SCF Sponsors Annual Christmas Spirit Contest

Plans for the third annual Christmas Spirit Contest sponsored by the SCF have been announced early this week. All fraternity, sorority and dormitories have been invited to participate.

The procedure is as follows: each house will decorate the outside of some original Christmas theme. Entries must be completed by Dec. 15, when judging will commence.

The prize is a loving cup presented by the sponsors of the contest, SCF's Campus Action Interest Group with Ralph Scott, chairman. No limit has been set on the amount spent on the decorations, but the houses will be judged on the basis of originality, expression of the Christmas spirit, the carrying out of the theme and artistic beauty.

In previous years the cup has been held by Alpha Chi Omega and Psi Kappa Alpha. Each year the winner keeps it until the following contest.

The judges include: Mrs. Frank J. Fowles, a store decorator from Lasalle and Keth; and an as-yet unidentified, Art Instructor. A complete list will be announced later.

Tickets for the twin cage bill will be sold at the door. Poly Palace, Falcons meet Detroit Tech and Michigan State Tuesday and Friday, Monday.

Kohl Night Life Good As Movies

By J. L. McCauley

"Two of the last few minutes be-fore you join us in the center of Kohl-hall—what a mad house. But if I weren't meant to be here, thought I would be glad to be able to hear the affairs of Kohl Hall just before the show begins. Yes, right before the lights went out. For the benefit of those who may never have been, this hall is the Center for the campus. Now I say this briefly. The hall is finally going to be cleaned. It was cleaned by two girls, one at the end of the hall and the other at the front of the house. The job was done some time around 10:15. of course, this is the last time there may be any sort of attention given to the hats in that room. Or, well according to the latest reports, it may be open to the public in the near future. Anyway, this is good news.

Someone has given you an opportunity to be service of the stage, the student body, and our man who represent a, or perhaps I should say we. Don't bask and enjoy, but let us do it from the right perspective. Anyone who can write a story—you do it! More the better! Are you ready? Don't wait till tomorrow. Do it today!

Mexican Student Teaches Dancing

To suddenly find ourselves as the center of interest and how practically on speaking knowledge of our language is exactly what happened in Anna Lucia Krimpez of Mexico when she began school here last fall. The class was a physical education course conducted by this foreigner, the petite dark hair, P.E. major, said she made the students and they caught on very quickly.

This problem comes in the U.S. in Mexico City, a co-worker who is a Miss of Gradient Eppler, director of the physical education department, told her about the Krimpez. As a result, correspondence, Anna Lucia is attending school on a University basis this quarter.

For instance, if it's transportation your looking for, I know of one person who has his Master Divers Patch. (Two more out of the three in the group make the decision.)

A more important statement was from a Miss Ponce de Leon.

I hear you can use the $400 as a collateral on a $100 G.I. loan, but the actual payment will be made. You may have already come across many such offers. The value of the dollar somewhere in the vicinity of $.50 to $.60. You aren't getting nearly as much as you think for any one person Is $400.

You might invest in a business. Maybe a pop corn stand or a place to simply sell tomatoes. This is an editorial directed to you veterans at Bowling Green State University.

Many of you are feverishly awaiting the glorious day when you will have to write a song—you do it! More the better! Are you ready? Don't wait till tomorrow. Do it today!

The Cycle of Jobs

Now that I am old enough to vote, I realize that the cycle of jobs is terrible. I want to become a teacher, but I don't want to be a teacher. I want to be a lawyer, but I don't want to be a lawyer. I want to be a doctor, but I don't want to be a doctor.

This is the only way to enjoy college is to get away from the dormitory life. The Dormitory life is the worst thing that can happen to a person. It is the only way to enjoy college is to get away from the dormitory life.

Big plans are being made for a concentrated program of pep rallies for the basketball season. In fact, a rally before each game that they have at home and we secured the kids this week on how they liked the idea.

"It's a good idea," was the general old answer from the 1948 Believe Sophomore, "and it's something the other schools have tried before. If you want to do your part, you stay behind the ball and don't let any other school rally better than you." Yes, but that's a different group of people who were facing their orange and black rally and not thevided Esty. Also, it was surprising to me that the majority of the Sociology Department agreed on this idea. With only a few exceptions who would stand on the sidelines and almost make a game out of it, the others agreed that a pep rally would be a good way to make people feel better about their team.

Knoch on Any Door

by A. L. McClane

"Knoch On Any Door" by William Molyer is the story of a present day Huckleberry Finn who grew up to die in the electric chair.

Nick Romanoff had the same characteristics of Mark Twain's legendary figure, he was imaginative and a dreamer, but for him there were no boats on the Mississippi, no undertakers standing by to lend a helping hand. His whole world was the state of Ohio, where he was born and raised.

At first Nick's antics were no more than that of a typical Ohio teenager. His life was full of adventure and excitement for him. Then he grew older and became the first of his kind for it was his nature to lead a life of danger and excitement.

When Emma came along, Nick's life changed. He was "going straight," but Madison Avenue had conditioned his character and he was too young to give it up. The situation was desperate when Emma committed suicide, Nick became a common type on the scenes.

The life, the insane couple, stories had Nick and he would have, but Nick hasn't learned…"

MINNIEL ROMAN GET HONORABLE MENTION

In addition to the three teams, the sportswriters, sportscasters and coaches who make the selections give honorable mention to backs Max Minnich and Tom Inman.

Since players are chosen on the basis of their performances against Ohio opponents exclusively, the fine play of Jack Wood- land in the final three games against out-of-state foes and Bruce Bellard's sensational line play against William and Mary were not taken into consideration when the squad was named. Had it been, both Jack and Bruce would, in all probability, have been named in the first cassette.

FUTURE SEEDS MAY INCLUDE MORE "BIG NAME" FOES

Fine showings of the Falcons against Iowa State Teachers and William and Mary, several of the leaders in their respective conferences, has created the belief on campus and among the players themselves that future schedules should include stronger and better-known conferences.

Although WSM outscored the Falcons 25-0, it must be remembered that the Indians have been defeated Southern Conference foes consistently by more than double that amount, and that the Owls and Browns went into the Williamsburg clash minus several of their first-string players. The Owls are predicted to lose to the Falcons, but it is possible that the line-up come up against the Indiana entities that the Falcons meet to more Southern Conference and better-known conference foes.

Coaches Anderson and Whittaker have both expressed the feeling that they would rather be defeated by a strong team than to win an unevenly-matched game.

Bob Patrick, star Bowling Green area cross country runner, who also led the Falcon harriers this season.

Bee Gee harriers completed the season by finishing 17th in the National Collegiate Meet at Michigan State. The race was run with five inches of snow on the ground which naturally slowed the runners considerably.

Falcons Open Season With Double Victory

by Red Leoni

Bowling Green's basketball Falcons served notice on their tournament possibilities Monday night as they faced Defiance 73-25 and Tiffin 84-17 in the opening games of the season.

A near capacity crowd jammed Men's Gym to see four different combinations of men used in each contest. Sixteen men hit the floor against Defiance and 15 faced Tiffin, with the bulk of the players sides, forcing them back into a lay-up shot. Many displays of typical man-to-man.

Joe Payak and Leo Kubiak each made 10 tallies to win honors in the Tiffin game. In the Defiance contest, John l'ayak, and Captain Bob Miller had the sensational passing game of greatness
