REMEMBER PARKING DECALS
Faculty and staff are reminded that all present parking decals currently in use must be replaced by the beginning of the new academic year. "Satellite" sites for vehicle registration were published in the Aug. 13 issue of MONITOR. Decals also are available in the Office of Parking and Traffic.
A fee waiver signed by a budget administrator and a completed motor vehicle registration form must be presented when returning a decal.

ANOTHER PARKING REMINDER
All metered parking will be enforced this week by the Office of Parking and Traffic. Proper coins must be deposited.

CENTER HOURS CHANGE
Beginning Sunday, Sept. 9, hours for the Center for Archival Collections in the Jerome Library will be as follows:
Sunday: 4-8 p.m.
Monday: 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Tuesday through Friday: 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
These hours will remain in effect throughout the academic year while school is in session.

When school is not in session hours will be 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Coverlet exhibit opens Wednesday
More than 30 woven coverlets, many created in Ohio during the 19th century, will be shown in the exhibition, "The Woven Coverlet: Textiles in the Folk Tradition," to open Wednesday (Aug. 22) in the McFall Center Gallery.
Sponsored by the department of home economics, the exhibit will include shaft woven overshots, twills, doublecloth and jacquards as well as traditional coverlets woven today and contemporary textiles that have been influenced by traditional coverlet designs.
The coverlets have been loaned to the University by individuals, private collectors and museums.
Patricia A. Cunningham, home economics, is directing the exhibit, which is made possible in part by a grant from the Ohio Arts Council and Ohio Humanities Council.

Gallery hours for the exhibition are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and 2-5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, through Sept. 23. Admission is free.

An exhibition catalog with information regarding the historical and cultural significance of the woven coverlet will be available.

REMEMBER PARKING DECALS
Faculty and staff are reminded that all present parking decals currently in use must be replaced by the beginning of the new academic year. "Satellite" sites for vehicle registration were published in the Aug. 13 issue of MONITOR. Decals also are available in the Office of Parking and Traffic.
A fee waiver signed by a budget administrator and a completed motor vehicle registration form must be presented when returning a decal.

ANOTHER PARKING REMINDER
All metered parking will be enforced this week by the Office of Parking and Traffic. Proper coins must be deposited.

CENTER HOURS CHANGE
Beginning Sunday, Sept. 9, hours for the Center for Archival Collections in the Jerome Library will be as follows:
Sunday: 4-8 p.m.
Monday: 8:30 a.m. to 8 p.m.
Tuesday through Friday: 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
These hours will remain in effect throughout the academic year while school is in session.

When school is not in session hours will be 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Coverlet exhibit opens Wednesday
More than 30 woven coverlets, many created in Ohio during the 19th century, will be shown in the exhibition, "The Woven Coverlet: Textiles in the Folk Tradition," to open Wednesday (Aug. 22) in the McFall Center Gallery.
Sponsored by the department of home economics, the exhibit will include shaft woven overshots, twills, doublecloth and jacquards as well as traditional coverlets woven today and contemporary textiles that have been influenced by traditional coverlet designs.
The coverlets have been loaned to the University by individuals, private collectors and museums.
Patricia A. Cunningham, home economics, is directing the exhibit, which is made possible in part by a grant from the Ohio Arts Council and Ohio Humanities Council.

Gallery hours for the exhibition are 8:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays and 2-5 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, through Sept. 23. Admission is free.

An exhibition catalog with information regarding the historical and cultural significance of the woven coverlet will be available.
Opportunities for non-traditional, part-time students

An orientation program for new University students over the age of 22, those who attend classes only at night and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus. The program will begin at 7 p.m. in 112 Life Sciences Building, and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus. The program will begin at 7 p.m. in 112 Life Sciences Building, and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus. The program will begin at 7 p.m. in 112 Life Sciences Building, and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus.

Leathers appointed acting dept. chair

Park Leathers, accounting and management information systems, has been appointed acting chair of that department after returning to full-time teaching. Dr. Leathers joined the Bowling Green faculty in 1975. Previously he was a lecturer in auditing and a teaching fellow in accounting at The Wharton School of the University of Pennsylvania where he received his master's and doctoral degrees. He is a 1965 graduate of Bowling Green and held various accounting positions with the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, Arthur Andersen & Co., the State of Ohio and the U.S. Army before pursuing graduate studies. At Bowling Green he has served as faculty adviser for the Accounting Club since 1978 and as faculty advisor for the accounting honorary, Beta Alpha Psi, since 1979. In 1983 he was named Outstanding Faculty Vice President of the Beta Alpha Psi national professional accounting honorary.

Spielvogel named acting asst. dean

Jennifer Spielvogel, director of program advisement in the College of Health and Community Services, has been appointed acting assistant dean of the college, effective Sept. 1. She succeeds Seldon Carsey, who has left the University for a position in Florida. Spielvogel received both bachelor's and master's degrees from the University and has been director of program advisement in the health college since December 1983. In that position she has been responsible for coordinating the advising and counseling of all students in the college, in addition to directing the summer pre-registration program and coordinating college admission and recruiting activities.

During her years as a graduate student at the University she held assistantships in the College of Education's Program Advisement and Teacher Certification Office and in the college student personnel department. In addition, she completed practica in the offices of Alumni and Development and Registration and Records.

Prior to enrolling in Bowling Green's graduate program she was assistant registrar in the Georgetown University Law School. She also held the posts of assistant director of admissions and assistant director of corporate relations in the Youth for Understanding Program headquartered in Washington, D.C.

Faculty/Staff Positions

The following faculty positions are available:

The following administrative staff positions are available:

Biological Sciences: Laboratory technician. Contact Morgan Brent (2-2731). Deadline: Aug. 27, 1984

Student Development Program: Counselor. Contact Susan Caldwell (2-2555). Deadline: Aug. 20, 1984

Faculty & Staff

Presentations

B. Madhusudan Rao, applied statistics and operations research, presented a paper titled "Algorithmic and Approximation Analysis of the "Queue Model" at the joint national meeting of ORSA/TIMS in San Francisco.

Adrian R. Tia, art, and Donna Harding, Visual Arts, displayed several works in the 32nd annual Spring Show at Alma Gallery, Memorial Hall, in Lima.

Richard Wilson, special education, presented a paper titled "The relationship between a teacher's prescriptive skill and math achievement of minority and handicapped students" and gave a presentation on "Computational math programs for non-traditional students: Assessment and instruction," at the 62nd annual meeting of the Council for Exceptional Children in Washington, D.C.

Elizabeth J. Wood, library, spoke on "Marketing for Libraries: An Introduction and Overview" at the LOSR Library Section Conference in Ypsilanti, Mich. She was the keynote speaker at the conference.

Richard Wright, Institute for Great Lakes Research, gave a presentation on the marine history of the Great Lakes as part of the Great Lakes and Marine Environmental Seminar Series at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor.

Program offered for non-traditional, part-time students

An orientation program for new University students over the age of 22, those who attend classes only at night and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus. The program will begin at 7 p.m. in 112 Life Sciences Building, and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus. The program will begin at 7 p.m. in 112 Life Sciences Building, and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus. The program will begin at 7 p.m. in 112 Life Sciences Building, and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus. The program will begin at 7 p.m. in 112 Life Sciences Building, and those pursuing degrees part time will be held Thursday (Aug. 22) on campus.

Deaths

Harry R. Mathias

Harry R. Mathias, a professor emeritus of mathematics, died July 31 at Community Nursing Home in Bowling Green where he had resided. He was 83.

Mathias devoted more than a decade of his life to education - more than 40 of those at Bowling Green. He retired in 1973 but continued as a tutor in the mathematics and statistics department until about a year ago. In 1982 the Spring Festival of the University of Kansas Emphasis on mathematics honorary presented him the Award for Excellence in Teaching Mathematics. A year earlier he received "Distinguished Member" designation from the American Mathematical Association.

Mathias graduated from Indiana Central College in 1923 and earned a master's degree from Indiana University in 1925. Funeral services were Aug. 3.