Chi Omega Accepts Tri-Lam's Petition

The Chi Omega national sorority has accepted a Lambda Chi Omega's petition for the establishment of a chapter at the University of Arkansas, Fayetteville. Chi Omega, a national sorority, has been active at the University of Arkansas since its founding in 1926.

The petition was submitted by a group of five students, including Janet Sautter, Irene Gons, Joan Black, Muriel Band, and Dorothy Auyusten. The petition includes a list of signatures from members of the Chi Omega sorority who support the establishment of a new chapter.

The petition also includes a statement on the purpose of the new chapter, which is to serve as a social and educational organization for female students at the University of Arkansas. The petition highlights the benefits of membership in Chi Omega, including the support of a national organization and the opportunities for personal and professional development.

The petition is in line with the national policies of Chi Omega, which emphasizes the importance of diversity and inclusion in its chapters. The national sorority has a commitment to promoting a positive and inclusive environment for all members.

The petition includes a statement on the significance of the new chapter to the local community, emphasizing the positive impact that Chi Omega will have on the University of Arkansas and the surrounding area.

The petition concludes with an expression of gratitude to the Lambda Chi Omega fraternity for their support and encouragement during the petition process. The Chi Omega sorority is looking forward to working with the local community and establishing a strong chapter at the University of Arkansas.
There are already been plans laid and put into effect by Mr. L. William Miller, president of the Alumni Bureau, to keep in step with the growing group of alumni scattered throughout the nation. But there has never been a strong alumni either in total numbers or financially for our graduates have been for the most part, two-year men. Many of the first students unenrolled from this school are now breaking into the ranks of distinguished professionals, and we are proud of our alumni.

But since the expansion of the curriculum into the fields of liberal arts, business administration and music, the number of personnel has jumped into the hundreds. To keep in step, the Alumni Bureau initiated an annual fund in July of the present year in the form of a new comic strip called "Ezry, the Tiger." Bowing Green Edge Central Michigan 20-19

By John Schwalb

Continuing to dominate on the offensive margin, a policy which includes plenty of variety but little chance of failure, the Bowling Green football team today owned a 560-point edge on the gridiron by way of a 20-19 triumph over Central Michigan last Saturday at University Stadium. The Falcons lost the first game of the season at Xavier by a two-point margin when a fumbled punt just out of the end zone for an Xavier score.

The visitors scored early in the first quarter when the Falcon's safety man Moe Angusting at 7:00 p.m. in room 102 in the basement of the gym.

The offense was led by quarterback Earl Walker with back halfback Max Minnich's perfection of CM's Tony Pabilis, one of the nation's standout backs, for the starting guard and tackle positions. Walker to halfback Jack Freitas back Jack Woodland which he tempted to pick up a slithering short bullet pass to halfback Max Minnich at 6-10, 185 pounds, and the half ended 13-13.

With a good head of steam up front, the Falcons rolled down the field and the half ended 13-13.
