Weeks's event honors playwright Bertolt Brecht

A lifelong sympathy is among events planned this week to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the death of Bertolt Brecht and director Ernst Busch.

The event is part of several celebrations being held throughout the nation in honor of Brecht, whose influence on theater extends far beyond his native Germany.

Brecht was born in Augsburg in 1898. He was a leading figure of the German National Theater and a co-founder of the Berliner Ensemble. Brecht's plays, including "The Caucasian Chalk Circle" and "The Threepenny Opera," have been translated into many languages and performed worldwide.

The symposium begins at 10 a.m. today at the University Club in honor of Brecht's 1898. He will be remembered for his contributions to the theater and his influence on many generations of theater artists.

College selects 'Alum of the Year'

A former dean has been named "Alum of the Year" and an area judge will be selected in the "Alum of the Year" contest.

The contest will be held on Monday, March 21, in the University Club. The winner will be announced at the annual dinner on March 22.

The contest is open to all University alumni and alumnae who have made outstanding contributions to the University and its programs.
