . We have the best intentions of showing the facts of figures to high school boys but if they're kind, I will probably become a member of the basketball team. We'd better try to do something about it. We're in training field of extra-curriculars, the boys and girls so please en- sure the proper booking of the necessary transportation in all campus demands, for it is the eighth month of the semester that we're aiming for. Inter-Sorority Council Formal Grand Finale To Rush Season
BY JO TRUE

For the past two weeks all campus members have been planning and toiling, struggling and saving for all these rush activities that you’ve seen going on. Rush season started with a tea given by each group and for the next nine weeks informal entertainment followed. The sorority members cooked up splendid time for chapter parties to bridge tournaments for the pleasure of these students.

Then came the informal parties, which we think were a mixture of the cleverest ideas that we have ever seen. Because of reduced equipment and materials this year, the girls had to do to impress; they had to create exciting entertainment to work with. The formal dinners during this week wound up the rush season which everyone agrees was the best all round one, and one on this campus.

And now comes the crowning event—the pledges receive their bid sets Saturday and will be present at the biggest security function of the year—the inter-sorority dance.

Three bits of good news for the boys—a big fund raising matter for a while longer (the offer is semi-formal); flowers are strictly banned; and Erno Demuth’s head will give with the music.

So all prospective pledges, grab a date, pay your dollar to some inter-sorority member next Saturday, and be present at this most important affair. It’s to be held at the annual dance Friday night in the Recreation Hall.

Grace Pfeister, new president of inter-sorority council, is in charge of the event. The names of the committee are Jane Gouge, general chairman; Mary Anne Orth, secretaries; Martha DeWees, decorations; Shirley Snow, invitations; and Betty Steele, entertainment.

Falcon Swimming Team Faces Tough Swim Schedule

Facing one of the toughest schedules in the history of swimming at this university, the Bowling Green swimmer is fast working into peak condition, Coach Glander stated today, "Although the prospects for the coming season are not too bright, I have every confidence that the team can come up fast in the right direction if we are hard working in fair shape," he added.

"The squad will be greatly benefitted as we can use transfer the University of Indiana; Feb. 13, either Ohio Wesleyan will meet us in the Ohio Conference outside this year," Glander said. "Bill Booth and John Pokorski will give us much needed strength to the games that we are facing outside our conference event. Jack Stark and Ken Johnson did a tremendous job on their trips to the Eastern states this past month.

Other credentials for the team are: Harvey Hill, free style; Phil Brown, diving; Joe Runge, 120 yard free style: Dick Whitty, 50 yard free style; Tom Stohle, 100 yard individual. Other men out for the squad include: Bill Sennett, Douglas Speidel, John Frisch, Jack Fegan, Bob Bixler, Tom Morgan, and Joe Schramm.

While the Falcon team will be held against Findlay and Fremont, the schedule is expected to be very strenuous, as the events are being held on Mondays and Wednesdays. This week football coach Bob Renk is the manager.
