Records Show That This Year's Staff Is One Of The Youngest In History

Pat Schweitzer, Gene Jordan, and Bob Berardi have been promoted to the positions of managing editor, acting sports editor, and ad manager respectively on the Bee Green, it was announced yesterday.

Pat Schweitzer, senior from Berea, has been serving as associate managing editor of the News since the beginning of the year and took over the post when Donald Amsden, former managing editor, left school at the end of the month. Schweitzer is a member of the radio station, the Sage Quill, and the Men's House. He is a student of Mr. Gorg, takes over the sports editor's position from Bob Berardi who is assume the duties of editor-in-chief.

The Bee Green News Service, a member of the Student Publications Association, has added the position of advertising manager which has been approved by his superiors.

Gene Jordan, freshman from Bowling Green, has been serving as sports editor of the News since the beginning of the year and has contributed greatly to the success of the paper.

Bob Berardi, junior from Bowling Green, has been serving as advertising manager of the News since the beginning of the year and has contributed greatly to the success of the paper.

The Bee Green News Service has also been approved by the Student Publications Association.

Navy Steals Plans From Falcon's Nest

The United States Navy is to have an island in the Sound, for the Yellowjackets' patterned after the Falcon's Nest, student union building for the Officers' Ward. Plans for such a structure have been drawn by Paul E. Powell, partner of the architectural firm of Powell and Powell, and approved by the university.

"It is important to the planning of what I remember about the Falcon's Nest, I am told," Mr. Powell said, "but I am of the firm opinion that this structure will be more than just a place where students can go to play cards."

While working on a designer's project, he was "bitten by the island bug."

Famous 'Cellist Will Give Concert In Auditorium at 8:15

"I do not want to be called the Russian 'cellist any more," says Gregor Piatigorsky, the world famous violinist who appeared recently before the Bowling Green Auditorium. "I am now an American citizen. I study American folk music techniques. I have my house in the Catskills."

Washington To Be Honored Monday By School Receans

Next Monday there will be a pause in classes of this second semester to give recognition to the greatest of American heroes, George Washington. Many of the students here, normally, registered an indifferent attitude towards this brief vacation. The general reaction has been that "It's the last vacation of the year."

The festival will be the last of the year. Washington will be celebrated on the following day, the 27th, at Bowling Green State University.

"We will show the students what the real greatness of America is," Mr. R. E. Hulka, director of the program, said.

Washington's Birthday

Public School Students Will Be Admitted By 'Ac' Cards

Washington's birthday will be celebrated today at 11:30 a.m. at the Christmas Tree on campus.

National Student WCY, sponsored by the Student Union, will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Auditorium.

A new record of the Washington theme will be played at the Student Union, and other selections will be played.

National Student WCY Secretary To Be Named At Next Meeting

Mrs. F. W. Huls, Glee Club and Social Responsibility Secretary of the Student Union, will be named at the next meeting of the club, scheduled for Monday night in the Auditorium.

"We have had many interesting meetings," Mrs. Huls said, "and we are looking forward to the next meeting, which will be held tonight in the Auditorium.

No Dream For Ice Cream

In these times of war we may be either helping or hindering the outcome. In order to encourage a healthy moment for self-examination.

There really is a war going on. The number of our absent young folks is proof of that. We are all in it, even the little ones. It is not a war that is fought in the world. In fact, some are actually doing their part in the war with a smile on their face.

In this land of plenty, it is well for each one to pause a moment for the things we are lacking today. Let us try to remember the birthdays of our nation—Washington's birthday, and celebrate it with freedom!—PS

Like remembering the birthdays of our nation—Washington, who fought to give us freedom; like being able to work without fear; like being able to cream you are eating now and save the other. Don't Scream For Ice Cream

Almost four out of every five American families produce food for the war effort. Almost two out of every three American families have tried by sending food for the Allies as well. The war effort includes among the strange events of my life my interview with odd gleams in peoples' eyes, I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one. I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one; I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one. I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one; I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one; I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one; I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one. I never saw a pale blue cow, I never hope to see one.

W.S.G.A. Bridge Tournament for All Women To Begin Soon

This year and last the WSGA has probably been of greater value to the University women than at any time since its organization. First big job, begun last spring, was the compilation and publication of a new handbook of rules to replace the old handbook, which had become obsolete with the growth of the institution. This was a tremendous task, which involved the service of many women and the use of much time and energy.

In addition to this, there are a few strategy problems that have been new to the WSGA, and a few bylaws need to be revised. In the form of a skit, the committee has written a purposeful entertainment that will be a prize to the winners, and will be kept in the office. The skit has been costumed up and will be held for the incoming members next Monday evening at the house.

W.S.G.A. Bridge Tournament

The Fraternity is holding its regular meeting next Wednesday evening. The committee is working on plans for initiation on Monday, February 14. President Jane Otis announced that she would be leaving town for the WAA's. Ruth Sanford will succeed Jane as president, and Frances Young will take Ruth's place as vice president. Bruce Bishop of Fostoria, Harding and Bucky Mills of the sorority were out practice teaching during the past two weeks.

SEEN NEWS

Hell Week for first pledges was initiated last Monday. Hell Night will take place tomorrow night. All pledges will spend the night at the house where appropriate nonsense will be taken. This will be the night for the incoming members next Monday evening at the house.

Fraternalities

BETA GAMMA UPSILON

BETA GAMMA UPSILON is planning its regular meeting next Tuesday when the pledges will be entertained in the form of a dinner. The pledges will be divided into groups, and each group will be assigned a different member. The group will then have the opportunity to meet the members at the house where appropriate nonsense will be taken. This will be the night for the incoming members next Monday evening at the house.
