needed: a field house...

John Fay

Two things which Bowing Green needs rather desperately are a men's dormitory and a field house with a capacity of at least 10,000. It is the latter about which most interest centers these days.

Probably the most spectacular sport of the day, so far as the sport-minded public is concerned, is basketball. As factual and thrilling an experience as has ever been surrendered to the sight of a world, it is no surprise to see it become America's number one sporting event at the office.

Since its origin the sport of basketball has been rapidly increasing in popularity, so that now there are very few scholastic institutions which can adequately handle the crowd that wants to watch the game.

When most of the gymnasia now in existence were built, basketball was in its infancy and not very important. But a few decades changed all that. Today, basketball is played far beyond the local limits. In fact it is so popular that even small college towns can now support a field house.

The tough part about the whole situation is that the inability to house the crowd destroys the excitability of the game. For instance the men from Detroit and Toledo who are definitely international.

The second reason that we should cater to our basketball needs is that the game has done much to publicize the game if there was that much seating capacity available.

Of course we should aim at building a field house as soon as possible. If we are to be consistent with our educational desires, the new building should be built as soon as possible.

New York City than any other city in the United States. How could it be any other way when you consider that there was a net loss of approximately $200 when the final totals were tallied.

The second reason that we should cater to our basketball needs is that the game has done much to publicize the game if there was that much seating capacity available.

FALCON HOME COURT WIN STREAK GOES TO 46 GAMES

When the Falcons toppled Loyola Saturday night overcoming their New Year’s Eve loss to the sharply-shooting Chippewas, they increased their home court winning streak to 46 consecutive games without a setback. According to the record books, the last time the Bee Gees were defeated here at Bowling Green was in January, 1946, when a powerful Great Lakes squad eked out a 53-50 decision over Orange and Brown. Leading the victorious invaders that memorable night was big Mel Bres, later of the Cleveland Rebels, who tallied 21 points but was outscored by Duane Smith who rang up 25 markers in the losing cause. The starting lineup against the Bluestreaks that night comprised of Sid, Gene Dudley, Leo Kubiak, Tom Inman, and Jim Keim.

ORANGE AND BROWN MOVING UP IN NATIONAL CAGE RATINGS

BG’s high-flying Falcons have moved up four places in the national basketball picture, according to the latest Dunkie ratings and are now in ninth place as compared to the number one team position they held last week. In the sectional ratings, the Falcons’ 72-64 final leaves them down fourth place in the Midwest division while Toledo, 67.3 is in the fifth spot. As of this week, Andy’s ratings are rated higher than any of the five top future opponents on the schedule, the next highest being Western Kentucky with 71.7. Saturday’s foe, Murray, however, is at 80.8 rating while the Eastern leaders, Boston College, Cornell University and Syracuse are rated at 93.2 and 93.3 respectively.

Falcons Cagers Defeat Xavier and Loyola

XAVIER

With fast and rough play demorating the game, BG's Falcons downed Xavier University, 20 to 0, before an overflow crowd in the gym last Friday night.

Stan Weber poured in nine field goals and added a free throw in the last seconds of the game, but the alert Falcon defense did not permit the Musketeers to score with eight minutes remaining.

Coach Anderson started Charley Justice at center, "Red" Eppler and Stan Weber at the forwards, and John Payak and Leo Hildebrandt at the guards. The Musketeers comprised of Peculiar and Soud Hill, tried to show the BG fast break, but the alert Falcon defense stunted the ball time and again and at the end of 12 minutes of play, BG held a 14-2 advantage.

The Ottes, Greene Housing, Miller, and Dudley combo entered the game at this point. For eight minutes the game became quite rough and sippy. Ottes threw in a basket, and scored a free throw by X's Howie Schucllcr, Mac tipped in a 2-pointer to give the Falcons a 24-16 lead until Gene Dudley netted a set shot from the charity line, then Bobby Weber for another goal. Stunt Miller dropped in two free throws, before an overflow crowd in the Men's Gym.

Monday-Second League

The teams in the Monday-Second league are practically equal in standings. We find these teams in the lead with two wins and two losses. The Falcons are tied with Loyola, who defeated Xavier University, 84-36, with 13 minutes left to go before an overflow crowd in the Men's Gym.
