2-26-1947

Bee Gee News February 26, 1947

Bowling Green State University

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news

Recommended Citation
Bowling Green State University, "Bee Gee News February 26, 1947" (1947). BGSU Student Newspaper. 804.
https://scholarworks.bgsu.edu/bg-news/804

This Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Publications at ScholarWorks@BGSU. It has been accepted for inclusion in BGSU Student Newspaper by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks@BGSU.
Senate Sets Up Cabinet, Asks Applicants for Court

Student Cabinet, consisting of nine Senate-appointed chairmen of the functional student-faculty committee was named by Student Senate Monday night. They will be responsible to Student Senate and will be called on to sit at all its Senate meetings.

Filling are the committee vacancies in membership filled and their chairs:

Account Horticulture—Dr. James Bett, chairman, and Don Elliott; Religion—Melvin Hooper, chairman, and Dr. Curtis Johnson; P.E. and Health—Bill Reck, chairman, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Hensley; Social Science—Bill Sherman, chairman, and Dr. Tom Tuttle; Historian—Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Moore, chairman, and Bernice Knight.

Court Joins Open

Applications for Senate Court membership will be accepted this week, and a call will be made on all to sit at some Senate meetings.

Graduating

Seniors planning to graduate in June must file application in the Registrar's office before June 1.

Art College in the College of Education to teach music in the fall will be Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCall. Mr. McCall taught at Wofford College last year.

Two-year education students who will complete their last two years in residence and who have a full-time job are eligible. Departmental approval will be on the same office by Friday at 4 p.m.

Largest Cartoon Collection

Displayed by Sophomore

"Just a hobby" made Don Deitsfeld, sophomore, the owner of the world's largest original cartoon collection. His library of the Class of '48 contains 2500 original cartoons, which he has collected through gifts from cartoonists whom he knows by trade and those whom he has met. The majority of the cartoons are the work of many well-known cartoonists such as Louis Rabinowitz, Adrier, and Sir John Fennel. The oldest one was drawn in 1885 by Thorne and Longstaff.

Now on display on the second floor of the Men's gym are selections from the group which study the techniques of making a cartoon. The collection was organized by an art student who works on the staff of The Wofford College Democrat.

Orchestra Set for Two Hours

The Orchestra will be on hand for all meetings, and will begin at 7:30 p.m. in the Prayzor and Auditorium. It will also meet at 8:30 p.m.

The final deadline for all key material in the club is March 17.

Choir Concert Will Be Tuesday

A Capsule choir will practice in the Student Union on Tuesday, March 4, at 9 p.m. The choir will be composed of students who will be invited to sing in the choir. The choir will be under the direction of the music professor and will be composed of students who have been selected by the Music professor. The final deadline for all music material in the club is March 17.

34 Charter Members Organize Three New Local Fraternities

Kappa Tau

Charter members of Kappa Sigma are, left to right, behind the piece: James Jacobs, chairman; Robert Stoffer, secretary; Douglas Fish, president; and Don Prittie, social chairman. Seated are: William Reed, treasurer; Thomas Ern, pledgemaster.

Beta Sigma

Charter members of Beta Sigma are, left to right, standing: James Maris, marshall; Robert O'Brien, and Paul Lintgen; and Paul Lintgen, chairman, and Howard A. Atch; seated—Al Cowies, vice president; Harvey Hester, treasurer; LeRoy Hensley, Neil Ratliff, president; Richard Williams, house chairman; and William Randel.

Chi Theta

Charter members of Chi Theta, left to right, standing: John Rich, secretary; John Rich, president; and Don Prittie, chairman. Seated are: William Reed, treasurer; Thomas Ern, pledgemaster; and William Randel.
School days... school days...

School bells are sweet music to 62-year-old Mrs. Margaret Dick. Moving from Pittsburgh to New Jersey 29 years ago, Mrs. Dick logged for new friends. At the suggestion of one new friend, she joined a Presbyterian church. She was introduced to a singing class and that opened up a whole new world for her.

"It was a perfect opportunity for me," Mrs. Dick said. "I had six children at home, and we were looking for ways to be more active. Joining the church and the singing class was a great way to connect with others and to make new friends."

She continued, "I made lifelong friendships and learned a lot about music. It was a wonderful experience for me and my family."

The singing class also allowed Mrs. Dick to explore her creative side. "I have always enjoyed music," she said. "Joining the class gave me a chance to express that creativity in a group setting."

Mrs. Dick's journey with music didn't end with the singing class. She went on to participate in various church choir programs and eventually became a church choirmaster.

"It was a fulfilling experience," she said. "It allowed me to share my love for music and connect with others on a deeper level."

Despite the challenges of raising six children and managing a home, Mrs. Dick found time to make music her passion. "I believe that music has the power to bring people together," she said. "It's a universal language that can bring joy and comfort to all who participate."

Mrs. Dick's story is a testament to the power of music and the importance of finding ways to connect with others. "It's never too late to explore new interests or to connect with others in a meaningful way," she said. "Music has been a huge part of my life, and I hope to continue sharing that joy with others for many years to come."

"It was a Perfect Opportunity for Me"...
Cagers Snag Victories Over Saders, 73-53, on Saturday.

The Falcons added their 24th and 25th victories of the season last weekend by downsing Xavier Friday in a bitter tussle, 48-44, and then traveled to Valparaiso to close the Cruaders, 73-65, on Saturday.

Xavier

The Falcons gained revenge for an early season loss on the road back to the old hardwood where they treated the Musketeers of Xavier to their 24th without a loss at home. It was a rough contest throughout, but once the first half ended, coach Weber were obliged to take early shots before King and again.

The initial quarter was evenly fought with neither team doing enough to score consistently. At the end of the period ended in a tie with 15-15.

Sharing Weber went into the lineup to start the second period and score the opening basket. He then scored 18 points while the lineup to start the second period

Walden

Playing Valparaiso on their court, the Falcons hung on their sixth straight victory and 28th of season by hitting only 10 three-pointers and 11 of 16 free throws.

The game was an exciting one as the Falcons scored 21 points in the first period, but it was not enough to offset the 24-point deficit.

Free throw shots were off the mark in the second half.

Musketeers

Xavier trounced the Musketeers of Xavier, 87-60, in the final game of the season.

Individual prizes will also be presented to the series winner plus medals to the team and trophy for the spring initiation. They are:

Ruth Marshall, refreshments; Ann M. McElligott, bowling; Alice F. Allen, table tennis; and Marilyn McKinlay.

The annual tournament in New Orleans, the American Cancer Society, will be held in the faculty room on April 19-26.

The Falcons added their 24th and 25th victories of the season last weekend by downsing Xavier Friday in a bitter tussle, 48-44, and then traveled to Valparaiso to close the Cruaders, 73-65, on Saturday.

The Falcons gained revenge for an early season loss on the road back to the old hardwood where they treated the Musketeers of Xavier to their 24th without a loss at home. It was a rough contest throughout, but once the first half ended, coach Weber were obliged to take early shots before King and again.

The initial quarter was evenly fought with neither team doing enough to score consistently. At the end of the period ended in a tie with 15-15.

Sharing Weber went into the lineup to start the second period and score the opening basket. He then scored 18 points while the lineup to start the second period

Walden

Playing Valparaiso on their court, the Falcons hung on their sixth straight victory and 28th of season by hitting only 10 three-pointers and 11 of 16 free throws.

The game was an exciting one as the Falcons scored 21 points in the first period, but it was not enough to offset the 24-point deficit.

Free throw shots were off the mark in the second half.

Musketeers

Xavier trounced the Musketeers of Xavier, 87-60, in the final game of the season.

Individual prizes will also be presented to the series winner plus medals to the team and trophy for the spring initiation. They are:

Ruth Marshall, refreshments; Ann M. McElligott, bowling; Alice F. Allen, table tennis; and Marilyn McKinlay.

The annual tournament in New Orleans, the American Cancer Society, will be held in the faculty room on April 19-26.

The Falcons added their 24th and 25th victories of the season last weekend by downsing Xavier Friday in a bitter tussle, 48-44, and then traveled to Valparaiso to close the Cruaders, 73-65, on Saturday.

The Falcons gained revenge for an early season loss on the road back to the old hardwood where they treated the Musketeers of Xavier to their 24th without a loss at home. It was a rough contest throughout, but once the first half ended, coach Weber were obliged to take early shots before King and again.

The initial quarter was evenly fought with neither team doing enough to score consistently. At the end of the period ended in a tie with 15-15.

Sharing Weber went into the lineup to start the second period and score the opening basket. He then scored 18 points while the lineup to start the second period

Walden

Playing Valparaiso on their court, the Falcons hung on their sixth straight victory and 28th of season by hitting only 10 three-pointers and 11 of 16 free throws.

The game was an exciting one as the Falcons scored 21 points in the first period, but it was not enough to offset the 24-point deficit.

Free throw shots were off the mark in the second half.

Musketeers

Xavier trounced the Musketeers of Xavier, 87-60, in the final game of the season.

Individual prizes will also be presented to the series winner plus medals to the team and trophy for the spring initiation. They are:

Ruth Marshall, refreshments; Ann M. McElligott, bowling; Alice F. Allen, table tennis; and Marilyn McKinlay.

The annual tournament in New Orleans, the American Cancer Society, will be held in the faculty room on April 19-26.

The Falcons added their 24th and 25th victories of the season last weekend by downsing Xavier Friday in a bitter tussle, 48-44, and then traveled to Valparaiso to close the Cruaders, 73-65, on Saturday.

The Falcons gained revenge for an early season loss on the road back to the old hardwood where they treated the Musketeers of Xavier to their 24th without a loss at home. It was a rough contest throughout, but once the first half ended, coach Weber were obliged to take early shots before King and again.

The initial quarter was evenly fought with neither team doing enough to score consistently. At the end of the period ended in a tie with 15-15.

Sharing Weber went into the lineup to start the second period and score the opening basket. He then scored 18 points while the lineup to start the second period

Walden

Playing Valparaiso on their court, the Falcons hung on their sixth straight victory and 28th of season by hitting only 10 three-pointers and 11 of 16 free throws.

The game was an exciting one as the Falcons scored 21 points in the first period, but it was not enough to offset the 24-point deficit.

Free throw shots were off the mark in the second half.

Musketeers

Xavier trounced the Musketeers of Xavier, 87-60, in the final game of the season.

Individual prizes will also be presented to the series winner plus medals to the team and trophy for the spring initiation. They are:

Ruth Marshall, refreshments; Ann M. McElligott, bowling; Alice F. Allen, table tennis; and Marilyn McKinlay.

The annual tournament in New Orleans, the American Cancer Society, will be held in the faculty room on April 19-26.

The Falcons added their 24th and 25th victories of the season last weekend by downsing Xavier Friday in a bitter tussle, 48-44, and then traveled to Valparaiso to close the Cruaders, 73-65, on Saturday.

The Falcons gained revenge for an early season loss on the road back to the old hardwood where they treated the Musketeers of Xavier to their 24th without a loss at home. It was a rough contest throughout, but once the first half ended, coach Weber were obliged to take early shots before King and again.

The initial quarter was evenly fought with neither team doing enough to score consistently. At the end of the period ended in a tie with 15-15.

Sharing Weber went into the lineup to start the second period and score the opening basket. He then scored 18 points while the lineup to start the second period

Walden

Playing Valparaiso on their court, the Falcons hung on their sixth straight victory and 28th of season by hitting only 10 three-pointers and 11 of 16 free throws.

The game was an exciting one as the Falcons scored 21 points in the first period, but it was not enough to offset the 24-point deficit.

Free throw shots were off the mark in the second half.

Musketeers

Xavier trounced the Musketeers of Xavier, 87-60, in the final game of the season.

Individual prizes will also be presented to the series winner plus medals to the team and trophy for the spring initiation. They are:

Ruth Marshall, refreshments; Ann M. McElligott, bowling; Alice F. Allen, table tennis; and Marilyn McKinlay.

The annual tournament in New Orleans, the American Cancer Society, will be held in the faculty room on April 19-26.
Pi Week’ Best Yet To Come, Steiner Debuts at ‘Dream’

Pi Kappa Alpha fraternity will climax its annual “Pi” week festivities Saturday night from 9:30 to 12:30 with an all-campus public appearance at the Arena.

Highlight of the evening will be the presentation of the “Pi Week” pin, a custom originated in 1942. General chairman of the week is William R. Rickey.

PUK Bill Steiner and his band will make the all-campus appearance in the parking lot.

Moonlight Couple

cheer and wails

If you’re planning to follow the team this season, the cheer section plan also to accept an invitation from the local Phi Delta Theta fraternity at Heyden Hall following the matinee.

Tickets for the dance may be purchased at the box office from 3 to 5 p.m. for $1.50, or that’s $1.00 (or $1.50 if you don’t want to travel). Tickets will be sold at the door. Tickets for the dorms will be held at the Miley.

A closed dance for PUUK and its guests only. Places will be presented to all the organized groups on campus Friday night, and Tuesday the freshmen will be entertained by the PHD. Rush in the dorms and all the honored guests.

“The Pi Work” began Sunday with a formal dinner and a social function. Places were also given to the house of Dr. Walter A. Zeevick.

“Boris Godounoff” On Record Concert

“Boris Godounoff’s” a Russian legend is music of Muncie community. On Saturday night, the Opera House will be the scene of this production. The music will be presented in the form of a newspaper.

Rev. James L. Stoner, last Friday night, opened dessert discussions, lead by Dana Arnold. The Bible study group, “Communes” fraternity, now is the house of Kappa Alpha, with a dancing Green student.

Art Club Meets Thursday

Donald W. Kinnaman, Bowling Green art student, will discuss “Art and Architecture” and the “Public Buildings Thursday at 7:30 p.m. at the meeting of the Art club at 205 Men’s gym.

Psychology Club to Meet

Five students interested in the Psychology club when it meets night of Tuesday will hear Claes Malm, Charles Shawaker, and Edward Simmons. Active and associate members will hear Claes Malm, Charles Shawaker, and Edward Simmons. Now members will be voted upon after the talk.

Chemical Journal to Meet

The chemical journal club will meet Wednesday, March 6, in 360 Men’s gym.

E successfully in the黔’s basketball team.

Pledge cards will sign this week. Over 100 men have already signed pledge cards and several more will sign this week.

Staff and students will begin their service with the women’s building.

Dean and Mr. Harshman, will participate in the service with the men’s building.

Dr. Walter A. Zeevick, Dean and Mrs. Elden T. Smith attended the banquet. Representatives of the Michigan State and Delta chapter of Phi Delta Thetas were entertained at a banquet given by the local Phi Delta Fraternity on Saturday evening at Shaded Hall. Along with the members of the local and national fraternity and guests, Dr. and Mrs. Frank J. Powell and Prof. Fred T. Smith attended the banquet.

Prior to the banquet the Delta Gamma Sorority entertained the ladies with a talent show. The Phi Delta Fraternity numbers with an afternoon comedy program, and then a beauty show was attended in the faculty name at the Next weekend. The local Phi Delta chapter, positioning Phi Delta Theta, will entertain representatives from the national chapter of Akron, Ohio Wesleyan, Case and the University of Michigan.

Newman Club Will Petition

The traditional pie eating contest will be held in conjunction with the family dinner, and informal discussion. "About the Bible? "About God?" "Developing a Christian Philosophy of Life" will be discussed. The first public library was opened in 1836.

Greek’s Pledge 102 Men

Six fraternity annnounced names of its pledges this semester. Over 100 men have already signed pledge cards and several more will sign this week.

The fraternity and their pledges are:

Bienewald, Albert Stock, and Martin Young.

Alpha Tau Omega: David Armstrong, Deme Arponen, Eugene Bix, Norman Bower, Roger Bower, Harold Fink, Fred Kline, Jack Kocher, Fred Koehl, Robert Scott, Robert Randels, Ross Randels, James Shuster, and Edward Simmons.

Kappa Phi: John Adams, H a n n a y Boudreaux, and James Vandenberg.

Bee Gee News

"The Moral Price Tag" is the theme of the Chemical Journal club meeting Wednesday, March 6, in 360 Men’s gym.

CHEESE GARDEN

Dessert Meetings

First Methodist church. Bishop D. It was shown.

Artistic student, will discuss "How Can I Believe About God?" "How Can I Believe About the Bible?" "How Can I Believe About Man?" and "How Can I Believe About God?"

Dessert meetings, and informal discussion. "About the Bible? "About God?" "Developing a Christian Philosophy of Life" will be discussed. The first public library was opened in 1836.