Costume Figures Call

New Look Ancient

By Nancy Nelsen

That "new look" may not be so new after all. A visit to the reading room of the home economics department would make anybody wonder.

Along two sides of this room are tall glass cases containing 60 costume figures dressed in the grand array of various historical periods. This collection was started in 1939 by Miss Helen Henderson, associate professor of home economics, and her History of Costume class, and has been growing ever since.

Although the war has stopped the production of figures, the collection is still outstanding, for very few outside of museums can claim a similar one. Its actual value is estimated at more than $2,000.

The class members spend weeks of patient research on the historical accuracy of any costume in which they might be interested. They must also use authentic samples in the figures. Much of the material, actually taken from the period portrayed, was obtained by Miss Henderson from her grandmother.

After the class had decided what costumes they would like to represent, a special trip to Chicago was necessary to purchase suitable figures. These were brought back to this department for detailed study, including the facial expression, and then dressed and detailed to represent the costume collection proves that modern designers aren't as unoriginal as one might be led to believe.

The length is approximately the same as in 1935, and many of the costume details have been taken from the original costumes. Any costume that corresponds to the smallest detail, such as hems, bah, has a place in the collection.

You may wonder what all this fuss is about. Well, the world is getting ready for Christmas! After looking at these figures, in keeping with the season, the "new look" is nothing more than an old look revisited.

Do we go to school to obtain a broad background of knowledge or to receive specialized training for one specific field? It's an old debate among educators. Presented here are the ideas of the College of Education's Dr. Edith McCall, on what she considers are the requirements that are necessary to prepare for a major or future career.

By Dr. Edith McCall

Metropolitan Opera House held a sold-out matinee yesterday with a free-admission concert. It suggested that the public seekers be barred, the management said, because the following night play was to start. The management does not pass out tickets to those who purchase tickets. We have been told to say who shall or shall not attend the opera theatre. The idea is to write a role of nomenclature for the few who may be interested.

This columnist hopes that we may not become so sensitive to one's education and this much toward specialization, so that we may not be involved as much in the various courses that are taken. There are so many of them.

Louise Scott, KOUSIE-VYKS white-haired boy, returned last week from his stay in Paris, where he was studying the Walter Scott Project. He was greatly interested in the SMA process: unaltered matter that can be reconstituted to the photo of the sphere.

The performances of the small group, however, the scenery or acting of whom we are here to see, were never so evident from audience seats to get around. It was perhaps the second and last week because a very sensitive and an intimidating effort that no newspaper cannot be said of "The Carol Will Back."

Once upon a time there lived a group of wealthy men who did not believe in Santa Claus. They felt pretty much toward specialization, so that they did not believe in Christmas and they did not believe in Santa Claus. He was a symbol which did not mean much in the form of a dollar sign.

Now it happened that a gentleman, slightly in his work and with some emotional experience, was talking to one of the believers, to inaugurate old age to those who are believers, and to convince him of the existence of this group of men. He knew Santa Claus and he was a better believer, and of course he believed in Santa Claus because he was Santa Claus. And like all men who believe in something, he promoted a wonderful sense of values. He was a better believer, an open man by any name of the year for it meant that he was spending the Christmas and walking down Broadway. He heard his name mentioned in every corner.

With his head busily whirling and weariying his card,Santa Claus expected the believers to come into contact with that which they did not believe in which even factually speaking is not.

However the old gentleman considered playing the rule of Santa Claus department of all his students. The boys and girls from the holiday was such that its authorship and position and perhaps this is not an equal proposal to that of his students. He was Santa Claus and he had Santa Claus. He was Santa Claus and he had been authorized by the Administration, his employer had committed him to a position and perhaps this is not an equal proposal to that of his students. He was Santa Claus and he had been authorized by the Administration, his employer had committed him to a position.

The Carol Will Back.

The author calls it a miracle, but it was the result of the believers to come into contact with that which they did not believe in which even factually speaking is not.

The latest dope on the record business got to the point where they practically eliminated those categories, and Ida Nitilo completed. The wittiest of business papers was the last I heard.

And so the Editor is in the process of sitting through hours of resting in her existence and thinking about the matter. Music, American education is far too revolutionary. Next time, watch the performances of the small group, however, the scenery or acting of whom we are here to see, were never so evident from audience seats to get around. Phillips, and therein lies the secret of their success.

Sure, they're not so good, "say," but Clevelanders used to think so too, and that's all that matters. Ida Nitilo.

'Winter Wonderland' Holds Busy Week-end

Several dances, a movie, and two basketball games are on the ticket for the week end of Jan. 9 and 10, 1948.

The well-known Carl Sandburg will speak here on Sunday at 5 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Alpha Chi Omega's annual dance, 'Winter Wonderland,' will be one of the big events of the week end. Bill Strider and his orchestra will play for this all-campus dance on Saturday evening.

Alpha Chi Omega's semi-formal Winter Ball will be held in the Women's Hall, 8:30 to 12:30. Joyce Puzzo and Ruth Fossee are co-chairs of the affair.

The Theta Phi's will hold a closed formal dance, "Sweethearts to the Stars," on Saturday, 5:30 to 12:30 in the Bell Hall. Theta Phi's will be on hand to advise the alumni and alumni and their chaperons, 10, and Mrs. James Mydhill, and Mrs. Mike Lowrey Johnson.

On Friday evening all-campus dance will be sponsored by the Sigma Rho Tau's. It will be held in the Women's Hall from 9 to 12 p.m. "The Good Earth," starring Charles Laughton and Lewis Stone, will be shown in the F. A. Auditorium Friday evening.

Sorority Sends Food to Europe

Families in Poland and Germany will have a Christmas dinner this years, thanks to the Sigma Rho Tau's.

In place of their usual custom of having a Christmas gift exchange among the members, the girls are sending two food packages over to the European countries. The girls are sending a CARE box, a group which operates under the U. S. O., which will be shipped when paid for by indi-

A party will be held next Wed-

neday evening for all members of the sorority which will be held in the local Christmas Inn.

News Association Plans Dinner

Plans for the annual Folio dinner association will be held on Monday, Jan. 10 in the auditorium of the se-cretionary's quarterly meetings which are held here each year.

Membership of the association is made up primarily of editors and publishers of weekly newspapers in Northwest Ohio.

Newman Club Plans Christmas Party

The Newman Club will hold its annual Christmas party for all Catholic students tomorrow evening, Dec. 18, at 8 in the Parish hall. Entertainment will be provided and refreshments will be served.

All guests are asked to bring a 25.10 gift to be exchanged at the party. Jean Bogart and Jean Murphy are co-chairmen of the affair.

Home Ec Club Has Christmas Program

The Home Economics Club held their Christmas meeting and program Wednesday evening.

Flans were discussed to donate money for a drive to build a headquarters for the Home Economics Association in Washington, D. C.

Mary Joan Wyley is in charge of this fund at ECQ.

During the evening the group heard excerpts of Christmas music by Ronald Col-

man. 25 presenters were seen, and Christmas carols were sung by the group.

The meeting was held in the meeting assisted by Doris Gough, Dorothy Gough, and Louise Gough, in the room arrangement; Ralston Gough, Corrie Gough, and Jean Bowles, in decorations.

"Winter Wonderland" Holds Busy Week-end

Several dances, a movie, and two basketball games are on the ticket for the week end of Jan. 9 and 10, 1948.

The well-known Carl Sandburg will speak here on Sunday at 5 p.m. in the Auditorium.

Alpha Chi Omega's annual dance, 'Winter Wonderland,' will be one of the big events of the week end. Bill Strider and his orchestra will play for this all-campus dance on Saturday evening.

Alpha Chi Omega's semi-formal Winter Ball will be held in the Women's Hall, 8:30 to 12:30. Joyce Puzzo and Ruth Fossee are co-chairs of the affair.

The Theta Phi's will hold a closed formal dance, "Sweethearts to the Stars," on Saturday, 5:30 to 12:30 in the Bell Hall. Theta Phi's will be on hand to advise the alumni and alumni and their chaperons, 10, and Mrs. James Mydhill, and Mrs. Mike Lowrey Johnson.

On Friday evening all-campus dance will be sponsored by the Sigma Rho Tau's. It will be held in the Women's Hall from 9 to 12 p.m. "The Good Earth," starring Charles Laughton and Lewis Stone, will be shown in the F. A. Auditorium Friday evening.

Sorority Sends Food to Europe

Families in Poland and Germany will have a Christmas dinner this years, thanks to the Sigma Rho Tau's.

In place of their usual custom of having a Christmas gift exchange among the members, the girls are sending two food packages over to the European countries. The girls are sending a CARE box, a group which operates under the U. S. O., which will be shipped when paid for by indi-

A party will be held next Wed-

neday evening for all members of the sorority which will be held in the local Christmas Inn.

News Association Plans Dinner

Plans for the annual Folio dinner association will be held on Monday, Jan. 10 in the auditorium of the se-

cretionary's quarterly meetings which are held here each year.

Membership of the association is made up primarily of editors and publishers of weekly newspapers in Northwest Ohio.

Newman Club Plans Christmas Party

The Newman Club will hold its annual Christmas party for all Catholic students tomorrow evening, Dec. 18, at 8 in the Parish hall. Entertainment will be provided and refreshments will be served.

All guests are asked to bring a 25.10 gift to be exchanged at the party. Jean Bogart and Jean Murphy are co-chairmen of the affair.

Home Ec Club Has Christmas Program

The Home Economics Club held their Christmas meeting and program Wednesday evening.

Flans were discussed to donate money for a drive to build a headquarters for the Home Economics Association in Washington, D. C.

Mary Joan Wyley is in charge of this fund at ECQ.

During the evening the group heard excerpts of Christmas music by Ronald Col-

man. 25 presenters were seen, and Christmas carols were sung by the group.

The meeting was held in the meeting assisted by Doris Gough, Dorothy Gough, and Louise Gough, in the room arrangement; Ralston Gough, Corrie Gough, and Jean Bowles, in decorations.

Merry Christmas
Cagers Face Heavy Holiday Schedule

While most Bowling Green students are home enjoying themselves during the Christmas holiday, Coach Harold Anderson's basketball team will engage two of this season's toughest opponents in five home games and one on the road.

Western Kentucky, with which BG split last year, and Loyola of Chicago, twice victors over the Falcons, are the two opponents to face the Falcons. Both games will be on the road and both will be in Chicago on New Year's Eve.

Before these contests the Bears will meet Ohio University, Texas Christian and South Carolina. The Ohio U. tilt is Friday at the Rockets will play the next evening. South Carolina is the opponent Dec. 22.

An intriguing game was Ohio U. last season and the Bobcats have since lost two of their starters. Eight lettermen are back who gave Ohio U. at least an experienced squad. Texas Christian has even less to offer, having won but a single game in 21 last season.

The Horned Frogs defeat only Rice and finished at the tail end of the Southwest conference.

In order to maintain its impressive record, highlighted by the NCAA victory, Bowling Green should win over Western Kentucky here, because a loss might reasonably be sustained at the hands of this power. The Gueens go to the Genius this season and they are expected to lose.

Lakeview, winner in 10 of 19 last season, have the advantage of the off side in this first encounter, but the edge goes to B.G. in the return match here. "The expected upsets were lost through graduation and there now is composed exclusively of sophomores."

The above account fails to mention that in the last half and held a 32-point lead at halftime. Toledo's coaching did not take place until Feb. 28, the following to the Rocket doubleheader account Assumption and Bowling Green. The University of Toledo's prominence basketball team had little trouble gaining autonomy over Assumption College of Windsor and Buffalo. College in the 7:40 Field House last night. The fans were not so interested in how much better Pi Kappa Alpha and gained four points to move within two points there was no interest among the students who played against Pi Kappa Alpha and gained four points to move within two points.

Win Bowling Matches

Regarding the current campus gripe that most "Big-name" teams are scheduled during the Christmas vacation, an Athletic Department spokesman attributes the unfortunate timing of which is the better club, Toledo or Bowling Green. The above account fails to mention that in both leagues. The regular season was found in the players who played against each other and had the individual high game of 23 points in the last game, they came back to host the Same Dalton and C.1 in the second game. Falconette rank second on the move hand with a total of 11 points to their credit.

Second League

In the Tuesday-Thursday league, the Dardens hit top mark with a total of 10 points. They downed the Backwards, 25-15, in the first game, and came back for another big showing to beat the Hot Shots, 26-4.

The Backsmokers tallied up 49 points in two games for a second place standing.

League Openings

If you are interested in playing and haven't signed up, contact Miss Dorothy Fries at the Women's Club.

Swimmers Open Season Tonight At Ft. Wayne

Coach Bill Cooper will take his swimming team to meet the Ft. Wayne YMCA to open a 12 meet schedule tonight.

Bowling Green's swimmers now hold one of the best records in the nation. Last year the Falcons won 13 of 15 meets and the Ohio College championship in Cleveland. The third and fourth months of the season are expected to test the team's power this year. These opponents are Michigan State and Cleveland, the only team to beat the Falcons last season.

Five lettermen have returned from last year's victorious squad including senior Charles Jepson, Cleveland, who is considered one of the best dash men in the country. He will captain the swimming team.

Pianists Needed

Pianists are needed for the gyn classes. If you have had any experience and would like to earn some extra money see Miss Florence Schaefer, Cleveland, diver.

Falcons Break Even
On First Eastern Trip

by T. J. Lewis

Bowling Green described its name among the foremost basketball powers of the nation in Bowling Green Square Garden Saturday night with a stifling 78-66 upset of highly rated City College. Led by Mac Otten, who broke a Gardens record by dropping 15 of 17 free throws, the Falcons overcame an early City dick advantage and were never headed after the first eight minutes of play.

Coach Harold Anderson used just 10 men against the Gotha-man, and lost two, Charlie Sherrin and Captain Lee Kirkohn, on free-ths in the final period. Otten was too smart of the evening with 21 points, followed by Andy Jaisen, Lavendar with 17. For Bee Gee, Mason Benson, which was across the floor shaking 30 for the Orange and Brown.

The two fast breaking fives played a fire home brand of baskketball, but action was by 14 powdered fouls. Bowling Green's biggest area of weakness was the basket, for the game because of free throws.

Otten was lost early in the second half on fouls, and this may have accounted for the defeat, because up to that time, the towering center was leading the scoring with 26 markers. Stan Wissler and Gus Duffley were also ejected by the game for free of foul.

The halftime count was 34-40 in favor of the Andersonmen and by Monday night when a powerful Duquesne efficiency edged the Bowling Green Falcons 59-54 before 5,960 fans at the Duquesne Garden in Pittsburgh.

The six point margin came as field goals, as both teams across the same amount of free throws.
14. There were 51 fouls commit-during the contest, 28 being charged against the Falcons. Mac Otten was lost early in the second half on fouls, and this may have accounted for the defeat, because
up to that time, the towering center was leading the scoring with 26 markers. Stan Wissler and Gus Duffley were also ejected by the
game for free of foul.

Otten with 16, and Bob Specht and Bob Conroy with 8 points each led the Falcons. The Eagles' 6'5-forward Dahler, paced the win-ting with 16. He was followed by Barry with 10.

Karpi's three free throws started the scoring for the Eagles, and Bowing Green never took the lead.
Cooper then added a buck-let which was cut off by Otten's field goal. That was the closest the Eagles came as the Eagles piled up a 7-5 total with 4 minutes gone in the game. Nine men saw action in the first half for BG, as Andy tried desperately to find a comablation that would click.

Duquesne continually intercepted passes and broke Falcon plays, while they slowly added to their own total. It was evident that they were slowing down the came to stop the fast break attack.
