Cats bill bought up?
Students who are eating at Kahl, Bick, or the center have paid their board for six weeks in advance. The show of students before the board this week is due to the balance due on meals tickets because of the recent rise in the cost of meals tickets before the raise went into effect. Many students said they would have to cut back on their buying of meals because of the cost increase.

Student Council Revision Plans Result of Criticism

This is the first in a series of articles on the organization of the student council, giving the history, present status of its activities and problems which are to be affected by the constitution, and some suggestions as to how politics and others want to know why there is not openness on the campus and why there aren't more meetings. It doesn't even know what the student council is, but it does know some of the things that are happening in the council. This article attempts to explain the present situation and the reasons why the council in the past, why its constitution did not work, why it failed, and why it functions as it does today.

No Student Vote

Under the present system the University contained no form of student representatives, the Student Council. In 1915 students first had the right for some sort of representation and in 1918 and after considerable debate principal and weak body was formed.

A few minutes ago I left the University stadium where approximately 9000 fans, both Kent and Miami fans, were in attendance. The game was between two of the nation's best college football teams. The Kent team, coached by Trevor Ross, has been undefeated thus far in the season. The Miami team, coached by Sam Cooper, has also been undefeated. The game was a thrilling contest and was ended by a Kent touchdown in the fourth quarter.

First Square Dance Next, Orchestra Dance Saturday
A square dance Friday and an orchestra dance Saturday, plus the weekend movie, are all-campus social events to be offered.

The "Annual Hayseed Hop," which is the first square dance of the year, will be held Friday evening from 8 to 11 in the Women’s Building. Jane Nelson’s four piece orchestra will furnish the music and a caller for the event which is sponsored by the social committee. A movie will also be shown in the stadium if weather permits.

In case of bad weather the event will be held in the Practical Arts Auditorium.

Hugh Lang’s ten piece orchestra from Toledo will play at Saturday night’s dance in the Women’s Building from 9 until 12. This dance is sponsored by the social committee.

The intercollegiate tennis committee will be held after the Kent-Bowling Green game at Kent.

The Kent Campus News is printed by microphotography from the Kent State University Press as a continuous project of the Kent State University Federal Reserve System. Its sole purpose is to acquaint the students with the events of the university, the surrounding communities, and the world. Questions and criticism may be directed to the business manager, Richard S. Brown, 228 N. Main, Ph. 6032.

In case of bad weather the event will be held in the Practical Arts Auditorium.
