Let's all vote

Every student at Bowling Green will have a chance to use his right to vote this Friday. The occasion is the election of the queen and her attendants to rule at homecoming.

In the past not enough interest has been shown in the elections, especially by the servicemen. The blame is partly due to misstatement in the rules, but the rules for this election were printed in the paper last week. The election is fast becoming "campus politics" and factional domination, so let's exercise our privilege of voting.

Sonny: "Dad, what do you call a man who drives a car?"
Dad (a pedestrian): "It all depends on how close he comes to me, my boy."

Professor: "What is the outstanding event in 1944 chemistry has given the world?"
Sailor: "Blondes."

Major: "Drat it man, I've forgotten the password. You know me well enough."
Sentry: "But you must have it, sir.
Voice from the guardhouse: "Don't stand there and argue with him. Bitte!"

The roadster skidded around the corner, jumped into the air, knocked down a lamp post, smack into the air, and stopped. A girl climbed out of a wreck. "Darling," she exclaimed, "That's what I call a kiss."
Falcon Trip
Bishops For Second Win
A Falcon eleven much improved in spirit and play won their second game of the season as they dropped the Battling Bishops of Ohio Wesleyan 13 to 6 at Delaware Saturday.
The first scoring drive began midway in the second quarter. Gee Gee took possession of the ball on their 41 yard line when a Wesleyan punt rolled out of bounds. DiMarco tossed successive passes to Mehr and Brown for 18 yards and 10 yards. No gain on a line play an incomplete pass and an offside penalty set the Falcons back. On the next play DiMarco eluded five would-be tacklers and spiraled a 35 yard pass to Schoek, who stepped over goal for a touchdown. Kirk converted and the Falcons led 7 to 0.

Jack LaNue, Bishop halfback, returned Kirk's kickoff at the half from the 5 yard line to the 22. Dick Swigart, quarterback, tossed a 21 yard pass to LaNue. After losing two yards on a line play, Swigart passed to halfback Bob Chapman for 10 yards. Chapman picked up four yards through tackle, then Swigart again tossed one to Chapman for 35 yards to put the ball on the Gee Gee 12 yard line. Swigart flipped a pass to end Art Zaske to put the ball on the three yard line. LaNue bucked the line and moved the ball to the one yard stripe. Swigart tried through center and was stopped inches from the goal. Cal Young, fullback, then hit the center of the line for a touchdown. Mehr blocked Bob Lewis' placement, making the score Bowling Green 7, Ohio Wesleyan 6.

Bee Gee's final score came on the very first play of the fourth quarter. Taves intercepted a pass from Young on the Wesleyan 30 yard line and ran for a touchdown. Kirk's placement was wide.

Introducing Brenton Kirk

Brenton Kirk, Bee Gee's stellar tackle and place kicking specialist is New Philadelphia high school's ex-tackle and place kicker.

Brent was a member of the New Philadelphia junior high school football and basketball teams. Advancing into high school, he lettered in football and basketball for three years. He played center on the cage squad and captained both teams his senior year.

"My biggest high school thrill came in 1943 when we beat Dover in basketball. It was the first time in two years that we beat them in any sport." Brent enlisted in the Marine Corps in March of 1943 and while waiting to report worked out with the Ohio State football team. In July of '45 he was assigned to Bowling Green.

Brent earned a letter on the Falcon cage squad and was one of the fifteen players to journey to the Invitational at Madison Square Gardens.

"An athlete should be in good physical condition to play his best. This year's team has great possibilities if the injury list decreases," Kirk said.

Brent hasn't decided on his vocational training, but is interested in any kind of athletic event.

Tennis and table tennis tournaments were scheduled to start last month. Volleyball begins tomorrow.
