Vets Group Dissolved

By Lack of Interest

The Vets Group, which was organized in Bowling Green in the fall of 1945, has come to an end. The group, which was organized by veterans living in the area, was to be sponsored by the university and was supposed to hold meetings on a regular basis. However, because of the lack of interest, the group has been disbanded.

Veterans who are interested in continuing the group's activities should contact the university's Veterans' Office for more information.

Coeds Vote Lange as Speaker of the House

Betty Lange has been selected as the speaker of the House for the current session of the Student Senate. Lange is a sophomore business administration major and was chosen by a majority vote of the student body.

Lange is a member of the Student Senate and has been active in various campus organizations. She is hoping to use her position as speaker to promote student involvement in campus affairs.

College of Marin librarians, who are assisted by 44 student workers, have developed a number of interesting programs for the students. One program is the Sunday evening "What's the News?" program, which features a discussion of current events. Another program is the "Music at the Library" series, which features live musical performances by local musicians. The library also sponsors a number of book clubs, including a mystery book club and a poetry club. These programs provide opportunities for students to engage with the material and with each other, fostering a sense of community and intellectual curiosity. In addition, the library is committed to providing equitable and inclusive spaces for all students, regardless of background or identity. The library's collections and services are designed to support the diverse needs of the college community, and staff members are trained to create a welcoming and supportive environment for all patrons.
Three Bellies Cop IM Cage Crown

Siegfried's employees added their second straight fraternity championship to their laurels Monday when they surprised the previously unbeaten Kappa Tau team, 30-24. They had to overcome the presence of three outstanding bowlers in the Kappa Tau lineup to win the title.

Mark Walker, Falcon pitcher, placed the Three Bellies to the championship in the Interfraternity league i.e., through hitting two victories over Siegried ATO. Chi Sigma split two games, losing to Kappa Sigma Delta, 25-24, as Berry Barker went on a ten-game winning streak after 21 points, then coming back to score six against the SAE's 31-30.

Final standings: “A” league

Siegmen Alpha Epsilon
Columbia Sigma Nu
Alpha Phi Omeg

SAE Increases Lead in Bowling League

Sigma Alpha Epsilon bowlers added to their lead in the Interfraternity league in a close one, 7-3, over Theta Chi. The members of the SAE five-man team are Tom Turner and George Bohanna.

Coach Stellar is also having very few complaints about the batting of his team, which has signified the excellence of his pitching. Turned and Kuhlman can be switched to shortstop respectively won't be known as an emergency.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Starkey, residents of Orchard Circle, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Smith, 2535 North Main Street, during the month.
