Holiday Spirit Prevails; BG Hears, Sings Carols

Party Follows Campus Sing

WGS A's traditional all-campus Christmas, caroling will be 9 p.m. Thursday immediately after the basketball game.

The plan of caroling will be similar to that used last year, with the exception of April Hall being singed first and going from dorm to dorm with each group of rhapsody joining the carolers.

The plan of caroling will be as follows: 9: Men leave Kohl Hall, sing, "O Come All Ye Faithful" at the Ad Building and go to town hall; 9:15: Others respond with, "And God Be Ye, Murray Gentlemen," and join the group.

9:15—Sing to Williams Hall, "O Come All Ye Faithful." Response: "This is The Herald Angel Sing." Re-

9:40—Sing to Alpha Phi house, "Joy to the World." 9:50—Sing to Alpha Delta house, "Joy to the World." 10:00—Sing to Delta Gamma house, "Joy to the World." 10:10—Sing to Alpha Delta house, "Away in a Manger." 10:30—Sing to Gamma Phi Beta house, "Rock the Herald Angel Sing." Response: "This is The Angel Sing." The carolers from the Gamma Phi Beta house will proceed to the grotto in front of Kohl Hall, where they meet the off-campus group, and sing "The First Noel" in unison, and "Frolic Down a Manger," and "The Holly and the Ivy." After Treble Clef has finished singing, everyone will go to an old-fashioned Christmas party in the Student Union Building.

Weather permitting, everyone will carry lighted candles. In-the parade of dormitories is to be maintained.

This is the second year of all-campus caroling, and the tradition is well established at the University.

V.I.P.'s will receive late permits, according to Lt. Commander, R. W. Robins.

Christmas Story

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night. And, lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone round about them: and they were sore afraid. And the angel said unto them, Fear not: for, lo, I bring you good tidings of great joy, which shall be to all people. For unto you is born this day in the city of David a Saviour, which is Christ the Lord. And this shall be a sign unto you: Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling clothes, lying in a manger. And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying, Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men.

And it came to pass as soon as the angels were gone from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even to Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

But they said, Let us now go even to Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known unto us.

And she brought forth her firstborn son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

And on the eighth day, when he was circumcised, his name was called `Jesus, the name which was also set by the angel while he was conceived by the Holy Ghost.'

And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

And Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

And the shepherds returned, glorifying, and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told unto them.

Traditional Christmas Parties, Dinners Prelude Approaching Holiday Festivities

"Christmas in coming; the goose is getting fat." To quote the old nursery rhyme. And Christmas time on the campus brings with it many a traditional Christmas dinner in the dormitories and in private homes.

William's Dinner

William Hall held his dinner Monday night, as the women went down to the candle-light dinner room a group of Tiptop Club members singing Christmas carols. Christmas spirit was played song from recordings during dinner. Guest at the banquet were Dr. and Mrs. Harold Keenan, and Miss Minnie Keenan, costume director, Miss Mary McClement, pastor, and Nancy Knits, reflections.

Tip Your Hat to Edie Jones

Edie Jones, sophomore transfer from Lake Forest College, was named as Tip Top Waiter. She was assisted by Miss Charette Grant, Pictorial Club, and Miss W. Harold Anderson, student editor.

Members who were in charge of the three teas were: Elaine Binkal, service chairman; Bills Goll, general chairman; and June Cartwright, chairman of the youngest group. Other helpers were: Marianne Hays, Marilyn Bopp, Helen Hayes, and Mildred Smith.

Little girls who helped serve tray were: Marion Hoppes, Cheryl Kins, and Wilma Granger.

Some members who ware in charge of the affair were: Miss Laverne Grilley, service chairman; Miss Kathleen Wilhelmy, chairman of the youngest group, and Miss Margaret Teuber, chairman of the oldest group.

Spanish Club Meets Wednesday

The Spanish Club, already reorganized for students consisting of Tiptop Club, held its first meeting Wednesday afternoon, December 13, in the Beauty Shoppe, which was decorated in the traditional Christmas spirit. Mrs. Josephine James, according to the Navy Club, said she was the annual Christmas party of the club.

Gloria Blandino, sophomore, of Mexico City, Mexico, talked of the customs of Christmas in her country, and the meeting was concluded by the group singing Christmas carols, and refreshments were served.

McClure, while Jane Wilkinson, president, said that between 50 and 60 women would be in attendance. The meeting was called by the group singing Christmas carols.

Y-M-Y Silver Tea Profits For Needed

The Annual Silver Tea, sponsored jointly by the Y-W-C-A and the V-12's, will be held Sunday evening, Jan. 6. General chairman is Harriett Jordan and other executive members are Margie Hammon, recorder; Alice Shinger, program director; Jane White, costume director; Marion Hoppes, publicity chairman; Helen Hayes, and Mary McClement, poster; and Nancy Knits, reflections.

Lynne Loverno, University public relations director, will be a speaker at the tea, because of ill health. See story on page 2.

Wish You a Merry Christmas

Many — many other gifts to select from.

Steve, the Cop

Christmas will be all that it is meant to be. The day will never come when the young and old alike do not buy the greatest majority of their gifts with the attitude of storerooms and complete commercialism. Christmas is a personal holiday, a personal thing as well as an occasion it can be celebrated by few other seasons known to mankind.

The Christmas spirit will rise to new heights if we keep the true meaning of the day before us at all times.
