red flag warns

STOP at the sign of the flying red flag! Little children belong to God and do not come from all directions to the basketball games with the hope of any one of the campus. They walk treatefully between the white cross-ties which line the narrow fire side of the school. You are asked to drive slowly and carefully. They are just as not to be killed.

Basketball Coach Harold Anderson expected a big turn-out for basketball but nothing like the one that reported Monday for a practice meeting held in the auditorium. He collected 185 files of names, enough for 300 players, for five on this year's varsity. The number of candidates for varsity cage posts was larger than anticipated. Central Michigan Edges

Falcons In Grid Opener

A mouth-kicking duel between Ross Maples, Falcon quarterback, and Tony Pabalis, Central Michigan Chippewa quarterback, ended in a 2-0 upset victory for the Birds.

Making its first appearance of the season, the Falcon team faced the Chippewas. Conroy, using an offensive and defensive team, subbed freely in a desperate effort to salvage the game. The Falcon defense recovered Maples's fumble on the 24 yard line, but to no avail.

In the first quarter neither team scored, but in the second quarter, both Maples and Pabalis kept the opposition deep in its own end zone.

The kicking duel continued in the first part of the second quarter, with both teams trying to overcome Maples's fumble on the 24 yard line. The Chippewas could gain any ground, although Central Michigan made one first down in the second quarter. Both Maples and Pabalis kept the opposition deep in its own end zone.

Falcon 24 yard line, but to no avail.

The second half of the game was marked by fast moving teams. Each came away with 2-0 losses. The Chippewas took the ball on their own 40 yard line and scored the final touchdown of the game.

The final score was 24-0 in favor of the Falcons.
