Seven One-Act Plays To Be Given Friday and Saturday

Seven one-act plays will be given Friday and Saturday evenings at 8:15 p.m. in the University Auditorium, by members of the University Theater, under the direction of Prof. Elden T. Smith. Admission will be 75 cents for each of the two nights. Those players chosen and directed by students of the speech and drama department, who selected their parts which, will be presented Friday night are "R.F.D.," by Mrs. Mary E. Baxley; "Strangers," by Mrs. Kay Norris; "The Knife," by Mary Wilson; "The Doorbell," by Mrs. Georgia Delany; and "Dance," by Mrs. Virginia Prince. Saturday night's offering will be "The Four Winds," by Mrs. Dorothy Fowlkes, and "The Glass Menagerie," by Mrs. Margaret Coleman. Both plays will be directed by Mrs. Beulah Staton, instructor in speech and drama.

University Hiress Faculty Members

Two professors and one graduate student, all faculty members of the department, are D. R. Jennings, Dr. John A. Warren, Spanish; and Mrs. El- wayn Deeds, assistant professor of music, all of whom have been elected to membership in the Order of the Arrow. The election was announced early this week by the Arrowhead, national publication of the Order of the Arrow, and is made according to established scholastic standards. It is the highest honor that can be conferred on a student or member of the University faculty.

Witherington Has Book Published

Dr. Henry C. Witherington, associate professor in the School of Religion, has authored a new book on education, recently published at San Antonio, Texas, by Trinity University College. The book, Dr. Witherington's second, is called "Principles of Teaching," and is used as a text here at the University.

Reginald Change

A change has been made in the requirement that men students of the College of Commerce, Science, and Letters, be enrolled in the first semester of their own course of study. Prior to this change, the requirement was that all men students of the college had to be enrolled in the first semester of their own course.

Scott Ff to Sponsor Used Book Sale

A second sale of used books will be held at the University next Saturday, Feb. 16. The sale will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and will feature books on all subjects, as well as other items. The proceeds from the sale will be used to support the University's scholarship program.

Pi Omega Pi Plans Annual Magazine

Pi Omega Pi, the national honors society of women engaged in the field of education, will publish an annual magazine this year. The magazine will contain articles written by members of the society and will be distributed to their families with them.

Norman Thomas To Speak at Forum Monday Evening

Norman Thomas, five-time socialist candidate for President, will speak before the Wood County Public Forum Monday evening, at 9 p.m. in the Bowling Green High School auditorium.

After his first defeat in the presidential election of 1932, he has run for President on the Socialist ticket in every election since, but was beaten by Franklin D. Roosevelt each time.

Gelling Wins Posting Advertising Prize

Mary Activities

As in previous years, the activities of the University's Mary, the national sorority, have been well publicized. In addition to its political activities, the sorority is well known for its successful advertising campaigns in the Student Newspaper. By far the most outstanding of these campaigns have been the successful ads by the Criticism, a monthly magazine published by the Criticism, a monthly magazine published by the University's Mary.

Treble Clef Is Featured in Local Church Program

Made by John Clef was in-ducted into an official church program Monday evening at the First Presbyterian Church of Bowling Green. The program was attended by members of the church and other interested people, including Mrs. Robert D. Bovey, John C. Hughes, and Erma L. Osete, who were the program's organizers.

Student Room Is Opened

The Student Room is the latest addition to the student body's recreational facilities. It is located in the basement of the library and is open to students as a place to study and to use as a study space for those who are living in the library.
The National Invitational Tournament An invitation to all in that year's batch, DePaul, Great Lakes, Holy Cross, and among others, have fallen by the wayside because of the latter policy, not necessarily because it needed such a magazine as a student body has needed such a magazine as to the Chicago affair, run the season's record to the nation's number one team previous & "have what it takes." Your tournament wins back. Bowling Green is proud of you and the staff members weren't the only... congratulations, Falcons.

Only three opponents remain on the 1945-46 schedule: Hullabaloo, Great Lakes, and Western Michigan. Against the latter two you will meet a challenge worth the trip to Point Pleasant and you will point East to the great college classic that Hullabaloo is. Probably the major reason that your season would mark the third consecutive year that you will have a football team, Hatchett has received the honor. Good luck—B.S.

Sport Scribles
by Bob Smith, Sports Editor

A good example of school spirit was displayed Sunday afternoon when over 200 Bee Gee students and family members gathered at the local train station when the team players boarded the train for a trip to Chicago. The trip, of course, was a victory trip.

The Falconers returned to Bowling Green the proud possessors of the most valuable player plaque for the year. Coach Harold Anderson made a short speech to the shots and interviews held after the team returned.

I"t" Otani is also the proud owner of the most valuable player plaque for the season. He is a native of Iwate, Japan, and has been in our midst for several years. He is a valuable addition to our squad.

The Aggies during the season have a liking to Roy's smooth work at first base for a sandlot league.

Another major tourney will be very interesting. Our team must continue to play as though Bowling Green's chances were in 1919 in his Elms, N.Y., home after he had just returned from a baseball game with his six month old son.
