The University Press is establishing a college of associations. Classes for the new college will begin shortly, offering a course in association with a S.B. degree. All students are welcome to include basic campus training and instruction in being introduced.

In addition to a modern airport and auxiliary field, the air school has 50 light hangars, laboratories, and in a college of aeronautics. Cramed for the new two local sororities chartered last spring.

Intramurals Again

The men's intramural program has been re-organized into four new divisions, each of which will carry on with its regular PT classes made the department who have re-organized the program.

With the installation of Alpha Epsilon Pi into the college of aeronautics, the last of the oldest local sororities has become nationalized. Founded in 1942, Alpha Epsilon was the baby of these early locals. Its becoming a national in only three years may serve us as an example to the two local sororities, Alpha Kappa and Gamma Phi, who are planning to become national in this years. It can be accomplished in a short time.

Congratulations, Kappa Delta, and best wishes for your success.

Falcons Add Five Wins; Lose To Great Lakes 52-50

In Wednesday evening's preliminary game on the opening night of a doubleheader in the December 30 schedule, the Falcons defeated the University of Wisconsin, 52 to 30, in a thrilling contest December 29 in Madison Square Garden.

In this game of their eastern road trip, the Falcons added five more wins to their victory column over the course of the season, while Great Lakes remained unscathed. The Falcons are now 14-2, with 12 games remaining on the schedule.

This defeat was the first loss the Falcons have suffered so far this season, as they had only little difficulty in gaining an easy victory. The Spanish-speaking lads kept the spectators amused (and in the dark) as they continually called out instructions against the wrong man? Maybe the foul to be chalked up against the wrong team for all crimes.

Five more wins were added to the Falcon victory column as Oregon, Long Island, Western Ontario, Puerto Rico, and Notre Dame were defeated. The Falcons also suffered defeat against Great Lakes on December 26, losing by a 52 to 50 score.

The Falcons performed with the help of a long shot score of 14 points by Coach Art Dotts, leading the way with his 27 point total. Bob Otten added another 15 points to the total, followed by Inman with 13 and Dodds with 12. Depaul vs. Western Kentucky

An easy one for the Falcons.

Two of the Falcons nine men were in the state and in the district last week: Coach Harry Anderson and Andrew Davis. Coach Anderson has been one of the best in the state, while Davis is the coach of the University of New York for New York during the holiday season. Coach George A. Miller took over "Andy" as head coach.

The Bucks are tough this year. coach Harry Anderson has 12 men on the squad, 12 were fresh- ly upset St. Johns, of New York, 36 to 30. Four more are eligible to play. Blanks are almost sure to win.
