ADMINISTRATION: A MANAGEMENT PHILOSOPHY

INTRODUCTION

There is a close relationship between how an organization deals with its employees and how these employees interface with clients. There must be a consistent organizational policy and this policy must reflect the image that the organization wants implemented. The primary question in this section is "What type of management policy works best for the leisure industry?" Services are an indicator of management philosophy and seem to be directly linked as a lubricant among products, programs, and/or facilities to bring about continuity in organizational philosophy.
