B.G. Drops From Ohio Conference

Andersen Presents Resignation Letter at Columbus Meet

Action Clear Way For New Conference: Athletic Squads To Use Transfer Students

Bowling Green State University is no longer a member of the Ohio Conference!

At the winter meeting of the Conference, held in Columbus last Saturday, the Bowling Green State University handed the presiding president the resignation of all Falcons players from the Ohio Conference.

This action terminates all association with the Conference which has lasted from 1933 until the present. The Ohio Conference association has provided Bowling Green with many advantages, the fact that the strength of the Ohio Conference has increased each year, has made it easy for the Falcons to earn their shares of athletic accomplishments. Athletics directors of most Ohio schools, Osterhout, Diesler, Wittenberg, and others of similar magnitudes use Mohican as a standard by which they can and can be measured in football to their advantage.

The Conference members agreed to resign the resignation with regret and the policy of the University is regard to athletes remains unaltered.

Plans for a new conference are far advanced by the State and Ohio W.S.O. have already announced that the Ohio Conference is to become a new association, put under the supervision of Director Faltzer, Director of Athletics.

President Frank J. Brown and the Advisory Committee at the Ohio Conference meet next week, and the action will make the beginning of a new conference.

The Beacon is notified that the Ohio Conference will be in operation next spring.

Effervescent Mary Percy Has Shower and Interview

BY BETTY NEEB

Exhibiting a beautiful swan-dive into a bathtub and bailing forth, "Jeezus, this is a heck of a spot to be!"—Nineteen-year-old Mary Percy emerged from the showers just in time for a slated interview. Starting a first curfew 20 years ago on April 17 in Ohio, Mary became the most extra-ordinary dowdy of Dowdyville High School.

Falcon Swimming Team
Faces Tough Swim Schedule

Facing one of the toughest schedules in the history of swimming at this University, the Bowling Green team will be fast working into peak condition, Coach Glander stated today.

The squad include; Bill Davenport, Mike Kish, Steve from Marmon, Ohio, will captain this year's varsity basketball team. Joe Eubank, life guard at Centennial Terrace last summer, has reported to Coach Glander for a try at varsity swimming. Joe recently enlisted in the Navy. Both should ring up their three straight victories in the remainder of the season.

"The Coke's in"

"That's the happy greeting heard today when a new supply of Coke arrives at a cooler. Folks wait for it... wait because the only thing like Coke's in. Ever since soda fountains and start moving up to pace and be refreshed.

"That's a cheerful spirit about this way of accepting wartime restrictions. Morale is high."

SPORTS BRIEFS

Looking over the swimming records, there is the strong possibility that Bill Davenport will average at least 200 yards in the 100-yard freestyle.
