Assembly Programs Planned To Inform Students About War

Prof. Schwarz To Speak On Italy Friday; Reverend Long Will Talk About Japan

To bolster morale and inform students, the University will have three assembly speakers discuss "Our Axis Enemies" this month.

The dates, speakers, and their subjects are:

January 8—Rev. S. C. Michelfelder, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Toledo, "Germany as a Belligerent in World War II."

January 15—Prof. John Schwarz of the history department at Bowling Green, "Italy as a Belligerent in World War II." The Men's Glee Club will sing.

January 22—Rev. R. Lincoln Long, pastor of Collingwood Avenue Presbyterian Church in Toledo, "Japan as a Belligerent in World War II."

All three assemblies will be at 10:10 a.m. on Fridays.

Class schedules the three Fridays are: 8-8:30, 8:40-9:10, 9:20-10, 10:10-11:10 (assembly), and 11:20-11:50.

Dr. Frank J. Prout, University president, who planned the assemblies with Professor Schwarz, chairman of the Entertainment and Assembly Committee, said the painters now at work in the University Auditorium will vacate for each of the programs.

The 60-day plastering and painting project in the Auditorium was contracted by Clinton West of Bowling Green.

Much re-plastering was required because of leaks from a defective roof that was repaired a year ago.

Pi Kappa Delta Announces Requirements

Pi Kappa Delta, national speech honorary, has adjusted its requirement to meet war time conditions, according to Lee Meisle, president of the local chapter.

Formerly, students were required to participate in ten collegiate debates, before they were eligible for membership. It is now possible for a student to become a member of Pi Kappa Delta if he has participated in three decision debates, or five non-decision debates, Meisle said.

These requirements were adjusted recently by the national organization, because many chapters had been hard hit by reduced enrollments in colleges and universities throughout the country.

Through the efforts of Prof. Harold M. Jordan, local debate coach, and with the cooperation of the local chapter of Pi Kappa Delta, a Freshman Forensic group originated on the campus this year. It is hoped that the freshman organization will act as a "feeder" to the local chapter, much in the same way that the Workshop Players aid in keeping Masque and Mantle supplied with dramatic talent. At the present time, the Freshman Forensic group is drafting a charter and hopes to be recognized by the Student Council in the near future.

— Speech Head —

Sophomore Lee Meisle heads the chapter of the national honorary speech organization, Pi Kappa Delta. He is also treasurer of the Pi Kappa Alpha social fraternity, vice president of the Sophomore class, president of Book and Motor, and vice president of the Radio Club.

Prout Rejects Army-Navy Offer For Training School On Campus

Navy Would Use Shatzel And Kohl Halls; Army Would "Take Over" Entire University

Dr. Frank J. Prout, University president, asserted in assembly Friday that he had rejected a navy proposal to have a training school for 600 men on the campus and "emphatically said no" to an army suggestion that the faculty and students be dismissed and that the army take over the University.

He recalled that he told a navy representative, Lieutenant LeFevre of Great Lakes Training Station, that "our facilities are best for 300" navy men without seriously impairing the educational program. However, 600 is the usual navy minimum at a college.

The use of Kohl Hall was offered by the University officials and an inspection tour impressed the lieutenant, who expressed much satisfaction over the building and stated that it would suit the purpose of the Navy excellently. However, the fact that the dormitory would house only 300 men, made it necessary for the lieutenant to "look over" the other dormitories.

Women's Gym Not Suitable

The local officials then offered the use of the Women's Gymnasium and suggested that the men could be bunked in the large gymnasium rooms. Navy officials frowned on such arrangements for officer candidates, stating that they wish quarters to be in such shape that men can be placed two or three to a room. The facilities for sanitation in the gymnasium would require a great amount of new plumbing in the building.

The lieutenant then toured the two women's dormitories and was greatly impressed with the possibilities of using Shatzel Hall as the second dormitory unit for a group of Navy men.

He stated that he was sure that if the University offered both Kohl and Shatzel Halls, the Navy would assign a group of 600 officer candidates to the local campus for preliminary training and study.

However, Dr. Prout and the University officials are reluctant to do this unless the Navy considers it imperative to the Navy program and if the Navy can find facilities elsewhere, it is doubtful that the two dormitories will be offered.

University Plays Important Role

Behind this is the desire of the University to continue to serve Northwestern Ohio as well as it can and to see that the girls of the section are given full opportunity to gain education. The serious shortage of teachers must be met by the increased training of women teachers for the duration and Bowling Green is one of the few institutions best suited to meet the requirements.

But if the Navy should require the use of Shatzel Hall, the housing facilities for women would be seriously reduced and would result in a collapse of the program necessary to the education of women, the local administration fears.

There is much to be said on both sides of the question but as the matter stands, it appears that there will be no use of the local campus by the Navy in an officers' training program unless the Navy decided to reduce the size of a unit of 300 men.

Bunn Urges Men To Register For Second Semester

"So far as we know, all boys as well as girls at the University should register for the second semester," Registrar John W. Bunn announced in Assembly Friday.

"Army orders are that those in the Enlisted Reserve Corps may be expected to be called at the conclusion of the current semester and some will begin to be called February 15. Obviously all such reserves can't be called in February. You may be here several months," Mr. Bunn said.

"The Navy and Marines have made no change in their plans to call in their reserves sooner than announced. Those in the Army Air Corps might be called one or two months sooner than the contracted time."

Weary Stork Works Overtime During Holidays

Two faculty children were born during the Christmas recess.

Registrar and Mrs. John W. Bunn became the parents of a six-pound daughter, Susan Lee, December 22 and Prof. and Mrs. Elden T. Smith of a seven-pound son, Hugh Nielsen, December 26.

The Bunn's also have a son and the Smiths, a daughter.

Both babies were born in Findlay Hospital.

Campus Scene To Appear On New Catalogue

For the first time a campus scene is to appear on the cover of the University catalogue. The scene will depict a panoramic view of the Science and Administration Buildings. The picture will be incorporated into a very attractive design, being bordered on the top and bottom by red bands which continue around to the back of the book. Centered on the back cover is the University seal.

Preparation of the catalogue is well under way. Proofs are now being read. Wood County Republican is again doing the printing and engraving. Publication is planned for about the first of March.

"Nazis Copy Roman Empire," Says Rev. Michelfelder

Hitler has copied the Roman Empire in its bad points as well as its good ones, students were informed at assembly Friday by Rev. S. C. Michelfelder, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Toledo. The talk was the first of a series of three on America's enemies in this war.

Rev. Michelfelder noted similarities between the Roman Empire and the Nazi Germany in:

Totalitarian government ("no right of free thought or expression.")

Worship of the emperor.

Military legions.

Transportation as a key.

Propaganda as a master.

"Exorbitant taxes and the impoverished middle class caused disintegration of the Roman Empire and will break up Germany," the speaker contended.

"The Teutons in what is now Germany were the most barbaric of the old tribes. They were the only ones to make an imprint on the Roman Empire. The birth of modern Germany was only 72 years ago, in the treaty ending the Franco-Prussian War.

"Germany has a philosophy of hate of others. It has been developed to a point of obsession."

Wondering how a people that has produced outstanding world leaders and schools could become "so degenerate," Rev. Michelfelder recalled that the soil that produces corn and oats also can produce marihuana and "it will make an entire country crazy."

Hitler's speeches, the speaker said, made thousands want to rise up at his command and want to die for him.

The pastor, whose grandparents were born in Germany, found Hitler a joke to most persons when the Ohioan visited Europe in 1931; Hitler secretly opposed by many in 1936, and by fewer persons in 1937.

"I found Germans afraid to talk against Hitler, afraid the Gestapo was listening 500 feet away in a public park, by a 'secret device' when the telephone receiver was down. They feared their children were working with the Gestapo," Rev. Michelfelder commented.

Prof. M. C. McEwen directed the singing of "God Bless America" and the college hymn. Miss Lorlie Virginia Kershner played a violin solo. Miss Myrtle Jensen was the accompanist.

Teachers In Army Retain Former Jobs

Teachers entering military service or positions under direct control of the Army shall have such service considered as the equivalent of prior service, a faculty member was informed in a letter from George M. Pogue, secretary of the Ohio State Teachers Retirement System.

He recalled an amendment to the retirement law passed at the latest session of the Legislature:

"Upon presentation of an honorable discharge, and subject to such rules and regulations as may be adopted by the retirement board, any member of the system who was or is out of active service as a teacher, as defined in this act, by reason of having become a member of the land or naval forces of the United States on active duty or service shall have such service considered as the equivalent of prior service."

In commenting on the law, Mr. Pogue wrote:

"As a general principle, I would say that if in your new position you are under direct control of the Army and can not leave the position until you are discharged, the amendment would doubtless cover you."

Remodeling In Registrar's Office Aids Workers

Remodeling which has been done has facilitated activity in Registrar John W. Bunn's office. It has added greatly to the convenience of the staff as well as students, besides increasing the business-like atmosphere of the office. Three windows provide necessary conference space. The private conference room has been moved to the window side of the quarters, greatly improving the lighting within.

Increased government activity in connection with the Registrar's work has necessitated much more file space, which has been provided along the inner wall of the office. The complete catalogue of University students is still available in the reception room of the quarters.

Extemp Speakers Give Final Speeches Tonight

Seventeen students will compete at 8 tonight in the finals of the extemporaneous speaking contest for members of the 12 sections of the basic speech course at Bowling Green State University.

They survived the semi-finals last Wednesday, when about four men and four women students from each section were entered.

Students act as chairman, judges, and timekeepers in the class, semi-final, and final eliminations.

Prof. Upton Palmer, chairman of the speech department, and Harold Jordan, debate coach, who is assisting him with the contest, said the winning man and woman will receive $3 in cash each and the runners-up $2.

The four best speakers in the men's and women's divisions are to compete later with more experienced students to determine university representatives in the state contest in March in Columbus.

In the semi-finals, the students drew two topics related to national and international events and one abstract topic. From these they chose one. The speakers were expected to spend no more than three hours' preparation.

Those in the finals are: Shirley Baird, Allen Bechtel, Gaylord Braithwaite, Montford Fischer, Dick Gunther, Rosann Hilty, Joanne Jones, Mary Jane Lloyd, Jacqueline McCalla, Keith McMurray, Papos Paris, Franklin Perry, Charles Reynolds, Bette Root, Dorothy Salisbury, June Smith, and Robert Thomas.

University Band Issues Call For Musicians

Because of the inadequate response of students at try-outs last fall and because of loss of members to the Army and Navy, the orchestra is in serious need of more musicians. Any players of string, woodwind, or brass instruments are urged to participate. Several University-owned instruments are available for those who may not have their own.

The orchestra will be more worthwhile if enough musicians come out to make it a well-balanced organization. For further information contact Miss Kershner or attend the rehearsal Monday evening at 7 p.m. in the band room on the second floor of the Practical Arts Building.

17 Students Take Med Exam

Seventeen students have registered for the Medical Aptitude test which is to be given on January 22. The test is being given to students of all ranks for the first time. Heretofore it has been given only to seniors and juniors, just previous to their entrance into medical school. This year it has been redesigned and will be given to freshmen and sophomores as well.

The test will be one criteria used for army placements in the future. It may also be used by local boards in granting deferments to men. Students are asked to watch for notice regarding time and place of the test.

Wrestling Tourney Is Postponed

No wrestling matches will be held tonight, Director of Intramurals Gene Thomas announced today.

The final tournament will be held next Wednesday, January 20, at 8 p.m.

Anderson, Pi K A, Airport Head Campus Events Of '42

"Nineteen forty-two was a progressive year, a good one for the University," according to Pres. Frank J. Prout.

"We made a great deal of progress," he said. In his opinion there are five events that were unusually outstanding and helped to make last year important in the history of the school. They are:

1. The signing of Harold Anderson as basketball coach.

2. The installation of Pi Kappa Alpha, Bowling Green's first national fraternity.

3. The construction of Bricker Field.

4. The opening of Johnston Health Service.

5. The withdrawal of the University from the Ohio Conference.

"We now have the best football coach and the best basketball coach in Ohio," Dr. Prout declared when Coach Anderson's contract was signed in the spring of 1942. Anderson's Falcon cagers have won ten straight games this season.

The petition of the Commoners Fraternity was accepted by Pi Kappa Alpha and a new chapter was installed in June. In the opinion of many the presence of a national fraternity on the campus marks the beginning of a new era. Several other fraternities are planning eventual affiliation with nationals.

The construction of the University air port, Bricker Field, was started last May. The field was dedicated at a fall ceremony. Members of the Navy V-5 program in basic training at the University participated in the formal ceremony.

The Johnston Health Service, a 48-bed hospital, was opened in April. The building is fully equipped. The Las Amigas sorority is housed on the top floor of the hospital.

"Our withdrawal from the Ohio Conference is the last and most recent happening on my list," Pres. Prout stated. This action paves the way for the formation of a new conference.

"We had our most successful year since I have been at the University," Pres. Prout stated. "I was pleased that our enrollment remained so high."

Is Fraternity Spirit Harmful?

In a recent newspaper article, the Governor of Virginia, Colgate W. Darden, went on the record as being in favor of banning fraternity and sorority houses in state-supported schools. In the opinion of the governor, students living in fraternity and sorority houses "find that their time is absorbed in helping to run the establishments which have become their world and their home."

"Unconsciously," he added, they lose touch with the college and the student body. Too much emphasis is placed on the social side of college life and too little attention is paid to school work.

"There also develops a line of cleavage between the fraternity and non-fraternity, between the sorority and non-sorority students which is accentuated by their living apart. This line of cleavage, artificial and trivial, is harmful."

At the present time a 10-man board, including students, faculty members and alumni, are investigating the situation and will make their report February 1. The question will be presented to the General Assembly of Virginia in January, 1944, and that all 140 legislators would be elected before that time.

The Darden proposal, which has gained weight, because the governor himself is a member of the Phi Gamma Delta National Fraternity, has already won some measure of support in Virginia.

Perhaps the reader will wonder just what this has to do with fraternities and sororities on the Bowling Green campus. It is very possible that such a proposal will effect us in no way at all. And yet, there is the possibility that such a proposal, in some manner or means, could gain a great many supporters throughout the country. If such a case ever did arise, then we would be effected in a definite manner.

At present, several local fraternities and sororities on our campus are taking the necessary steps in the hope that they will be favored with a charter from the national organization of their choice in the not too far distant future. With our country already in the depths of a devastating war, such a movement could easily taboo the expansion of national groups on our campus, or any campus.

On the same line of thought, it seems rather insignificant that any state should debate over fraternity and sorority problems, when the war in which our country finds itself a leading participant is a far more important issue.

It would rather seem that the young men and women of our country, living in fraternity and sorority houses, are learning a practical lesson in tolerance and cooperation, both excellent training for leadership. And certainly such leadership is the best there is in suiting our young men and women for the position that they will take in our democratic life.—DK

To The Editor

To the Editor:

Here is an idea to mull over in your spare time.

Why not change the name of our University to Midwestern University.

This name is more maneuverable, more euphonious, and more urbane than our present name.

Of course Hollywood would have to find a new name for its football pictures or else give us a lot of free publicity.

But seriously, isn't it worth a little thought?

Ellington Elected Swingking In Downbeat All Star Poll

BY GINNY DALTON

Well, people, it kinda looks as though 1942 has been neatly packed away on the "water-under-the-bridge" shelf, and we are already peering around to see what the new 365-er will bring. But, before too much dust collects on our musical memories, let's take a look at DOWNBEAT'S All-Star Poll, and find out what bands placed where.

Duke Ellington nosed out Benny Goodman to scamper off with the King of Swing title in the closest race since Artie Shaw's victory over Benny in 1938. Running almost as close for the number 1 Sweet crown, were Tommy Dorsey and Glenn Miller, with T.D. copping the honors by inches. 'Tis said his change of style and addition of string section turned the trick, despite adverse criticism.

Upset of the year was Charlie Spivak's rocket-rise to third place; likewise Claude Thornhill and Hal McIntyre in sixth and eighth respectively. Leading service bands were Artie Shaw, shadowed by Rudy Valley and Clyde McCoy, with the Benny Goodman Sextet best in small Combo department.

Favorite instrumental soloists were Harry James, Benny Goodman and T. Dorsey, while Frank Sinatra and Helen Forrest headed vocalists.

According to what they keep telling us down at the office, most bands bogged down during '42, and top-notch records were definitely in the minority. The only consistently good performers were Ellington, Spivak, T. Dorsey, James and Herman, with Glen Gray and J. Dorsey sliding to a sad second rate. (Surprising, isn't it?) However, a few discs managed to reach the top; among them: B. Goodman's "Jersey Bounce," Okeh; T. Dorsey's "Just as Though You Were Here," Victor; Woody Herman's "There'll Never Be Another You," Decca; and Helen Forrest's "I Cried For You," Columbia.

Notes from here and there; Bing Crosby's "White Christmas" has out sold all his other records. In fact, they're thinking of naming a holiday after it! . . . Rumor has it that an Air Corps Band, equivalent to those of the Army, Navy and Marines will be formed by Capt. Glenn Miller . . . B. Goodman has been appointed (by F.D.R.) as music co-ordinator of the Pan-American Committee, and will no doubt journey down Argentine way soon.

What's new on record; "St. Louis Blues," Duke Ellington with Bing Crosby, Columbia (one of those standard "musts"); "Moonlight Becomes You," Bing Crosby, Decca; "Brazil," Jimmy Dorsey, Decca.

Fraternity Head Visits Five Brothers

John Bjelke, Alumni Secretary of Denison University and District Grand Master of Kappa Sigma National Fraternity, visited the local Five Brother chapter last Monday afternoon. A tour of the campus and later a dinner in his honor was held at the Falcons Nest.

SCENE AROUND THE CAMPUS

"Oops" is the usual cry heard around these days what with ice, snow, ice, sleet, ice, rain, and—ice. And it isn't the freshmen alone who look around with that guilty expression as they pick themselves up, wondering how many people are laughing from their various peep holes. We offer the big cardboard loving cup (priorities, you know) to Donna Buck for the most beautiful "fall" of the season . . . it happened in front of the Nest . . . At this point, we welcome everybody back after a grand vacation—now, kids, let's all get down and study like mad until exams, and then we can have fun for another seventeen and a half weeks . . . also, what are the PIKA men planning for that all-important first week in February? . . .

THIRD FINGER LEFT HAND

What the Nest offers—or who gave out with the sparkler! Polly Aeschilman, Jean Baumgardner, Alice Brown, Marilyn McConkey, Ibbets McClain, Betty Zaenglein, Helen Lew, Eddie Niece, Doty Bishop, Marion Kendall, and Judith Holmes have all grabbed themselves off a big hunk of man to cling to for life. (If we have alighted a hundred or so of you campus lovelies, just drop us a memorandum and we'll get your name in print, too.) And then the final step. Jeanne Asmond is now Mrs. Bill Bokerman—they are living on Ridge street—just drop in and see them any time—preferably 25 or 30 of you at a time. Dorothy Mooney, Ann Whitaker, and June Zent are also being called Mrs. these days.

POISE, OR WHY YOU SHOULD KNOW YOUR CAMPUS BETTER

And have you heard the one about Miss Smilie "Punchy" Hartman? Just before vacation it seems that Miss Hartman must have gotten herself in a big old daze 'er sumpin', because she was invited to the Skol House for their formal dinner, but she went to the Five House instead. She was the first to realize her mistake—even the hostesses didn't catch on—and, after dinner she started looking for the young lady who had invited her and was promptly informed that she lived at the Skol House. That just about did it right there, but she continued bravely and then fell out of the house a little later, still muttering strange things to herself . . . We've been telling Dr. Prout for a year now that those two houses looked too much alike for real comfort—now maybe he'll listen to us . . . Well, Skols, the next time you'd better send out a personal escort just so she gets there . . .

THE LAUGH OF THE WEEK

It's our gruesome sense of humor that makes us laugh our sides off when somebody gets caught in the act of pulling a sneak . . . One of our cuter freshman girls, who by the way is going steady with one of the big men on campus, spent part of her vacation in Cleveland, where she never dreamed of meeting anybody from B. G. . . . While she was strolling down Ninth street, hanging onto the arm of her new escort, she ran headlong into a great friend of her steady—and all the time she thought the guy would be in Sandusky . . .

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY

DOROTHY ANN SALISBURY

Lt. FRED WHITKER, x'44, was decorated for the second time when he received the Distinguished Flying Cross January 8 from Maj. Gen. Lewis H. Brereton, commander of United States Air forces in the Middle East.

Fred, who had formerly received the Order of the Purple Heart for downing three Axis planes, won this special citation for bringing home a badly damaged medium bomber from a raid in October after he had received serious shrapnel wounds in his leg.

Enemy anti-aircraft fire hit Whitker and killed his bombardier. His plane burst into flames as he made a forced landing but he helped extinguish the blaze. He is reported recovering from wounds received in the action.

Lt. ROGER WHEELER, '42, was on campus over the week end. Recently out of Officers' Candidate School at Camp Davis, N. C., he will be stationed with the 71st Regiment in Washington, D. C.

A University professor who has applied for a commission and an assignment as instructor in the Army Air Corps, recently received a letter from Cadet JOHN KEOWN. We think part of his letter worth printing for anyone going into the armed forces.

"So, you, too, are coming into the army! Don't expect too much! As an instructor you will be overworked. After eating G.I. chow you'll be praying for the Mess Officer to kick the bucket. Some days your arm will quiver with the fatigue of saluting hundreds of "eager beaver" rookies as you move about the post. And when you try for a ten day pass or from here to back again for the red tape and inefficiency involved, you'll rake the Commanding Officer's fanny. Soon you'll silently hope the Public Relations department will stop sending those blamed personal history forms. Oh—you'll dislike the army tremendously!"

"But it won't take long to rid yourself of such an attitude. The army isn't all bad. After the newness of the uniform wears off, you'll be proud to wear it. And even prouder of it's historical background. Back will come those shoulders, up will go the chest, and wreathed in smiles, plus a good nature unheard of, you'll become aware of serving in the world's peaceful peoples. It is then, that being in the Army becomes an honor. Yes, it does sound like, and may be, what is termed flag waving, but in the Army you won't think so. Instead, it will become the anecdote for the achievement of a national objective. Taking everything into consideration, one profits a good deal from the effects of the Army. Anyway, welcome to the ranks!"

Alpha Phi Epsilons Present E. C. Brown In Duffy's Tavern

BY JO TRUE

After the ultra-sophistication of the Junior-Senior Prom of last week-end, the Alpha Phi Epsilon sorority will entertain the students at an all-campus dance.

The dance will be in the Recreation Hall from 9 to 12 p.m. It's to be a take-off on the Duffy's Tavern program. Our own Elmer Brown will be Duffy himself, so if you want to be in on something that promises to be a real panic, come to Duffy's Tavern next Friday. The Kampus Kats will supply their usual good dance music, plus a couple of novelty numbers.

In charge of the dance in general is Phyllis Teckanic. Other committee heads are: Ione Sillman, orchestra; Ruth Lesser and Virginia Keller, publicity; Phyllis Teckanic, Elizabeth Pontius, Helen Henkleman, Barbara Yoder, Polly Urey, Margery Mayer, Ann Moore, Ethel Malloy, and Norma Stein, decorations; Elizabeth Meyers and Elizabeth Hornyak, refreshments.

Plans To Follow For The New Year

BY MARY ALICE HAWLEY

I hope for:

New Year's Resolutions still in one piece.

Interesting assemblies to bring variety and education.

New songs like "White Christmas" on the Hit Parade.

Excitement on the basketball court—with victory still on our side.

Telephones that aren't always busy.

Eight o'clocks—so I can start the day right!

Entertainment such as "The Man Who Came to Dinner" right here on the campus.

Nest trotters with their books under their arms.

Funny books with Superman still disguised as Clerk Kent.

Orchestra music—the kind Harry James puts out.

Real American heroes like Jimmy Doolittle.

Tanks and more tanks! Just for good old victory's sake.

Youth taking the lead—"We did it before and we can do it again."

True hearts like the ones Dad left behind him in '17.

Hamburgers—just like the old ones—10c with ketchup.

Records back on the music-store shelves. Lots of them!

Elevators with jar-proof walls and blonde operators.

Ensigns with their commissions and diamond rings.

COSTLIER TOBACCOS

Cagers, Tankers Meet Tough Foes Saturday

Sports Briefs

BY ELMER BROWN

Couch Harold Anderson tells us that two more Ohio Conference teams have notified the Athletic Department that they would be unable to play Bowling Green's fast flying basketballers. Wittenberg and Ottenbein have now joined Wooster and Mount Union in withdrawing from our schedule.

A decisive step forward was made last Wednesday afternoon as two games were scheduled with Ohio Northern. As most upperclassmen know, relations between the two schools were strained several years ago because several buildings on the Ada campus were white-washed preceding a Northern-B.G. football contest. Here's hoping for a closer friendship between the two schools.

Swimming comes to the foreground this week-end as the Glander coached mermen meet the famous Kenyon "Lords" at Gambier, Friday afternoon. The natators return to the home pool on Saturday afternoon to meet the "Rough Riders" of Case School of Applied Science.

Anderson also states that to replace one of the vacancies created by withdrawal of Mount Union and Wooster, Bowling Green's Falcons will journey to Youngstown January 21 to meet the Youngstown College outfit.

"Apple" Gorbey entered the select class last week as he was elected Captain of this season's swimming team. "Apple" is a junior and swims the 50 and 100 yard free style.

The Bowl games this year provided some of the best football of the year as nearly all the favorites came through with victories. Georgia defeated U.C.L.A., Alabama pasted Boston College, Tennessee upset Tulsa, and the East scored a 13-12 victory over the West team.

College Grapplers Vie For Intramural Honors

If interest and attendance are any indications, not many students will have to be told that the third annual all-campus wrestling tournament ends next Wednesday night, January 20. Over 30 entries were received by Intramural Director, Gene Thomas, this year, which indicates an all-time high in interest for this sport at Bowling Green.

Students too, have shown no less an interest as evidenced by the crowd at the first match Monday night. The final in the two match series will be held Wednesday, January 20, at 8 p.m.

The matches this year have caused a new high of student interest and the excitement will reach its peak at the finals in the men's gym Wednesday night.

These tournaments, which have been sponsored for the second consecutive year by the Intramural Department, are perhaps one of the year's highlights in its sport program.

Gene Thomas, director, was particularly well pleased by the fine spirit of cooperation taken by the fraternities this year. "If the fraternities got behind every sport event as they have the wrestling tournament, Bowling Green would be widely known for its student participation in sports," he said. Entries at the present time include the following:

Five Brothers: John Phillips, Don Harris, George Burkholder, Karl Turner, Bruce Ballard, Carr Newcomer, Wayne Rudy, Doug Myers, Dave Martin, Wash Hotako, Dan Marazon, Lowell Sielschott, and Henry Chapoten.

Delhi: Dick Lowry, Bob Bertsch, Joe Zurlo, Ray Kail, Ward Pollock, Olin Fischer, Ralph Klein, Dick Jurrus, Al Harmon, and Dan Lust.

Pi Kappa Alpha: Jack Wilhelm. Independents: Ralph Hershey, Jim Wright, and Paul Lovegrehn.

Mermen Seek Second Victory Over Powerful Case Team

Bowling Green's powerful mermen make their initial home appearance against a strong Case team at 4 p.m. Saturday in the Natatorium.

The Falcon tankers will be seeking revenge for a loss handed them last year at Case. Not too much is known of Case's strength but they always have one of the toughest teams in Ohio. This year the Case swimmers are led by Koontz, one of the outstanding freshman swimmers in the state. Koontz was State Breast and Free Style Champion at Fremont High school last year.

The Falcon team is bolstered by promising freshmen starters, many of whom come from Connecticut. The Glandermen are captained by Jim "Apple" Gorbey, who swims the 50 and 100 yard free style events.

Paul Stark, who was undefeated Conference Champion last year, and Phil Hodes, hold down the backstroke berths.

The 50 and 100 yard free style event pits Harry Hill, Bill Booth, and Dick Volk, all freshmen, as well as Captain Gorbey against the Case splashmen. The same four swim the 400 yard free-style relay.

The 220 yard berths are held down by Joe Rac and Dave Merriam, Rac teams with Tom Stubbs in the 440 event also. All three are first year men.

Phil Hodes, sophomore and State A.A.U. Champion, heads the Falcon divers who include Dick Gail and Norm Fernandez.

This Friday the Falcons take on a tough Kenyon team at Kenyon's home pool.

Oilers Become Ninth Victim

Bowling Green's high scoring basketball machine, hitting on all five, blitzkreiged Findlay 78-33 Thursday night before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a Falcon basketball game.

The Falcons completely dominated the entire game and held a commanding lead after the first three minutes. Wyndol Gray continued his sensational scoring spree pouring in 30 points to lead the basket assault.

Roger Phillips turned in his finest performance to date with 19 counters as well as retrieving almost every ball off the backboard.

Captain Kish, Bordner, Blateric, Seigferth, and Otten turned in outstanding performances, and the Falcons ninth straight victory was truly a team victory.

Ohio Northern Overwhelmed

Bowling Green's classy quintet notched their tenth straight win over a heretofore unbeaten Ohio Northern outfit 70-48 Saturday night.

Although the score indicates a run away, it was a fairly close game, especially the first half, with Ohio Northern seldom behind more than 10 points. The Bears employed a tight zone defense and a fine set shot team and proved to be a formidable opponent.

Falcon Cagers Seek To Remain Unbeaten In Court Warfare

Bowling Green's leading Falcons return to the local hardwood Saturday night to meet the 345th Army Air Corps Base of Romulus, Mich.

Little is known of the strength of the khaki clad boys, but the size and stationary status of the Base gives good indication that a powerful and well balanced attack can be expected.

Monday night the Ohio Northern Polar Bears invade the gym for a return game. Last Saturday night the Falcons wiped the Bears from the undefeated ranks by a sizable margin but plenty of trouble can be expected Monday night.

The Polar Bears present a well balanced team that features the set shot artists Cotterman and Wibbler—it was these two crack shots that kept Northern in Saturday night's game. Besides these two threats, Northern bases their hopes of upsetting the Flashy Falcons on Hurley, Widner, Stackhouse, and Hock, all veterans of cage wars.

Tuesday night the Falcons travel to Toledo to meet a weak Toledo Naval Training Station team. Earlier in the season the Falcons "B" squad handed the Tars a defeat. This game will be played in the huge Toledo University field house.

Arline Fisher, president of the Swan Club, reports that tryouts will be held from 7:30-9 p.m. on January 13, 14, 19, 20, and 21. Requirements are posted in the Women's Building. All interested are urged to try out.

Starting January 13, make ups for swimming classes will be held on Wednesdays from 7-9 p.m.

OUTING CLUB

The Outing Club had its meeting January 9, in the Women's Building. Plans were made for building a fire place and rustic shelter near the campus pond.

NOTICE

Saturday afternoons the Women's Building is open for recreation from 2-4:30 p.m. Equipment is available at the stockroom.

Chesterfields For 1943

"Start the New Year Right" says the headline "With the Right Combination for More Smoking Pleasure." The current Chesterfield theme is continued in the copy which points out the importance of proper blending in giving smokers a milder, cooler, and better-tasting cigarette.

The advertisement is illustrated with the picture of an attractive young woman dressed in the uniform of the American Women's Voluntary Services. In one hand she holds a sheaf of war bonds and stamps and in the other a letter and a carton of Chesterfields.

Reports from men in the Service indicate that no gift is more welcome than cigarettes. On distant fronts, life Africa and the South Pacific, next to a letter from home there is nothing the men would rather receive than cigarettes made in the U.S.A. Chesterfield points this out in its newspaper and radio advertising and urges its readers and listeners to send cigarettes regularly to men in uniform.

Falcon Sports For Femmes

WAA

The WAA is planning a bowling party at the Prema Recreation alleys, Saturday morning, January 16 at ten o'clock. The party will be followed by lunch at the Nest. The WAA will pay for the first game of every member in good standing. For all other lines, players are on their own. Register for this party on the bulletin board in the Women's Building in order that the right number of pin boys may be engaged.

BASKETBALL

Each school year basketball highlights the sports' program, and this year with more than 50 girls participating, the league games are well under way. The team captains are: Clara Miller, Lucille Pope, Mary Lanius, freshmen; Virginia Smith, Ruth Baer, Jean Robinson, sophomores; and Peg Benroth, junior. Teams 2, 4, and 6 were the winners in the first round.

The officiating is being handled by six juniors: Marge Ripley, Mike Penton, Mary Alice Wolf, Les Garvin, Georgia Frericks, and Fay Kreilich.

A feature of this sport is that two All-Star teams will be selected by coaches and officials at the end of the season. These teams will play an exhibition game to which the public is invited.

SWIMMING

Note this change in schedule.
