The Bee Gee News is a campus publication and as such it has a need to support and cooperate with all of the members of the student body. However, the editor, her editor, her content, and staff realize that they are creatures in the field of journalism and they have yet to have the polish and patina of an established, professional newspaper, but they are attempting to publish a paper which will be a reflection of the University's steady growth and improvement.

This is no easy task and one which they cannot hope to accomplish alone. Therefore we are asking for the help and cooperation which you can so readily give. Your unselfish patronage is appreciated.

If you think you can do a better job than some of us don't, just talk about it, sign up to work on the staff and show us that you can. We will be only too glad to have you join us.

If you feel that your department or organization is not getting the newspaper their members need to know about the latest news or that your club is not getting the recognition it deserves, then write to the editor. We are trying to meet the needs of all groups, but if we are not doing a good job, you can help us.

In order to have the Bee Gee News as complete and interesting as possible, we ask your help in gathering material. It is our aim to present an accurate, balanced picture of campus life.

By John Fay

For the past few weeks such influential magazines as Time, Life, and Newsweek have devoted their pages to others, focusing their attention on the case of Ada Sipuel Spaulding vs. the State of Oklahoma.

The majority lay in an argument about the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States. It states that "No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law; nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws." The Spaulding case involved a Negro woman who was denied admission to the University of Oklahoma because of her race.

The majority, in the case of this country, is the white race of ordinary American. She belongs to the race of people known as "American," and has every advantage that it would be hard to take away from her except her color. In other words the attitude of the majority toward the minority.

The minority, in the case of this country, is the white race of Negro. He is possibly equal, or almost equal, to the Jews in numbers but here another element is represented in the difference in the color of his skin or almost equal to the Jew in numbers but here another element is represented in the difference in the color of his skin and the color of his skin is the tremendous advantage of having enough public opinion in his favor to accomplish. So if you have any journalistic leanings, if you're an on-campus photographer, or if you want to get to know your campus and fellow students better, the Bee Gee News can use you.

Students Praise Dating Course

For the second consecutive year Dr. Samuel R. Lowrie, head of the psychology department, is offering a 2-hour course in American Dating. The class is restricted to freshmen.

The class is limited in size so that there will be enough individual consultation with the students. The instructor, Dr. Lowrie, is engaged in analyzing the problems of dating and marriage and in suggesting solutions which are in line with the present day ideas of marriage and family life. This will enable him to help students in the future. The course is directed to marriages and pre-marital adjustments, in order to guide students in making a sensible choice of mate.

The class' innovation last year, created a widespread public in language which was expected to keep the cities the same. Many students were left behind in the class, but the students who were left behind will have a very real benefit by Mr. Joseph Linnick, instructor.

Cagers Meet Boston, Syracuse, and Kent State

Two more teams with mediocre records, which could provide the same standout opposition as Dayton, will be encountered by Bowling Green on foreign courts this week. Tomorrow Coach Harold Anderson’s cagers meet American International at Springfield, Mass., but the toughest gauntlet will be at Syracuse Saturday and with Kent State at the Pins Field House Sunday.

American International fields a team averaging about .525 trimmed, by the .625-opponent Wayne Jones, who is the Ace’s ranking specialist. The other captain, Buck Arnold, is a 6’6” guard and a defensive genius. The shortest of the team, his list, is Short Gibby is listed as the scorekeeper in order to counter the height of the line. So, the question of the day, how will the Gators, that fast-breaking Bowling Green, do against the intimidating duo of prestige-commemorating with the retention of a “Simon-pure” clientele.

AGENT STELL? POSSIBLE?

We cannot afford to stand idly by, watching the inevitable drop in the number of students from Bowling Green, unfortunately, is lagging far behind the other schools in all aspects of this problem. Aside from some free lodging, the only way to eliminate the cut-throat perogative of awarding scholarships on the basis of ability is for the university authorities to acknowledges and defends their creed.

Coach Harold Anderson rated the best he had ever coached, has a school ranked high in the minds of people across the nation. During the season when they are active.

The individual personality of Anderson, himself, is a factor to consider. Garden authorities are high on the Falcon mentor—

Garden BID STILL POSSIBLE?

The entire practice has been brought out in the open. University officials have rightly acknowledged and defended their creed.

The individual personality of Anderson, himself, is a factor to consider. Garden authorities are high on the Falcon mentor—

Theories advanced attempting to explain the lapses in form are too numerous to list. No one can say for sure what is wrong with the team, but the answers are too numerous to list. No one can say for sure what is wrong with the team, but the answers are too numerous to list.

Bowling Green Edges Dayton

Dayton

Returning to their home floor, the Falcons barely edged out a de-termining Dayton, 71-69. In the most exciting home game of the season, the Falcons played the visitors in the final minute of play.

Two experimental rules were employed in the game. The first being that all jump balls be brought to the nearest circle and the second being that three fouls be incurred instead of two. Three Falcons received these fouls in the first half, which restricted the re-mainder of the half but he could return in the second half. If he crossed these fouls in the second half, he was through for the entire game.

The Falcons began the game by forging out in front 5-1 but Dayton quickly caught and passed them, gaining a 1-4 lead and continuing this lead at the half.

The second half was a nip and tuck struggle, as the Falcons played more steadily than the Flyers.

High scorer with 20 points, along with Ginn, was West plumed outstanding bull for the one thing that must of his points. Red succeeded in doing what of his previous work in the game. The new foal rule cost him eligi-bility early in the half. The Day-ter, the Falcons trailed 42-43, but then big Chuck fouled out and the Musketeers connected for 17 out of 23 field goals by Chuck Share and Red Speicher, and added 17 points. The Musketeers led 11-ill toppers pushed ahead. BG
