New Students Begin at BG

Frederick D. Brown, director of student life, announced that the official opening of the Fall Semester, September 24, marks the beginning of a new year and a new beginning for many students who will join the student body at Bowling Green State University for the fall semester. Of the approximately 4,500 persons who have enrolled for the Fall Semester, approximately 1,000 are new students.

Among the new students are 200 women, who will live in the Women's Building. The majority of the new students are freshmen, but there are also a number of upperclassmen who are returning for their final year of study. The university has a total enrollment of approximately 6,500 students, including both undergraduate and graduate students.

Student Life

The Student Union, located in the center of campus, hosts a variety of activities and events throughout the week. The Union offers a range of services, including a bookstore, a food court, and a multipurpose room for events.

Library

The university library is a hub for research and study. It houses a collection of over 500,000 books and thousands of periodicals, and provides access to electronic resources.

Athletics

The university has a variety of athletic teams, including basketball, football, soccer, and tennis. The university is a member of the Mid-American Conference (MAC) and participates in NCAA Division I competition.

President's Address

In his address to the students, the university president emphasized the importance of education and the value of a college degree. He encouraged students to take advantage of the opportunities available to them and to strive for academic excellence.

Conclusion

The new school year is off to a promising start, with a large and diverse student body and a commitment to excellence in education. As students embark on their academic journey, they are encouraged to embrace new challenges and to make the most of their college experience.

Baseball, Track Practices Begin

Approximately 35 men signed up for baseball practices this week, according to Coach Warren E. Stalter. Of the 31, 19 were in the first day's practice. The only one who played in the Fall men's team last season. Coach Stalter said the club will begin practices on March 12. About 15 men signed up this week. Added to those returning this year are all of last year's team since most of them were in the V-I-25.

Properly prepared baseball season costs are not given. Since the Office of Defense Transportation has laid restrictions on professional baseball, it is expected that intercollegiate competition will have to be limited.

Track prospects are similar of those with baseball, with everything depending on the OSL.

Men interested in baseball and track may still sign up for practice.

Tumblers Perform Optimists Beware

Coach Warren Stalter's tumbling team of eight members practiced the basket routine and the highball. Most of the members of the group were Jack Lanning, Bob Harvey, Jack Bandal, Edward Buettner, Marion Griffith, Wynn Davidson, Jim Delbo and Marie Ervis, Bob Lyon, Bruce Kelly and Ivy Pier.

OU Organizes Its Student Rooters

ATHENS, OHIO (AP)—It’s an Ohio University tradition that students form a cheering section of their own at all varsity games, sitting together in the reserved seats, and helping the cheerleaders urge the team on. On the court, incidentally, are the best seats.

To be eligible for membership in the cheering section—and all students are eligible—the only requirement is that students attend the games with a full seat. This has been one of the duties given by the cheerleaders in the Men’s Gym.
