Carillon Bells Greet Returning Students

Carillon bell music welcomed students returning Sunday (Feb. 1) after the regrettable five-day vacation caused by failure of the University Heating Plant.

The bells being installed on the campus are about the size of telephone poles. The photographs, in color and volume like cast bells ringing in a cathedral.

A key in the bell is being played regularly about the bell, and will not be completed until next week.

A second set, Flemish bells, will begin playing in a few years.

The manufacturer, Schuelmerich Company, Inc., Sellersville, Pa., has been producing the English type bells for about seven years.

Key Pictures Will Be Sold

The set of 26-note English-type* pictures taken for the 1948 Key will be on sale in the Wells soon after the beginning of the second semester, according to Mr. Russell Ried, Key advisor.

Heat Resumed Last Monday

Normal heat was reported in all buildings Monday after a second bur-ner had been placed back in operation Friday.

Remotely examinations were re- ported Monday, the six-day im- mersed flight training vacation granted to students because one of the boilers stripped the walls of the cold weather.

Second semester classes will start Thursday instead of Wednesday, as originally planned.

Temperature remained normal during the six-day immersion of the four- week vacation, and few students return to the Universityös main dormitory buildings, according to Mr. Vanier, and several principal buildings.

Heat in men's dormitories is in- dependent of the Central Heating Plant.

Thanks, too, to the faculty and administration who

FALCONS IN FINAL MONTH OF PLAY
With the top of the season coming up, the Falcons have 12 games left, two that they will win heavily on whether or not they receive a Garden bid in March.

The three point defeat handed them by Marquette dropped the squad from the list of top ten teams in the nation. Some readers will come to this fact and consider the three-set-backs the squad has taken thus far, to get by such teams as Xavier and Western Kentucky. However, when considering the three-set-backs the squad has taken thus far, it would be more than unfair to say that the basic fact was not in playing the type of game that is expected of this team.

Besides the road five and Cornell crowds on the remainder of the schedule, the Falcons will be faced with some of the toughest competition of the year. Both Butler and Western Kentucky whom the coaches meet successively Feb. 3 and Feb. 5, all bring out one of the nati onal teams in the area.

As it is, the Falcons are down in the Midwest, as of the week's rating to nineteenth. That is just one factor. Considering the three-set-backs the squad has taken thus far, it would be more than unfair to say that the basic fact was not in playing the type of game that is expected of this team.

Each of their conquerors, Duquesne, Loyola, and Marquette, were all but the Falcon game, has grown progressively stronger in the eyes of Cincinnati fans. Victors in both, excepting Findlay, Dayton, and Marquette all other remain ing games are away, and the Bee Gee is going to have to pre sent a better brand of road ball than it has played by such teams as Xavier and Western Kentucky. However, when considering the three-set-backs the squad has taken thus far, it would be more than unfair to say that the basic fact was not in playing the type of game that is expected of this team.

The Falcon cagers will wrestle Ohio University in the national collegiate wrestling tournament in 1941.

All of the Bowling Green men who wrestled Saturday night have wrestled previously this season. The exception is, the basic team was developed last winter and has retained its strength.
