Swarthour and Symphony Lead Assembly Programs

Three Lectures Will Probe Crucial Foreign Affaires

Two outstanding musical programs will highlight the assemblies to be presented at the University this week. Four lectures—three of them on crucial international problems and the other by a famous symphony conductor—will be featured in the concert season.

Lectures Listed

Mar Elia Zogbi, associate professor of Semitic and eastern languages of the departments of Bible and Oriental Studies, will speak on "Middle Eastern Problems of Today" on Tuesday, October 21. Professor Zogbi will present an outline of the cultural and religious life in the Middle East from the rise of the Islamic civilization to the present time.

Professor Zogbi, the author of several books on the Near East, is a former member of the staff of the Interchurch World displacement, which published a number of books on the Near East.

The lecture will be held in Harlan H. Bolen Hall, 4 p.m. on Tuesday, October 21. Tickets are available at the ticket office of the University Library, 26 University Ave.

Three Join Eysa Staff

Three appointments to the staff of Eysa, semi-annual student literary magazine, have been announced by Dr. George M. Smith, editor.

Theda C. Stults, a former student at Eysa, has been appointed as assistant editor, in charge of advertising and distribution. Miss Stults, a graduate of the University of Illinois, is a student at the University of Wisconsin this fall.

Miss Stults is familiar with the staff and policies of Eysa, having been a member of the staff last year and served as advertising manager.

Margaret C. Nyland, a senior on the staff of Eysa, has been appointed as assistant editor, in charge of manuscripts. Miss Nyland, a member of the University Women's Association, is a senior in the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Nyland is familiar with the policies of Eysa, having been a member of the staff last year and served as manuscript editor.

Elaine B. Brown, a senior on the staff of Eysa, has been appointed as assistant editor, in charge of the literary section. Miss Brown, a member of the University Women's Association, is a senior in the University of Wisconsin.

Miss Brown is familiar with the policies of Eysa, having been a member of the staff last year and served as literary editor.

The three appointments are effective immediately. The staff of Eysa will also begin work on the first issue of the magazine for the fall semester.
SOO Named on Dean's List

Names of over five hundred students carrying a 3.00 (B) or higher scholastic average for the 1946 spring semester appear on the Dean's List just released. This number represents more than twice the number of students named at the end of the fall semester.

These students are exempt from attendance regulations, but can be removed from the list upon the discretion of the professor.

Volunteers or members who did not attend last semester but have a higher average for the semester attending voluntarily are also named on the Dean's List for this year.

Social Group Plans

At the first Social Committee meeting of the year Eunice Trask was elected secretary. The committee discussed plans for the social calendar until Thanksgiving.

This year's special problem is to provide social entertainment for more students in less space. Any constructive criticism or suggestions from the student body will be welcomed.

A new faculty member is to be appointed to second Miss Crossman who has resigned. A new senior representative is also needed to replace Clarence Hanum who did not return to school.

County Stamp Clubs

Meet Monday Night
The first meeting of the Wood County Stamp Club this year will be held Monday at 7:30 p.m. on the second floor of the Sentinel Tribune Building. First organized last April, the club provides a stamp and hobby center for students, faculty, and townspeople interested in philately.

Officers of the club include Dr. Norman J. French of the biology department who is president and Miss Elizabeth Somerton of the English department who is vice president. The club meets on the second and fourth Monday of each month.

Bookstore Sales

Total to $45.00

Book and supplies sales totalled $45,000 at the University bookstore during the opening week of school as four thousand students attempted to obtain necessary books and school supplies.

Supplies are running low and tests for many courses are out of stock due to the unexpected enrollment, back paper shortage, and the recent New York City truck drivers strike. Bookstore manager Paul Shepard had placed orders for an expected 3000 students but the strike has prevented many publishing companies from printing additional text books.

The most scarce item is college dictionaries. Shepard expects on the average 1000 copies of each order to be placed for a number of kids.

All source or out of stock textbooks have been reordered but shipment dates are a matter of speculation.

W.L.S. Holds Meeting
For New Students
A get acquainted party for new students was held last eve- ning for the new students in the Rec Hall. Edie Jones, recre- ational director, addressed the crowd and introduced the program chairman, other chairmen assisted and service to the campus.

275 Members Begin SCF's Second Year
Student Christian Movement began its second year last week with a membership of over 750 students. This is the continua- tion, which is the only thing of its kind in the United States, offers a completely cooperative religious program than that on any college religious campus, according to a recent nation- al study.

Theta Phi's Wear
New Sorority Pins
The Theta Phi, an all-female sorority on the campus of the University, held its first meeting Wednesday night and received a charter from the national organization.

Many new students were initiated into the Theta Phi chapter and were on hand to attend the meeting. The chapter was organized in 1946 and has a membership of over 200 students.

Sigma Nu Initiated
Eight In Summer
Summer's hottest night was Friday, when Sigma Nu initiated its first eight members. The group includes: Charles Neiswanger, William Allen, Robert Brand, John O'Neill, Robert Lindemayer, William Parker, Charles Foose, and Louis Simmons.

The meeting was held in Joker's Last Laff Bar, located on Main Street, and was attended by many members of the fraternity who are new to the area.

Sigma Mu continues to be the most active chapter on campus, having over 200 members.

Kappa Sigma Delta Is Sixth Fraternity
Kappa Sigma Delta, local fraternity founded by six stu- dents during the summer session, is the sixth men's social group on the campus. Nineteen additional men were initiated into the fraternity on August 10 at a banquet attended by rep- resentatives of Ohio chapters of Kappa Sigma, national fra- ternity into which the local group has petitioned for membership.

Elmer C. Brown, sponsor of Kappa Sigma when he was a student at Ohio Wesleyan University, was elected president of Kappa Sigma Delta. Other of- ficers are Samuel L. Mandell, Cornell, vice-president; Richard Mc- Vay, secretary, Arthur Lawler, Cleveland Heights, pledge- master, Thomas McDonald, Wil- liams College, and Paul De, pledge, social chairman.

Bill Vicks is an outstanding houseman and Ray Eshelmann as chairman. Miller is historian and Howard Livestock, rush chairman. Pledge- master is Joe Prebich.

Members of the social committee include Jim Dunn, Doyle Smith, and Jack White.

Cap and Gown Officers Named
Officers of Cap and Gown, sen- ior women's honorary society, were elected for this year. Elouise Lice and George Miller were elected to the position of president and secretary, respectively.

Members of the organization include: Joanne Hansena, treasurer; Billie Muller, secretary; and Margaret Reuter, vice-president.

Cap and Gown is composed of ten senior women who have achieved distinction because of scholarship, character, personality, and service to the campus.

Frosh Positions Open On Sub-Committee
Application forms for positions on the social committee for frosh are available at the reception in Swain-Wilder's office from 2 to 4 p.m. through Saturday and 9 to 12 Saturday morning.

The purpose of this committee is to provide leadership opportunities for freshmen who may be interested in being ap- pointed to the Social Committee in later years. Applicants should be energetic, clever, and depend- able persons who intend to carry out these projects.

Vets to Sponsor Variety Show
The Veterans Organization, associated last spring, is planning to sponsor an all-campus variety show to be held the latter part of this month. All funds raised from the show will go to the Chap- ten C. Kohl memorial scholarship fund.

The "Lance Dukie Walker" dance held last Saturday evening in the Women's Gym was sponsored by the Veterans' Association. Because of crowded conditions the Vets's plan to run a series of Toe Dances in the Rec Hall every day during this semester. This will afford everyone a better opportunity to get acquainted and continue a type of social function that is popular with the Vet's.

Sigma Rho Elects Brainard As Scribe
Elaine Brainard was elected social ac- tivity-secretary of Sigma Rho Tau during the meeting last week. She replaces Betty Brackney who is attending the International Business College in Fort Wayne, Indiana. Two other members, Barbara Brackney and Virginia Price are also attending the Fort Wayne business college.
Minature Science Building

by Henry Lewis

Inexpugnably, patience, and the effort of five or more days a hour for a period of four weeks on the part of Don Kinneman resulted in a model of the proposed new science building. Don is the lad who, with razor blades, tweezers and small paint brushes, spent from midnight almost until the moment finished from one would never suspect the strength of building materials used in its construction. The model was created from various found objects and a few typical materials, with a focus on the educational nature of the construction.

The site for the new building is in the southern section of the area of the present library, which will be used as a preliminary study and construction will not be started until the necessary funds have been raised.

The student body will be responsible for making the model available to the public. For this purpose, the Physics and Chemistry Building will be constructed.

The site for the new building is just one of the many costs of the present library, which will be used for the simulation of the new library. The construction will not be started until the necessary funds have been raised.

Greetings of the faculty and administration are extended to all students. We take pride in the fact that every veteran had to be opened up in the administration building.

This is a situation not favorable to the best college life. Our enrollment force on campus averages 10 to 16 in the fall. In the spring, when we get the necessary classrooms, our teaching problem is a very serious one. Mass halls de- signed for 100 or more students can accommodate four times that number. This means that if a whole course of study is to be compressed into a term, the number of students has to be lowered to a more comfortable size.

We therefore, ask for your sympathy and understanding, and your extra effort to make up for the loss of time.

Sincerely yours,

Frank J. Proft, President
Falcons Open Season At Central Michigan

This Saturday night the Falcons travel to Mount Pleasant to tangle with Central Michigan in their opening game of the season.

Coach Robert Whittaker is blessed with the best material he has had since pre-war competition. The Falcons however are faced with a rugged schedule which means that every one of the 100 candidates will get ample chance to show their stuff.

Among the veteran players on the squad are Wayne Bordner, Joe Babcock, and Bob Bertrum, all centers from Sandusky. Tackles are John Tabler, Dave Martin, Steve Ters from Sandusky. Tackles are Wayne Bloker, Joe Rideout.

Two Falcon Lettermen
Return for Cross-Country

Eighteen candidates responded to Cross-Country coach Samuel Cooper's initial call.

Great Marshall, Toledo, and Clair Forrest, Pasadena, are the only two former Falcon harriers reporting. MacDon-ald was a letterman in 1941 and 1942 and Forrest in 1942.

Leon Kantor, Springfield, Massachusetts, who ran in the National A&U Championship and the New England Open Champion-ship, is also a candidate.

Four meets are scheduled for this fall with the first against Ball State October 4. Travels will be held here. Obelisk is next to appear on the home course on No- vember 2, and Albion College fin-ishes up the meets to be held at Bowling Green, November 12.

Bee Gee takes to the road November 14 invading Ohio Wesleyan.

Daily workouts begin this after-noon. Harriers will conditi-on themselves until next week, when Coach Cooper will leave the foot- ball squad to take charge.

The four mile cross-country course is set to be laid out but it is planned to have the finish line located in the Stadium. Meets will be run during the first half games with the finish coming during half-time.

By now probably everyone has heard the bad news that Wyndol is coming against the invaders.

The Harriers will be chosen to compete for the national title.

Wallace Picks
Army, N. Dame

Army, Notre Dame and Alba- nome, in that order will be at the top of the college football heap when the whistle ends the 1946 campaign for national gridiron honors in December, according to Francis Wallace, Saturday Evening Post's "prophet," who is resuming his annual pre-season football forecasts after a three-year lag because of the war.

Following Alabama is his na-tional ranking. Mr. Wallace places in order: Ohio State, Texas, Eli-ma, San Francisco, Yale, Michi- gan, Southern California, Georgia, Notre Dame, Navy, Oklahoma A. & M., and Mississippi.

Varsity Club Meeting
In Auditorium Today

The first business meeting was held at 7:15 tonight in back of the Administration Building auditorium.

Mr. Wallace taps: East, Army; Mid-west, Notre Dame; South, Duke; Southeast, Alabama; Southwestern, Texas U.; Missouri Valley, Okla-homa A. & M.; Rocky Mountain, Colorado U., Pacific West, Southern California. He picks Yale as Ivy League champion, and Ohio State as Big Ten title winner.

Swan Club Will Continue Tryouts

Swan Club members will give a second demonstration for all new women students in the Nation-tion tonight at 7:15.

All women interested in joining the club are invited to attend.

Tryouts will be continued tomor-row at 7:00 p.m. Tonight will also be used as a preview for those intending to take the tryout test. Instruction will be handled by Swan Club members.

To qualify for membership one must pass the following test: 18 breaths of the pool, dive from side of pool, one length of each of the following strokes: crawl (flutter kick), breast, sidestroke, butterfly breast, elementary back, and side overarm. The new members will be picked and remain captive until after the water pageant, "The Loves of Apollo," which is sched-uled for October 11. November 1 and 25.

Confused Coed
Mixes Up Profs

A bewildered coed wanted to change her freshmen English class.

Someone told her to see Professor Crowly. She did. However, she was directed to Daniel J. Crowley, chairman of the geophysics department, in- stead of her daughter, Ellen, who teaches English.

He explained the mistake, but the freshman asked innocently:

"How am I supposed to tell you apart?"

Archery Club Has
First Fall Season

The Archery Club, which usually holds its meetings in the spring, will have its first fall season this year with Miss Carolyn Shaw as advisor.

The first business meeting was held yesterday with actual shoot-ing beginning October 1.

Requirements are a score of 85 at the 50 yard line, twice. Anyone interested, and who did not attend the meeting yesterday, may con-tact Ruth Lenor at the Alpha Xi Delta house.
