Falcon Trounce Oberlin 14-0 In Homecoming Tilt

By Fred Fay

To add to the festivities of Bowling Green’s first real Homecoming, the Falcon grid gals scored a 14-0 victory over the Oberlin Yeomen last Saturday in the local Stadium. Eight thousand fans saw an inspired Bee Gee eleven push over markers in the first and third periods and then make goal-line stands to send the invaders home in defeat.

Lowry Leaves Squad Because of Injuries

Richard "Red" Lowry, senior halfback from Lepisco, retired from grid play today because of back injury which had not minded ten days. The versatile ten was named team captain at the award ceremony, as announced by Coach Rob W. Whitaker.

The first-halfed halfback sparked the Falcon’s current winning streak of three games when he scored both touchdowns against the Yeomen.

Lowry returned to Bowling Green this full day to injure his side in the first quarter and missed the first three games.

"Red" was told Falcon teammates were fighting in 45 and 42 and at Wesley College in 45 as a Navy Air Cadet. He also earned two track letters as a dash man.

Predictions

We bragged a little too much last week and this week we modest two more than last. We hit 46 but missed 21 this time for an average of 25.

Our seasons average took another small climb and is now 76.3. Cincinnatians 87 right now, a possible 94. This week will be centrally played in the far east.

Petrie Stars For Harriers; Places First In Three Contests

Bob Petrie, freshman from Toledo, is the University’s leading cross country runner, and scored a 14-0 victory over the Oberlin Yeomen last Saturday in the local Stadium. Eight thousand fans saw an inspired Bee Gee eleven push over markers in the first and third periods and then make goal-line stands to send the invaders home in defeat.

The Falcons little time in ranking their first seven points after receiving an Oberlin punt on the Falcons one-yard line but three rushing plays against a stiff Bowling Green forward wall failed to gain the ground necessary for a first down before the gun sounded the half.

Max Minich, Bee Gee back, picked up a first down through the Falcons tackle line as the Yeomen start the Falcon’s second touchdown drive after half time. Jack Freerick ran to Mark Walker in the end zone for the second score and Bowling Green went ahead 14-0, a good lead for the extra point.

Using a formation with ends wide, Oberlin’s passing control was not good. Bob Addicks avoided a second, attempt to get the Yeomen gain ground in the last five minutes of the first half, but one of their touch downs driving the Falcons back two yards. The Yeomen returned the ball two and three yards, as an attempt to start the drive fell to the players failed to pick up yardage.
