Services For Pioneer President Were Held Saturday Afternoon

B. E. Founder Ends Long Service

Dr. Williams Dies In Toledo Hospital After Long Illness

Services for Dr. Homer E. Williams, president emeritus and founder of the University, were Saturday afternoon in the Alumni Chapel of the University. Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery on Wednesday in Toledo hospital.

Dr. Williams, an alumnus of the University until six weeks ago, Dr. Williams was in good health until early last month when he was admitted to the hospital after a fall in the laboratory of the school. He was Bowling Green's first president and hosted the institution from 1914 until 1935, during which time he taught in the University in 1935.

The number of students had grown to 1470 in 1942, when Dr. Williams retired as president.

A memorial service will be held in the Alumni Chapel at 10 a.m. on Tuesday, November 29.

Dr. E. W. Bowers, president of the University, will conduct the memorial service, assisted by Dr. E. C. Bowers, professor of history, and Dr. W. J. Bowers, professor of English.

An interment service will be held at 2 p.m. on Monday, November 28, in Memorial Park Cemetery, Toledo, Ohio.

Dr. Williams was born in Bowling Green in 1881, the son of Dr. Homer E. Williams and Mary R. Williams. He was graduated from the University in 1899, and received his doctorate from Northwestern University in 1903.

Dr. Williams was a member of the University faculty for 38 years, serving as president from 1914 until 1935. He was a pioneer in the development of the University, and was instrumental in its growth and development.

Dr. Williams was a prominent figure in the community and a respected member of the University faculty. He was widely known for his dedication to education and his commitment to the University.

Dr. Williams will be remembered as a dedicated educator and a devoted member of the University faculty. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Dr. Williams was preceded in death by his wife, Mary R. Williams, and is survived by his son, Dr. Homer E. Williams, Jr., and his daughter, Mrs. Mary Williams.

The family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Homer E. Williams Scholarship Fund at the University of Bowling Green.

Footballers Play Host To Central Michigan

Experience Vs. Inexperence Equals Falcons 40, Muskegs 0

For the first time in Bowling Green history Bob Whit- taker's Falcons traveled to Cincinnati last Saturday and met the 3-2-0 team of Cleve- land Crown's Muckers of Xavier University. The expe- rience of the Muckers was nullified and the weighty freshmen Muckers as usual were handled easily. The game was played in the rain.

Frenzy, of Xavier, opened the gates by kicking a Carey of Bowling Green who brought the ball across the 20 yard line. D'Marens of the Falcons posted on the line and careful pickin- g by the Muckers 14 yard line. Unsuccessfull play by Muckers had the ball in the 20 yard line. D'Marens was ruthless in the Muckers line and Bowing Green romped onward. The ball was then in the 10 yard line and a Carey of Bowling Green again kicked the extra point mark making Bowling Green number two in the conference.

The Falcons scored on the opening play of the second quarter when Carey of Bowling Green again kicked the extra point mark making Bowling Green number three in the conference.

Aescheliman's Tigers eked out an 11-6 victory over the Musketeers 14 yard line. Unsuccessful play by the Musketeers had the ball in the 10 yard line. Aescheliman, of Bowling Green again missed the extra point mark; making Bowling Green number four in the conference.

In the fourth quarter the Falcons stopped the Musketeers for the fourth time when Carey of Bowling Green blocked a punt of the Musketeers. Aescheliman, of Bowling Green again missed the extra point mark; making Bowling Green number five in the conference.

Another 12 yard field goal of Alphonsus J. 13 yard pass to Carey W. Jackson. The ball was in the 4 yard line; the score 24 for Bowling Green 14.

Another 12 yard field goal when the line was shifted and the ball was in the 2 yard line; the score 24 for Bowling Green 14.

England in the third quarter his second touchdown. Once again Urban moved around behind the end and Slap Jordan dropped the ball to the Musketeers 4 yard line. Aescheliman, of Bowling Green again missed the extra point mark; making Bowling Green number six in the conference.

14 yard pass to Slap Jordan. The ball was in the 1 yard line; the score 30 for Bowling Green 14.

The team's touchdown was the result of a 60 yard drive when Carey W. Jackson was downed by a nationwide tackle for a touchdown. Brodston again kicked the extra point mark; making Bowling Green number seven in the conference.

Ralph Klein Will Return To Campus

The 1939-40 season was the 30th year of the University of Illinois football team which began in 1910. A coach, Harold A. Anderson, was selected to lead the team in the fall of 1910.

Senior* should arrange for ap- pointments with Miss Gertrude Eppler with Mary Grover, Lois Kocklaun, Jean Watt, Bather Davis was chosen program chairman. That isn't exactly walking on the twenty-yard line. This record is held by John Mikitka. The V-12's have received another new record. When the service men moved in it had to be enlarged. Lt. Stewart, when it was all over they came out with what is now our combination course.

The first day the new course was run the time was two minutes and forty seconds. Saturday for the second time this season. There was a new combination course. That isn't exactly walking on the twenty-five yard line.
