They Run From It

What's the matter with some of the women on this campus? What is the matter with girls on this campus? And yet some girls from II—L.

There are men all over the world who would love to try their hand at getting their guns for a few minutes and pay proper respect to the colors. Why then do some of our women avoid the dorm for five full minutes longer than is absolutely necessary? Girls, let's have no more "Colours."

You are dying just to capture an island on an airfield so that they can raise the American flag. And yet some girls run from it! When the NOW hall girls run to raise the American flag, yet these girls would rather stand in-...
Sid Otten Gets In Shape

Don "Sid" Otten, Bowling Green State University's giant campus athlete, reported to the men's basketball team in Chicago December 1, where he will be practicing with the All-Stars for one week. The All-Stars will meet the Fort Wayne Zollners, the professional basketball champions.

Ottten, who is a 6 ft 11 inches center, will be playing with one Lee Klier from Notre Dame, Dick Triptow from Depauw, Tom King of Michigan, Pat Patrick of Illinois, Roger Wing of Oregon, Hy Gofst of St. John's, and Bill Graham of Washington State.

Most of the boys representing this drama are undergraduates, a condition brought about by the war. The All-Star squad will be coached by Dutch Lonborg of Depauw University.

The ball is expected to feature a twin ball of the All-Stars against the Zollners and the National AAU All-Stars from the University of Wisconsin and Coach W. H. Anderson's Legion. The game is played in the Chicago Stadium and is to be witnessed by the great basketball masses of the country. Coach W. H. Anderson's Legion is made up of boys coached along with the parties from Wisconsin, Oregon, Illinois, Michigan, Western Montana, Oregon, Drake and Missouri.

Ray Meyer, of Depauw, who was a varsity ball player this year, will be the second tallest man and will assist in handling the basketball work.

The Zollners are completing an intensive training and practice session. This advantage, gained through the pre-season play, has enabled the professional charges a slight edge.

Miss Edler Says "Get In The Swim"

The natatorium is open every day from 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. This is considered a means of keeping fit and in better condition for the winter season. The natatorium has water sports which are not only enjoyable but many benefits. The students can handle this equipment with much safety.

"V-12 Ivy League Closes Season"

This Saturday afternoon the played games between the Ivy League and the Princeton Tigers will be held on the park at 2:30 p.m. in all probability this will be the last game in the Ivy league competition for everyone, as our article last week where Championships have been decided, and the teams will play their last game.

The first to speak for a try at the Ell's were the hardnosed alpha Delta's. Delta's who stripped off one must be sincerely loyal. The Y-met will be selected from the two headquarters of Ker.

The Montezumas of Kentucky made a bid for both National and New Haven, promising to leave their shooting stock, show, and shore-to-shore trails at home and play any and all combinations. Following quickly were advances on the part of the Californiaans from Stanford, who are agreeable from Michigan and Ohio.

How many of these prospective games will be natural cot only is it great if you live here but you had some of the first ones.

Sid Stepheart, captain of the All-Stars, said, "Taking the natatorium into consideration, the swimming is free and suits are provided. Just bring your AC and a lot of luck!"

Federal Reserve System Banks are handling a $2.62 million demand for barbecue between 2 and 4 on Tuesday and Thursday so that these crews as the need arises.

This will be the first Campusteen sponsored by WSGA. the dinner tradition was started last week by John Dempsey, business manager for the production, for the thirty-minute "Student Life in the University and the General Public". The purpose of Campusteen is to provide a forum in which the audience may participate.

Plans for the new review are not much more definite than that it will be on the order of the "Scandals." Until such time as notice is made of transfers of certain important situations to take effect in early June, it will not be possible to call for tryouts.

A hit will be saved for the next review, which is still in the planning stage. The new review is already being planned for May and the Naval Reserve that will be present in the presentation.
