Local Chapter To Play Host To Campus; Festivities Include Dance, Quizzes

To provide fun and entertainment for the students of Bowling Green State University, the Delta Kappa Alpha will host the event for one week, February 1-6.

Pi Week, as this traditional celebration is called, was started several years ago in Pi Kappa Alpha. It is not to be confused with the Autumn Dance, Quizzes and Quizzes, which will be held during this period. The Pi Kappa Alpha will provide entertainment for the campus community with programs that include quizzes and dances.

The complete program for the week will include an opening ceremony on Monday, February 1—Introduction of Directors. New members of Delta Kappa Alpha will be introduced to the campus community at the Delta Kappa Alpha Assembly Awards.

The event will be held in the auditorium from 10:10 a.m. to 10:30 a.m. There will be a reception to follow.

Dance Group Appears Here Tomorrow

An American dance ensemble which has been praised by critics of all nations is to be presented without charge to students at the University on Tuesday, February 2.

The three vocalists are Jesse Faust, Mrs. Margaret Faust and Mrs. Dorothy Faust. They are featured members of Martha Crane's famous dance company of Balak, formerly of the Honolulu-Washington-Pacific Coast circuit as one of the best vocalists in the nation.

Italians Not Same As Early Romans,
So Long, Kats. And Good Luck

They say that all good things have to come to an end, and sometime, this is true. But the best that things have come to happen to this campus is coming to an end. For tonight, the Campus Kats are breaking up!

As Kats, we who officially organized last spring, have given our best in the dance floor fun, never to be repeated.

The Kats, who officially ordered last spring, have given our best in the dance floor fun, never to be repeated.

We, as Kats, who officially organized last spring, have given our best in the dance floor fun, never to be repeated.

The entire dance floor as they cavorted wildly should be monopolized by two or three good dancers, is it fair that the dance floor should be monopolized by two or three good dancers, is it fair that the dance floor should be monopolized by two or three good dancers.

It is one of those things that happens occasional- ly when no fault is found with the other and tal- lies are closely pressed.

Quintet To Meet Kent State, Youngstown On Road Tour

By GENE JORDAN

Bowling Green's high-flying Falcons meet their toughest test of the season when they take to the road this coming weekend.

The Falcons will be shooting for their 15th and 16th wins of the season, when they meet a strong Youngstown quintet on Thursday night, and then take on their old rival, Kent State, Friday night.

The Youngstown battle promises to be a scoring dual between Gray, who is way out in front in the state's scoring, and Flashes have had an off and on season over Findlay college. Any game between the two schools, any team, is expected no action at all.

The Falcons took the lead early and never looked behind, although Flashes tied the score again. With only three and one half minutes remaining in the game, the Falcons pulled away to a 50-31 win over the college.

The Falcons have had an off and on season, but because of the rivalry between the two schools, any game between the two schools, any team, is expected no action at all.

Bowling Green's good, well-planned game turned against the Falcons in the second half. The Falcons were never behind us.

Gray lead the attack with eleven field goals, pouring in 31 points to complete his 100% in scoring in the game. The Falcons were behind 34-33 at the half, played their best game of the season.
