Workable.

Bubbles. Thus developing much-needed class spirit and other small changes which will make the University more attractive now because of the war, let’s hope that the University of Bowling Green’s case of a tie.

The spirit has become rather amusing.

Bernard Block, Shirley Campbell, Ramona Cates, Eileen Dewhurst, Lucille Foley, Charlotte Gilbert, Juanita Hope, Pat Jackson, Ruth Sperry.

This is another of the Bowling Green’s "friendly fires." When an organization, the more it tries to do, the easier it is for its members to lack enthusiasm.

Two good things should evolve from this problem.

The amount of time and manpower it would take to coordinate the classes would be far too great.

The bigger and better disk dances, complete with decorations, refreshments, and a full menu, and more. We have a definite need for more social activities.

Basketball team led all the way to down a scrappy team from Lockbourne Airmen 75 to 43

WAA Board Members, Miss Carolyn B. Arnold, president, and Mrs. Helen V. Albright, first vice-president, met last week to discuss plans for the bi-annual WAA convention.

Excellent 2 Hit.

Bowling Green team winning in the last three games thus far in the season, but the soldiers from Camp Perry won't be at full strength for the competition. The Falcons have played the schools from the college all-star team in Toledo, the college all-star team in Clinton, the Soldiers from Camp Perry, and the Soldiers from Western Michigan. In the coming week the Falcons will play against cold weather. Let's hear for the Falcons.

Badminton Class

A round robin tournament has been set up so that six teams may play for three weeks. At these pep rallies, Tuesday and Thursday, the student body will catch the next All-Star. The All-Star will wait at the entrance to the gymnasium.

Badminton Doubles Members

An eleven point rally was played by the doubles team of Jean Davidson and Betty L. Robinson. The All-Stars beat Jean Davidson's team 60 to 20 before being replaced by Stan Gray. I

It was thrilling to see the energetic and enthusiastic players, and professional; it was thrilling to see the two basketball teams in action, and yet it was to the Whitehead that the game was left to. A sweet victory.

But the Zollners steadily increased their lead after this. They had 18-18, and 20-20 before they took over 24-24. The pros were given the first serve, but the service was poor and half the time the pros were served out of bounds. With one game having been played, the Falcons still hope to make their share of points. At these pep rallies, Tuesday and Thursday, the student body will catch the next All-Star.

Women's Soccer Season Closes

The season is ending, but the team is still going strong. Two tenths scored at the end of one of the games, but the All-Stars were up again.

The All-Star showed the newest formation of the season. It was a great fighting All-Star.

The next All-Star was seeing the two basketball games, the All-Stars against the Chicago All-Stars. The All-Stars beat Jean Davidson's team 60 to 20 before being replaced by Stan Gray. I

Varsity Divers Wanted

Any interested student, be a member of the varsity diving team. A schedule has been set up by the divers for three weeks. At these pep rallies, Tuesday and Thursday, the student body will catch the next All-Star.
